 - (b) does not conduct the ballot or any of the separate ballots before the management has satisfied the requirement specified in regulation 23(3)(g) and –
 - (i) where no complaint has been presented under regulation 23(4), before the expiry of a period of 21 days beginning on the date on which the management published its arrangements under regulation 23(3)(g); or
 - (ii) where a complaint has been presented under regulation 23(4), before the complaint has been determined and, where appropriate, the arrangements have been modified as required by an order made as a result of that complaint;
 - (c) conducts the ballot, or each separate ballot so as to secure that –
 - (i) so far as reasonably practicable, those entitled to vote are given the opportunity to vote;
 - (ii) so far as reasonably practicable, those entitled to stand as candidates are given the opportunity to stand;
 - (iii) so far as reasonably practicable, those voting are able to do so in secret; and
 - (iv) the votes given in the ballot are fairly and accurately counted.
- (3) As soon as reasonably practicable after the holding of the ballot, the ballot supervisor must publish the results of the ballot in such manner as to make them available to the management and, so far as reasonably practicable, the UK employees entitled to vote in the ballot and the persons who stood as candidates.
- (4) A ballot supervisor shall publish a report (“an ineffective ballot report”) where he considers (whether on the basis of representations made to him by another person or otherwise) that –

- (a) any of the requirements referred to in paragraph (2) was not satisfied with the result that the outcome of the ballot would have been different; or
 - (b) there was an interference with the carrying out of his functions or a failure by management to comply with all reasonable requests made by him with the result that he was unable to form a proper judgement as to whether each of the requirements referred to in paragraph (2) was satisfied in the ballot.
- (5) Where a ballot supervisor publishes an ineffective ballot report the report must be published within a period of one month commencing on the date on which the ballot supervisor publishes the results of the ballot under paragraph (3).
- (6) A ballot supervisor shall publish an ineffective ballot report in such manner as to make it available to the management and, so far as reasonably practicable, the UK employees entitled to vote in the ballot and the persons who stood as candidates in the ballot.
- (7) Where a ballot supervisor publishes an ineffective ballot report then –
- (a) if there has been a single ballot or an ineffective ballot report has been published in respect of every separate ballot, the outcome of the ballot or ballots shall have no effect and the management shall again be under the obligation in regulation 23(2);
 - (b) if there have been separate ballots and sub-paragraph (a) does not apply –
 - (i) the management shall arrange for the separate ballot or ballots in respect of which an ineffective ballot report was published to be re-held in accordance with regulation 23 and this regulation; and
 - (ii) no such ballot shall have effect until it has been re-held and no ineffective ballot report has been published in respect of it.
- (8) All costs relating to the holding of a ballot, including payments made to a ballot supervisor for supervising the conduct of the ballot, shall be borne by the management (whether or not an ineffective ballot report has been published).

Appointment of UK members by a consultative committee

- 25.—(1) This regulation applies where –
- (a) regulation 23(3)(a)(i) or (ii) or (b) would require a ballot to be held; and
 - (b) there exists in the participating company in respect of which a ballot would be held under regulation 23, a consultative committee.
- (2) (a) Where this regulation applies, the election provided for in regulation 23 shall not take place but the consultative committee shall be entitled to appoint the UK member or members of the special negotiating body who would otherwise be elected pursuant to regulation 23 provided that the consultative committee's appointment complied with sub-paragraph (b).
- (b) The consultative committee is entitled to appoint as a member of the special negotiating body –
- (i) one of their number; or
 - (ii) if the management of the participating company in respect of which the consultative committee exists so permits, a trade union representative, who is not an employee of that company.
- (3) In this regulation, “a consultative committee” means a body of persons –
- (a) whose normal functions include or comprise the carrying out of an information and consultation function;
 - (b) which is able to carry out its information and consultation function without interference from the management of the participating company;
 - (c) which, in carrying out its information and consultation function, represents all the employees of the participating company; and
 - (d) which consists wholly of persons who are employees of the participating company or its concerned subsidiaries.
- (4) In paragraph (3) “information and consultation function” means the function of –

- (a) receiving, on behalf of all the employees of the participating company, information which may significantly affect the interests of the employees of that company, but excluding information which is relevant only to a specific aspect of the interests of the employees, such as health and safety or collective redundancies; and
- (b) being consulted by the management of the participating company on the information referred to in sub-paragraph (a).

(5) The consultative committee must publish the names of the persons whom it has appointed to be members of the special negotiating body in such a manner as to bring them to the attention of the management of the participating company and, so far as reasonably practicable, the employees and the employees' representatives of that company and its concerned subsidiaries.

