6.—(1) No restriction on the private life of members shall be imposed by the Board or the Chief Constable, other than those designed to secure the proper exercise of the functions of a member, except such as may temporarily be necessary or such as may be approved by the Secretary of State after consultation with the Police Advisory Board established under section 45 of the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 1998; and any such restriction temporarily imposed shall be reported forthwith to the Secretary of State.

(2) A member shall at all times abstain from any activity which is likely to interfere with the impartial discharge of his duties or which is likely to give rise to the impression amongst members of the public that it may so interfere; and in particular a member shall not take any active part in politics.

(3) A member shall not wilfully refuse or neglect to discharge any lawful debt.

Prohibited business interests

7.—(1) If a member or a relative included in his family has a prohibited business interest within the meaning of regulation 2A of the Police (Recruitment) (Northern Ireland) Regulations 2001⁽⁹⁾, the Chief Constable may give notice in writing to the member that the prohibited business interest is incompatible with that person remaining a member.

(2) The Chief Constable shall not give notice under paragraph (1) before the conclusion of any such procedure as may be established by the Chief Constable for the informal resolution of cases in which it appears to him that a member or a relative included in his family may have a prohibited business interest.

(3) Within 10 days of receiving a notice given under paragraph (1), or within such longer period as the Board may in all the circumstances allow, the member concerned may appeal to the Board against the decision of the Chief Constable as set out in the notice by sending written notice of his appeal to the Board.

(4) On receipt of a notice given under paragraph (3) the Board shall require the Chief Constable to submit to it, within the next following 10 days –

- (a) a notice setting out the reasons for his decision, and
- (b) copies of any documents on which he relies in support of that decision, and the Board shall send to the member concerned copies of such notice and documents and shall afford him a reasonable opportunity, being in no case less than 14 days, to comment thereon.

(5) Where a member has appealed to the Board under paragraph (3) the Board shall give him notice of its determination of the appeal within 28 days of –

- (a) receiving his comments on the notice and any other documents submitted by the Chief Constable under paragraph (4), or

- (b) in a police force in Great Britain, may count towards the period of probation.

(3) If, in the opinion of the Chief Constable, the period of probation of a member was seriously interrupted by a period of absence from duty, the Chief Constable may, at his discretion, extend the period of probation for such longer period, not exceeding 12 months, as he determines in the circumstances of the particular case.

Discharge of probationer

9.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation, during his period of probation in the Police Service of Northern Ireland Reserve the services of a member may be dispensed with at any time if the Chief Constable considers that he –

- (a) is not fitted, physically or mentally, to perform the duties of his office, or
- (b) is not likely to become an efficient or well-conducted member.

(2) A member whose services are dispensed with under this regulation shall be entitled to receive a month's notice.

(3) A member's services shall not be dispensed with in accordance with this regulation, and any notice given for the purposes thereof shall cease to have effect, if he gives written notice to the Chief Constable of his intention to retire and retires in pursuance of the said notice on or before the date on which his services would otherwise be dispensed with; and such a notice taking effect on that date shall be accepted by the Chief Constable notwithstanding that less than a month's notice is given.

10.—(1) The appropriate officer may dismiss a member whose persistent failure to report for duty is unacceptable.

(2) In this regulation "the appropriate officer" means, in relation to a member –

(a) 10 days of receiving notice of the dismissal, or

(b) such longer period as the Chief Constable may in all the circumstances allow, and where notice of appeal is so given, the dismissal shall not take effect until notice of the decision on the appeal is given to the member under paragraph (9).

(7) The Chief Constable shall, on receipt of a notice of appeal under paragraph (6), require the appropriate officer to submit to him, within the next following 10 days –

(a) a notice setting out the grounds for his decision to dismiss the member, and

(b) copies of any documents on which he relies in support of that decision.

(8) Where the Chief Constable receives a notice or copies of any documents under paragraph (7), he shall send copies of them to the member, and shall afford the member a reasonable opportunity, being in no case less than 14 days, to comment thereon.

(9) Where a member has appealed under paragraph (6) the Chief Constable shall give him notice of his decision on the appeal within 28 days of –

(3) Without prejudice to paragraphs (1) and (2) or the Conduct Regulations, but subject to paragraph (4), a member may retire only if he has given a month's written notice of his intention to retire or such shorter notice as may have been accepted by the Chief Constable.

