
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

2001 No. 397

Foyle Area and Carlingford Area (Licensing of Fishing Engines) Regulations 2001

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations:—

“coarse fish” means any fresh water fish other than trout and rainbow trout;

“fresh water fish” means any fish living in freshwater other than a fish of a kind that migrates to and from the sea;

“the Commission” means the Foyle, Carlingford and Irish Lights Commission;

“a licence distributor” means a person duly authorised by the Commission to distribute fishing licences in respect of fishing engines.