(6) Where the management of the participating company, an employee or an employees' representative believes that –

- (a) the consultative committee does not satisfy the requirements in paragraph (3); or
- (b) any of the persons appointed by the consultative committee is not entitled to be appointed, it, or as the case may be, he, may, within a period of 21 days beginning on the date on which the consultative committee published under paragraph (5) the names of the persons appointed, present a complaint to the Industrial Court.

(7) Where the Industrial Court finds the complaint well-founded it shall make a declaration to that effect.

(8) Where the Industrial Court has made a declaration under paragraph (7) –

- (a) no appointment made by the consultative committee shall have effect; and
- (b) the members of the special negotiating body shall be elected by a ballot of the employees in accordance with regulation 23.

(9) Where the consultative committee appoints any person to be a member of the special negotiating body, that appointment shall have effect –

- (a) where no complaint has been presented under paragraph (6) after the expiry of a period of 21 days beginning on the date on which the consultative committee published under paragraph (5) the names of the persons appointed; or
- (b) where a complaint has been presented under paragraph (6), as from the day on which the complaint has been determined without a declaration under paragraph (7) being made.

Representation of employees

26.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), a member elected in a ballot in accordance with regulation 21(2), shall be treated as representing the employees for the time being of the participating company, and of any concerned subsidiary or establishment whose employees were entitled to vote in the ballot in which he was elected.

(2) If an additional member is elected in accordance with regulation 21(3) and (4), he, and not any member elected in accordance with regulation 21(2), shall be treated as representing the employees for the time being of the participating company, and of any concerned subsidiary or establishment whose employees were entitled to vote in the ballot in which he was elected.

(3) When a member of the special negotiating body is appointed by a consultative committee in accordance with regulation 25, the employees whom the consultative committee represents and the employees of any concerned subsidiary shall be treated as being represented by the member so appointed.

CHAPTER 4

NEGOTIATION OF THE EMPLOYEE INVOLVEMENT AGREEMENT

Negotiations to reach an employee involvement agreement

27.—(1) In this regulation and in regulation 28 the competent organs of the participating companies and the special negotiating body are referred to as “the parties”.

(2) The parties are under a duty to negotiate in a spirit of cooperation with a view to reaching an employee involvement agreement.

(3) The duty referred to in paragraph (2) commences one month after the date or, if more than one, the last date on which the members of the special negotiating body were elected or appointed and applies –

- (a) for the period of six months starting with the day on which the duty commenced or, where an employee involvement agreement is successfully negotiated within that period, until the completion of the negotiations;
- (b) where the parties agree before the end of that six month period that it is to be extended, for the period of twelve months starting with the day on which the duty commenced or, where an employee involvement agreement is successfully negotiated within the twelve month period, until the completion of the negotiations.

The employee involvement agreement

28.—(1) The employee involvement agreement must be in writing.

(2) Without prejudice to the autonomy of the parties and subject to paragraph (4), the employee involvement agreement shall specify –

- (a) the scope of the agreement;
- (b) the composition, number of members and allocation of seats on the representative body;
- (c) the functions and the procedure for the information and consultation of the representative body;
- (d) the frequency of meetings of the representative body;
- (e) the financial and material resources to be allocated to the representative body;
- (f) if, during negotiations, the parties decide to establish one or more information and consultation procedures instead of a representative body, the arrangements for implementing those procedures;
- (g) if, during negotiations, the parties decide to establish arrangements for participation, the substance of those arrangements including (if applicable) the number of members in the SE's administrative or supervisory body which the employees will be entitled to elect, appoint, recommend or oppose, the procedures as to how these members may be elected, appointed, recommended or opposed by the employees, and their rights; and
- (h) the date of entry into force of the agreement and its duration, the circumstances, if any, in which the agreement is required to be re-negotiated and the procedure for its re-negotiation.

(3) The employee involvement agreement shall not be subject to the standard rules on employee involvement, unless it contains a provision to the contrary.

(4) In relation to an SE to be established by way of transformation, the employee involvement agreement shall provide for the elements of employee involvement at all levels to be at least as favourable as those which exist in the company to be transformed into an SE.

(5) If the parties decide, in accordance with paragraph (2)(f), to establish one or more information and consultation procedures instead of a representative body and if those procedures include a provision for representatives to be elected or appointed to act in relation to information and consultation, those representatives shall be “information and consultation representatives”.

Decisions of the special negotiating body

29.—(1) Each member of the special negotiating body shall have one vote.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) and regulation 30, the special negotiating body shall take decisions by an absolute majority vote.