(4) A member who is suspended under the Conduct Regulations may not, without the consent of the Chief Constable, give notice for the purposes of paragraph (3) or retire in pursuance of a notice previously given.

(13) S.R. 2004 No. 2

SCHEDULE

Regulation 24

MOTOR VEHICLE ALLOWANCES

1. For the purposes of regulation 24 and of this Schedule the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them –

“authorised use” means the use, authorised under regulation 24, of a motor vehicle owned by the member concerned for the purposes of his duties as a member, and “period of authorised use” means the period during which such use is authorised;

“cylinder capacity” means the cylinder capacity of the engine of a vehicle calculated in accordance with regulations under paragraph 2(4) of Schedule 1 to the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994(14);

“motor bicycle” means a mechanically propelled bicycle (including a motor scooter, a bicycle with an attachment for propelling it by mechanical power and a mechanically propelled bicycle used for drawing a sidecar);

“motor car” means a mechanically propelled vehicle other than a motor bicycle and, accordingly, includes a mechanically propelled tricycle;

“year” means a period of twelve months beginning on such date as may be determined by the Chief Constable;

and a reference to a motor vehicle owned by a member is a reference to such a vehicle kept and used by him.

2.—(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, the amount of a motor vehicle allowance payable at the essential user’s rate shall, in any year, comprise a fixed element and a mileage element, calculated as provided in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) The fixed element shall be calculated by reference to the number of completed months comprised in the period of authorised use for the year in question, at such annual rate as is specified by the Secretary of State by reference to the cylinder capacity of the motor car in question.

(3) The mileage element shall be calculated, in relation to authorised use, at such rate as is specified by the Secretary of State by reference to the cylinder capacity of the motor car in question, and for that purpose he may so specify –

(a) a basic rate, in relation to authorised use not exceeding such mileage as is specified by him (“the basic mileage”), and

(b) a reduced rate, in relation to authorised use in excess of the basic mileage.

(4) Where, in any year, a motor vehicle allowance is payable at the essential user’s rate, it shall be payable in such instalments, in advance or in arrear, as the Chief Constable may determine; but when the amount of the allowance for that year is finally calculated, any overpayment shall be recoverable.

(5) Where, in any year, a motor vehicle allowance is payable at the essential user’s rate to a member and –

(a) the member is on sick leave or maternity leave, or

(b) the motor car in question is out of order, for a continuous period of four or more weeks in that year, the allowance shall be reduced by such amount as the Chief Constable determines as being appropriate in all the circumstances.

(6) Where, in any year, a motor vehicle allowance is payable at the essential user’s rate but the period of authorised use is a fraction only of that year, sub-paragraph (3) shall have effect as if for the reference to the basic mileage there were substituted a reference to the corresponding fraction of that mileage; and, for the purposes of this paragraph, the monthly rate of the fixed element of such an allowance so payable shall be taken to be a twelfth of the annual rate.

(14) 1994 c. 22

3. The amount of a motor vehicle allowance payable at the casual user's rate shall, in any year, be an amount calculated, in relation to the mileage of authorised use in that year, at such rate as is specified by the Secretary of State by reference to that mileage and the cylinder capacity of the motor car in question, except that where the amount of the allowance would be less if it were calculated at the essential user's rate, it shall be of an amount calculated in accordance with paragraph 2.

4. The amount of a motor vehicle allowance payable to a member shall not exceed that which would be payable if the vehicle in question were of such a cylinder capacity, not being less than 1,000 c.c., as the Chief Constable has determined appropriate for use for the purposes of the duties normally performed by the member concerned.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations consolidate, with amendments, the Royal Ulster Constabulary Reserve (Part-time) (Appointment and Conditions of Service) Regulations 1996.

The regulations are divided into five separate parts, each of which covers a different aspect of the conditions of service of a part-time member of the Police Service of Northern Ireland Reserve.

Part I makes the necessary revocations and transitional provisions. It makes provision for the application of the regulations in relation to members appointed on or after 8th February 2004. It also makes provision for members appointed before that date to be required to undergo further training.

Part II describes the restrictions which may be applied to members of the Police Service of Northern Ireland Reserve, and makes provision for probation, dismissal, retirement, personal records and fingerprints.

Part III defines the duties that a member is normally expected to carry out, and makes provision about pay.

Part IV lists the various allowances and other emoluments to which a member may be entitled provided the relevant criteria are satisfied.

Part V makes provision for the issue of uniform and equipment to members.
