EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Teachers' (Compensation for Redundancy and Premature Retirement) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1991.

Regulation 3(2) to (4), (7) and (8) introduces changes necessitated by the incorporation of institutions of further education and provides for the Department for Employment and Learning rather than the education and library board to be the compensating authority in the case of such institutions. Regulation 3(6) and (9) reduces the amount of added years which may be granted to a person retiring on grounds of redundancy or in the interests of the efficient discharge of his employer's functions. Regulation 3(9) also clarifies that additional years purchased for a past period shall not be counted as qualifying years in determining the amount of added years to be granted as compensation for early retirement.