(3) In the following circumstances any decision which would result in a reduction of participation rights must be taken by a two thirds majority vote –

- (a) where an SE is to be established by merger and at least 25% of the employees employed to work in the EEA states by the participating companies which are due to merge have participation rights; and
- (b) where an SE is to be established by formation of a holding company or of a subsidiary company and at least 50% of the total number of employees employed to work in the EEA states by the participating companies have participation rights, and in this paragraph, reduction of participation rights means that the body representative of the employees has participation rights in relation to a smaller proportion of members of the supervisory or administrative organs of the SE than the employees' representatives had in the participating company which gave participation rights in relation to the highest proportion of such members in that company.

(4) The special negotiating body must publish the details of any decision taken under this regulation or under regulation 30 in such a manner as to bring the decision, so far as reasonably practicable, to the attention of the employees whom it represents and such publication shall take place as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any event, no later than 14 days after the decision has been taken.

(5) For the purpose of negotiations, the special negotiating body may be assisted by experts of its choice.

(6) The participating company or companies shall pay for any reasonable expenses of the functioning of the special negotiating body and any reasonable expenses relating to the negotiations that are necessary to enable the special negotiating body to carry out its functions in an appropriate manner; but where the special negotiating body is assisted by more than one expert the participating company is not required to pay such expenses in respect of more than one of them.

Decision not to open or to terminate negotiations

30.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the special negotiating body may decide, by a two thirds majority vote, not to open negotiations with the competent organs of the participating companies or to terminate any such negotiations.

(2) The special negotiating body cannot take the decision referred to in paragraph (1) in relation to an SE to be established by transformation if any employees of the company to be transformed have participation rights.

(3) Any decision made under paragraph (1) shall have the following effects –

- (a) the duty in regulation 27(2) to negotiate with a view to reaching an employee involvement agreement shall cease as from the date of the decision;
- (b) any rules relating to the information and consultation of employees in a EEA state in which employees of the SE are employed shall apply to the employees of the SE in that EEA state; and
- (c) the special negotiating body shall be reconvened only if a valid request in accordance with paragraph (4) is made by employees or employees' representatives.

(4) To amount to a valid request, the request referred to in paragraph (3)(c) must –

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) be made by at least 10% of the employees of, or by employees' representatives representing at least 10% of the total number of employees employed by –
 - (i) the participating companies and their concerned subsidiaries; or
 - (ii) where the SE has been registered, the SE and its subsidiaries; and
- (c) be made no earlier than two years after the decision made under paragraph (1) was or should have been published in accordance with regulation 29(4) unless the special negotiating body and the competent organs of every participating company or, where the SE has been registered, the SE agrees to the special negotiating body being reconvened earlier.

Complaint about decisions of the special negotiating body

31.—(1) If a member of the special negotiating body, an employees' representative, or where there is no such representative in respect of an employee, that employee believes that the special negotiating body has taken a decision referred to in regulation 29 or 30 and –

- (a) that the decision was not taken by the majority required by regulation 29 or 30, as the case may be; or
- (b) the special negotiating body failed to publish the decision in accordance with regulation 29(4), he may present a complaint to the Industrial Court within 21 days of the date the special negotiating body published or should have published its decision in accordance with regulation 29(4).

(2) Where the Industrial Court finds the complaint well-founded it shall make a declaration that the decision was not taken properly and that it shall have no effect.

STANDARD RULES ON EMPLOYEE INVOLVEMENT

Standard rules on employee involvement

32.—(1) Without prejudice to paragraph (3), where this regulation applies, the competent organ of the SE and its subsidiaries and establishments shall make arrangements for the involvement of employees of the SE and its subsidiaries and establishments in accordance with the standard rules on employee involvement.

(2) This regulation applies in the following circumstances –

- (a) where the parties agree that the standard rules on employee involvement shall apply; or
- (b) where the period specified in regulation 27(3)(a) or, where applicable, (b) has expired without the parties reaching an employee involvement agreement and –
 - (i) the competent organs of each of the participating companies agree that the standard rules on employee involvement shall apply and so continue with the registration of the SE; and
 - (ii) the special negotiating body has not taken any decision under regulation 30(1) either not to open or to terminate the negotiations referred to in that regulation.

