1. About you (the Applicant)

- State
 - your full (Mr, Mrs etc) full name, sex, date and place of birth and address
 - your solicitor's name, address, reference, telephone, FAX and DX numbers.

If you are not the person whose parentage is in issue or an acknowledged or alleged parent of that person, state what your interest in the case is, or that the application relates to the Child Support (Northern Ireland) Order 1991 and is brought by the Department or the person with care.

2. About the other people in the case

(1) State, so far as you know them, the full name, the place and date of birth and the address of the following persons (unless you are that person):

- the person whose parentage is in issue
- the person whose parenthood is in issue
- any person who is acknowledged to be the father or mother of the person whose parentage is in issue.

(2) If the person whose parentage is in issue or the person whose parenthood is in issue is known by a name other than that which appears in the entry relating to his birth in the Register of Births, state that name

(3) If the mother, or alleged mother, of the person whose parentage is in issue has been known by different names at times before the date of the presentation of the application state (if you know)

- (i) her full name at the date of—
 - (a) her birth;
 - (b) her first marriage;
 - (c) the birth of the person whose parentage is in issue; and
 - (d) her most recent marriage

(4) Give particulars of every other person whose interest may be affected by the proceedings and his relationship to the person whose parentage is in issue.

3. Your reason(s) for applying

State the grounds on which you are relying and all other relevant facts which you allege justify the making of the declaration.

4. Other proceedings

State whether there are or have been any other proceedings in any court, tribunal or authority in Northern Ireland or elsewhere relating to the parentage of the person whose parentage is in issue or to the parenthood of the person whose parenthood is in issue, and, if so, give the following details—

- (i) particulars of the proceedings, including the court, tribunal or authority before which they were begun, and their nature, outcome or present state;
- (ii) the date they were begun;
- (iii) the names of the parties, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(iv) the date or expected date of any trial in the proceedings

5. Connection with Northern Ireland

(1) State whether the person whose parentage is in issue or the person whose parenthood is in issue

(a) is domiciled in Northern Ireland on the date of the presentation of the application. YES/NO

(b) has been habitually resident in Northern Ireland throughout the period of one year ending with that date. YES/NO

(c) died before that date and either was at death domiciled in Northern Ireland or had been habitually resident in Northern Ireland throughout the period of one year ending with the date of death. YES/NO

(2) If the court's jurisdiction to hear the application is based on habitual residence, state the addresses of the places of residence of the person so resident and the length of residence at each place either during the period of one year ending with the date of presentation of the application or, if that person is dead, throughout the period of one year ending with the date of death.

6. Nationality

State the nationality, citizenship or immigration status of the person whose parentage is in issue and of the person whose parenthood is in issue, and the effect which the granting of a declaration of parentage would have upon the status of each of them as regards his nationality, citizenship or right to be in the United Kingdom.

7. Birth Certificate

A certified copy of the entry in the Register of Births relating to the birth of the person whose parentage is in issue must, where available, be attached to this application

8. The Respondents

The respondents to the application will be—

(i) the person whose parentage is in issue, and

(ii) any person who is, or who is alleged to be, the mother or father of the person whose parentage is in issue.

unless that person is the applicant.

State the full name and address of the respondents.