(3) The standard rules set out in Part 3 of Schedule 3 (standard rules for participation) only apply in the following circumstances –

- (a) in the case of an SE established by merger if, before registration of the SE, one or more forms of participation existed in at least one of the participating companies and either –
 - (i) that participation applied to at least 25% of the total number of employees of the participating companies employed in the EEA states; or
 - (ii) that participation applied to less than 25% of the total number of employees of the participating companies employed in the EEA states but the special negotiating body has decided that the standard rules for participation will apply to the employees of the SE; or
- (b) in the case of an SE established by formation of a holding company or subsidiary company if, before registration of the SE, one or more forms of employee participation existed in at least one of the participating companies and either –
 - (i) that participation applied to at least 50% of the total number of employees of the participating companies employed in the EEA states; or
 - (ii) that participation applied to less than 50% of the total number of employees of the participating companies employed in the EEA states but the special negotiating body has decided that the standard rules for participation will apply to the employees of the SE.

(4) Where the standard rules for participation apply and more than one form of employee participation exists in the participating companies, the special negotiating body shall decide which of the existing forms of participation shall exist in the SE and shall inform the competent organs of the participating companies accordingly.

CHAPTER 6

COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT

Disputes about operation of an employee involvement agreement or the standard rules on employee involvement

33.—(1) Where –

- (a) an employee involvement agreement has been agreed; or
- (b) the standard rules on employee involvement apply,

a complaint may be presented to the Industrial Court by a relevant applicant who considers that the competent organ of a participating company or of the SE has failed to comply with the terms of the employee involvement agreement or, as the case may be, one or more of the standard information and consultation provisions.

(2) A complaint brought under paragraph (1) must be brought within a period of 3 months commencing with the date of the alleged failure or where the failure takes place over a period, the last day of that period.

(3) In this regulation –

“failure” means an act or omission;

“relevant applicant” means –

- (a) in a case where a representative body has been appointed or elected, a member of that body; or
- (b) in a case where no representative body has been elected or appointed, an information and consultation representative or an employee of the SE.

(4) Where the Industrial Court finds the complaint well-founded it shall make a declaration to that effect and may make an order requiring the SE to take such steps as are necessary to comply with the terms of the employee involvement agreement or, as the case may be, the standard rules on employee involvement.

(5) An order made under paragraph (4) shall specify –

- (a) the steps which the SE is required to take;
- (b) the date of the failure; and
- (c) the period within which the order must be complied with.

(6) Where the Industrial Court makes a declaration under paragraph (4), the relevant applicant may, within the period of three months beginning with the day on which the declaration is made, make an application to the High Court for a penalty notice to be issued.

(7) Where such an application is made, the High Court shall issue a written penalty notice to the SE requiring it to pay a penalty to the Department for Employment and Learning in respect of the failure unless satisfied, on hearing representations from the SE, that the failure resulted from a reason beyond its control or that it has some other reasonable excuse for its failure.

(8) Regulation 34 shall apply in respect of a penalty notice issued under this regulation.

(9) No order of the Industrial Court under this regulation shall have the effect of suspending or altering the effect of any act done or of any agreement made by the participating company or the SE.

Penalties

34.—(1) A penalty notice issued under regulation 33 shall specify –

- (a) the amount of the penalty which is payable;
- (b) the date before which the penalty must be paid; and
- (c) the failure and period to which the penalty relates.

(2) No penalty set by the High Court under this regulation may exceed £75,000.

(3) When setting the amount of the penalty, the High Court shall take into account –

- (a) the gravity of the failure;
- (b) the period of time over which the failure occurred;
- (c) the reason for the failure;
- (d) the number of employees affected by the failure; and
- (e) the number of employees employed by the undertaking.

(4) The date specified under paragraph (1)(b) must not be earlier than the end of the period within which an appeal against a declaration or order made by the Industrial Court under regulation 33 may be made.

- (5) If the specified date in a penalty notice has passed and –
 - (a) the period during which an appeal may be made has expired without an appeal having been made; or
 - (b) such an appeal has been made and determined, the Department for Employment and Learning may recover from the SE, as a civil debt due to it, any amount payable under the penalty notice which remains outstanding.

- (6) The making of an appeal suspends the effect of the penalty notice.

(7) Any sums received by the Department for Employment and Learning under regulation 33 or this regulation shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Misuse of procedures

35.—(1) If an employees’ representative or where there is no such representative in relation to an employee, the employee, believes that a participating company or an SE is misusing or intending to misuse the SE or the powers in these Regulations for the purpose of –

- (a) depriving the employees of that participating company or of any of its concerned subsidiaries or, as the case may be, of the SE or of its subsidiaries of their rights to employee involvement; or
- (b) withholding rights from any of the people referred to in sub-paragraph (a),

he may make a complaint to the Industrial Court.

(2) Where a complaint is made to the Industrial Court under paragraph (1) before registration or within a period of 12 months of the date of the registration of the SE, the Industrial Court shall uphold the complaint unless the respondent proves that it did not misuse or intend to misuse the SE or the powers in these Regulations for either of the purposes set out in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) of paragraph (1).

- (3) If the Industrial Court finds the complaint to be well-founded –
 - (a) it shall make a declaration to that effect and may make an order requiring the participating company or the SE, as the case may be, to take such action as is specified in the order to ensure that the employees referred to in paragraph (1)(a) are not deprived of their rights to employee involvement or that such rights are not withheld from them; and
 - (b) the provisions in regulations 33(6) to (9) and 34 shall apply to the complaint.

Exclusivity of remedy

36. The remedy for infringement of the rights conferred by these Regulations is by way of complaint to the Industrial Court in accordance with this Part and not otherwise.

CHAPTER 7

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Breach of statutory duty

37.—(1) Where an SE, a subsidiary of an SE, a participating company or any concerned subsidiary entrusts a person pursuant to the provisions of this Part, with any information or document on terms requiring it to be held in confidence, the person shall not disclose that information or document except in accordance with the terms on which it was disclosed to him.

(2) In this regulation a person referred to in paragraph (1) to whom information or a document is entrusted is referred to as a “recipient”.

(3) The obligation to comply with paragraph (1) is a duty owed to the company that disclosed the information to the person and a breach of the duty is actionable accordingly (subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty).

(4) Paragraph (3) does not affect any legal liability which any person may incur by disclosing the information, or any right which any person may have in relation to such disclosure otherwise than under this regulation.

(5) No action shall lie under paragraph (3) where the recipient reasonably believed the disclosure to be a “protected disclosure” within the meaning given to that expression by Article 67A of the 1996 Order(a).

(6) A recipient to whom a company has entrusted any information or document on terms requiring it to be held in confidence may apply to the Industrial Court for a declaration as to whether it was reasonable for the company to require the recipient to hold the information or document in confidence.

(7) If the Industrial Court considers that the disclosure of the information or the document by the recipient would not, or would not be likely to, harm the legitimate interests of the undertaking, it shall make a declaration that it was not reasonable for the company to require the recipient to hold the information or document in confidence.

(8) If a declaration is made under paragraph (7), the information or document shall not at any time thereafter be regarded as having been entrusted to the recipient who made the application under paragraph (6), or to any other recipient, on terms requiring it to be held in confidence.

Withholding of information

38.—(1) Neither an SE registered in Northern Ireland nor a participating company registered in Northern Ireland is required to disclose any information or document to a person for the purposes of this Part where the nature of the information or document is such that, according to objective criteria, the disclosure of the information or document would seriously harm the functioning of, or would be prejudicial to, the SE or any subsidiary or establishment of the SE or, as the case may be, to the participating company or any subsidiary or establishment of the participating company.

(2) Where there is a dispute between the SE or participating company and –

- (a) where a representative body has been appointed or elected, a member of that body; or
- (b) where no representative body has been elected or appointed, an information and consultation representative or an employee, as to whether the nature of the information or document which the SE or the participating company has failed to provide is such as is described in paragraph (1), the SE or participating company or a person referred to in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) may apply to the Industrial Court for a declaration as to whether the information or document is of such a nature.

(3) If the Industrial Court makes a declaration that the disclosure of the information or document in question would not, according to objective criteria, be seriously harmful or prejudicial as mentioned in paragraph (1), the Industrial Court shall order the company to disclose the information or document.

(4) An order under paragraph (3) shall specify –

- (a) the information or document to be disclosed;
- (b) the person or persons to whom the information or document is to be disclosed;
- (c) any terms on which the information or document is to be disclosed; and
- (d) the date before which the information or document is to be disclosed.

(a) Article 67A of the 1996 Order was inserted by Article 3 of the Public Interest Disclosure (Northern Ireland) Order 1998 (S.I. 1998/1763 (N.I. 17))

CHAPTER 8

PROTECTION FOR MEMBERS OF THE SPECIAL NEGOTIATING BODY, ETC.

Right to time off for members of the special negotiating body, etc.

- 39.—(1) An employee who is –
- (a) a member of a special negotiating body;
 - (b) a member of a representative body;
 - (c) an information and consultation representative;
 - (d) an employee member on a supervisory or administrative organ; or
 - (e) a candidate in an election in which any person elected will, on being elected, be such a member or a representative, is entitled to be permitted by his employer to take reasonable time off during the employee's working hours in order to perform his functions as such a member, representative or candidate.

(2) For the purpose of this regulation the working hours of an employee shall be taken to be any time when, in accordance with his contract of employment, the employee is required to be at work.

Right to remuneration for time off under regulation 39

40.—(1) An employee who is permitted to take time off under regulation 39 is entitled to be paid remuneration by his employer for the time taken off at the appropriate hourly rate.

(2) Chapter IV of Part I of the 1996 Order (a week's pay) shall apply in relation to this regulation as it applies in relation to Article 90 of the 1996 Order.

(3) The appropriate hourly rate, in relation to an employee, is the amount of one week's pay divided by the number of normal working hours in a week for that employee when employed under the contract of employment in force on the day when the time is taken.

(4) But where the number of normal working hours differs from week to week or over a longer period, the amount of one week's pay shall be divided instead by –

- (a) the average number of normal working hours calculated by dividing by twelve the total number of the employee's normal working hours during the period of twelve weeks ending with the last complete week before the day on which the time off is taken; or
- (b) where the employee has not been employed for a sufficient period to enable the calculation to be made under sub-paragraph (a), a number which fairly represents the number of normal working hours in a week having regard to such of the considerations specified in paragraph (5) as are appropriate in the circumstances.

(5) The considerations referred to in paragraph (4)(b) are –

- (a) the average number of normal working hours in a week which the employee could expect in accordance with the terms of his contract; and
- (b) the average number of normal working hours of other employees engaged in relevant comparable employment with the same employer.

(6) A right to any amount under paragraph (1) does not affect any right of an employee in relation to remuneration under his contract of employment.

(7) Any contractual remuneration paid to an employee in respect of a period of time off under regulation 39 goes towards discharging any liability of the employer to pay remuneration under paragraph (1) in respect of that period, and conversely, any payment of remuneration under paragraph (1) in respect of a period goes towards discharging any liability of the employer to pay contractual remuneration in respect of that period.

Right to time off: complaints to tribunals

- 41.—(1) An employee may present a complaint to an industrial tribunal that his employer –
- (a) has unreasonably refused to permit him to take time off as required under regulation 39; or

- (b) has failed to pay the whole or any part of any amount to which the employee is entitled under regulation 40.
- (2) A tribunal shall not consider a complaint under this regulation unless it is presented –
 - (a) before the end of the period of three months beginning with the day on which the time off was taken or on which it is alleged the time off should have been permitted; or
 - (b) within such further period as the tribunal considers reasonable in a case where it is satisfied that it was not reasonably practicable for the complaint to be presented before the end of that period of three months.
- (3) Where a tribunal finds a complaint under this regulation well-founded, the tribunal shall make a declaration to that effect.
- (4) If the complaint is that the employer has unreasonably refused to permit the employee to take time off, the tribunal shall also order the employer to pay to the employee an amount equal to the remuneration to which he would have been entitled under regulation 40 if the employer had not refused.
- (5) If the complaint is that the employer has failed to pay the employee the whole or part of any amount to which he is entitled under regulation 40, the tribunal shall also order him to pay to the employee the amount which it finds is due to him.

Unfair dismissal

42.—(1) An employee who is dismissed and to whom paragraph (2) or (5) applies shall be regarded, if the reason (or, if more than one, the principal reason) for the dismissal is a reason specified in, respectively, paragraph (3) or (6), as unfairly dismissed for the purposes of Part XI of the 1996 Order.

- (2) This paragraph applies to an employee who is –
 - (a) a member of a special negotiating body;
 - (b) a member of a representative body;
 - (c) an information and consultation representative;
 - (d) an employee member in a supervisory or administrative organ; or
 - (e) a candidate in an election in which any person elected will, on being elected, be such a member or a representative.
- (3) The reason is that –
 - (a) the employee performed or proposed to perform any functions or activities as such a member, representative or candidate; or
 - (b) the employee or a person acting on his behalf made or proposed to make a request to exercise an entitlement conferred on the employee by regulation 39 or 40.
- (4) Paragraph (1) does not apply in the circumstances set out in paragraph (3)(a) where the reason (or principal reason) for the dismissal is that in the performance, or purported performance, of the employee’s functions or activities he has disclosed any information or document in breach of the duty in regulation 37, unless the employee reasonably believed the disclosure to be a “protected disclosure” within the meaning given to that expression by Article 67A of the 1996 Order.
- (5) This paragraph applies to any employee whether or not he is an employee to whom paragraph (2) applies.
- (6) The reason is that the employee –
 - (a) took, or proposed to take, any proceedings before an industrial tribunal to enforce any right conferred on him by these Regulations;
 - (b) exercised, or proposed to exercise, any entitlement to apply or complain to the Industrial Court or the High Court conferred by these Regulations or to exercise the right to appeal in connection with any rights conferred by these Regulations;
 - (c) acted with a view to securing that a special negotiating body, a representative body or an information and consultation procedure did or did not come into existence;

- (d) indicated that he did or did not support the coming into existence of a special negotiating body, a representative body or an information and consultation procedure;

 - (b) in the case of any matter not regulated by the EC Regulation or, where matters are partly regulated by it, of those aspects not covered by it, Article 9 requires the application of any statutory provision relating to public companies.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (4), (5) and (6) references to “directors” or “board of directors” in any statutory provision to which this regulation applies shall have effect as if they were references –

- (a) in a one-tier system, to the members of the administrative organ; and
- (b) in a two-tier system, to the members of the supervisory and management organs.

(4) Any statutory provision so applied in relation to a two-tier system shall be applied separately in respect of the members of the supervisory organ and the members of the management organ in relation to the functions of the organ, and in respect of the acts and omissions of the members of those organs.

(5) Where, in a two-tier system, any function relates to the management of the SE and, by virtue of Article 39(1) or 40(1), is a function that cannot be carried out by the supervisory organ, nothing in paragraph (3) has the effect of permitting or requiring the members of the supervisory organ to carry out any such functions.

(6) Where, by virtue of any provision in the EC Regulation or in the statutes, any transaction or function carried out by the management organ in a two-tier system requires the authorisation of the supervisory organ, nothing in paragraph (3) affects, or removes, the requirement for such authorisation.

Register of members of supervisory organ

77.—(1) Every SE which has adopted the form of a two-tier system in its statutes shall keep at its registered office a register of the members of its supervisory organ (“the members”); and the register shall, with respect to the particulars to be contained in it of those persons, comply with the provisions of this regulation.

- (2) The SE shall, within the period of 14 days from the occurrence of –
- (a) any change among the members, or
 - (b) any change in the particulars contained in the register,

send to the registrar a notification in the Form SE77A(NI), SE77B(NI) or SE77C(NI), as may be appropriate, set out in Schedule 1, of the change and of the date on which it occurred; and a notification of a person having become a member shall contain a consent, signed by that person, to act in the relevant capacity.

(3) The register shall be open to the inspection of any shareholder of the SE without charge and of any other person on payment of a fee of £2.50 for each hour or part of an hour during which the right of inspection is exercised.

(4) If an inspection required under this regulation is refused, or if default is made in complying with paragraph (1) or (2), the SE is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

(5) In the case of a refusal of inspection of the register, the High Court may by order compel an immediate inspection of it.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation and regulation 78, where, to the extent that the application of Article 9(2) of the 1986 Order under any provision of the EC Regulation requires it, a shadow director of an SE, by virtue of the members of the supervisory organ acting in accordance with his directions or instructions, is deemed a member of that organ.

(7) Where an SE is required to keep a register of members of the supervisory organ by this regulation, the application of regulation 76 to that SE shall not require that particulars of members of the supervisory organ to be kept on any register required be kept under Article 296 of the 1986 Order.

Particulars of members to be registered under regulation 77

78.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation, the register kept by an SE under regulation 77 shall contain the following particulars with respect to each member –

 - (ii) any former name,
 - (iii) his usual residential address,

 - (b) the reference to a former name does not include –
 - (i) in the case of a peer, or an individual normally known by a British title, the name by which he was known previous to the adoption of or succession to the title, or
 - (ii) in the case of any person, a former name which was changed or disused before he attained the age of 18 years or which has been changed or disused for 20 years or more, or
 - (iii) in the case of a married woman, the name by which she was known previous to the marriage.
- (3) It is not necessary for the register to contain on any day particulars of a directorship of a company –
- (a) which has not been held by a director at any time during the 5 years preceding that day,
 - (b) which is held by a director in a company which –
 - (i) is dormant or grouped with the SE keeping the register, and
 - (ii) if he also held that directorship for any period during those 5 years, was for the whole of that period either dormant or so grouped,
 - (c) which was held by a member for any period during those 5 years in a company which for the whole of that period was either dormant or grouped with the SE keeping the register.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3), “company” has the meaning given it in Article 3(1) of the 1986 Order and includes any body corporate incorporated in Northern Ireland and –
- (a) Article 257AA(4) of the 1986 Order^(a) applies as regards whether and when a company is or has been dormant,
 - (b) Article 257AA(4) of the 1986 Order to the extent that provision is applied by any provision of the EC Regulation, applies as regards whether and when an SE is or has been dormant, and

^(a) Article 257AA was inserted into the 1986 Order by S.R. 2001 No. 153, and amended by S.I. 2001/3649

- (c) a company or SE is to be regarded as being, or having been, grouped with another at any time if at that time it is or was a company or SE of which the other is or was a wholly-owned subsidiary, or if it is or was a wholly-owned subsidiary of the other or of another company or SE of which that other is or was a wholly-owned subsidiary.

The SE as a body corporate

79.—(1) Where –

- (a) any statutory provision is applied in the manner described in regulation 76(2); or
- (b) any statutory provision applies to an SE otherwise than in the manner described in regulation 76(2)

and those statutory provisions are expressed to apply to, or in respect of, a body corporate, an SE, whether or not registered in Northern Ireland, shall be treated for the purposes of the application of those statutory provisions as if it were a body corporate.

(2) Nothing in this regulation has the effect of constituting an SE as a body corporate incorporated in, or formed under the law of, Northern Ireland.

Notification of amendments to statutes of an SE and insolvency events (Articles 59(3) and 65)

80.—(1) Where, under Articles 59(3) and 65, publication by the registrar in the Belfast Gazette of the events described in those Articles is required by regulation 69(1) –

- (a) in the case of Article 59(3), the amendments to the statutes shall be delivered to the registrar by the SE accompanied by Form SE80(1)(a)(NI) in Schedule 1 within 14 days of the adoption of those amendments; and
- (b) in the case of Article 65, notice of the relevant event set out in Form SE80(1)(b)(NI) in Schedule 1 shall be delivered to the registrar by the SE within 14 days of the occurrence of the event.

(2) If default is made in complying with paragraph (1)(a) or (b) the SE is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

Accounting reference period and financial year of transferring SE

81.—(1) Where an SE transfers its registered office to Northern Ireland under Article 8 –

- (a) its first accounting reference period, for the purposes of Article 232 of the 1986 Order, is the period of twelve months beginning with its last balance sheet date before the registration of the transfer and the date on which that period ends is its accounting reference date for those purposes; and
- (b) its first financial year for the purposes of Article 231 of the 1986 Order begins with the first day of its accounting reference period and ends with the last day of that period or such other date, not more than seven days before or after the end of that period as the SE may determine.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation “the last balance sheet date” is the date as at which the balance sheet of the transferring SE was required to be drawn up under the provisions of the law of the Member State in which it had its registered office, where the balance sheet was the last one required to be drawn up before the registration of the transfer in Northern Ireland.

(3) Where the transferring SE has not been required to draw up a balance sheet under the provisions of the law of the Member State where it had its registered office, or, if different, of the Member State where it was first registered, before the registration of the transfer in Northern Ireland, its accounting reference date for the purposes of Article 232 of the 1986 Order is the last day of the month in which the anniversary of its registration on formation falls and its first accounting reference period is the period beginning with its date of registration on formation and ending with its accounting reference date; and paragraph (1)(b) applies in respect of its first financial year accordingly.

Penalties for breach of Article 11 (use of SE in name)

82. Where –

- (a) an SE fails to comply with Article 11(1); or
- (b) any person fails to comply with Article 11(2)

 - (b) that on and after the registration the converting SE is a public company limited by shares.

Effect of registration

86.—(1) In its application to a converting SE on or after registration the 1986 Order and the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 shall have effect with the modifications set out in paragraphs 2 to 10 of Schedule 4.

(2) On and after registration a converting SE shall be known by the name contained in its memorandum (subject to Article 38 of the 1986 Order).

(3) The persons named in Form SE83(NI) shall be deemed to have been appointed as the first directors or secretary of a converting SE on registration.

Statement of solvency by Members of Societas Europaea (SE) which is proposing to transfer from NI

Registered number

Full name of SE

Proposed New Name of SE (If applicable)

Date of Proposed
Transfer

Declaration: We being all the members of the (please delete as appropriate):

- (i) administrative organ of the SE named above; or
- (ii) management organ of the SE named above, and having been authorised to make this statement by the supervisory organ;

make this statement pursuant to Regulation 70(6) of The European Public Limited-Liability Company Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2004, in order to satisfy the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment as required by Article 8(7) of Council Regulation (EC) No 2157/2001 (the "Regulation").

We have formed the opinion:

1. As regards the above named SE's financial situation immediately following the date (as given above) on which the transfer is proposed to be made, that there will be no grounds on which the SE could then be found to be unable to pay its debts;
2. As regards the above named SE's prospects for the year immediately following the date (as given above) on which the transfer is proposed to be

- made, that, having regard to our intentions with respect to the management of the SE's business during that year and to the amount and character of the financial resources which will in our view be available to the SE during that year, the SE will be able to carry on business as a going concern (and will accordingly be able to pay its debts as they fall due throughout that year); and
3. In forming our opinion for the purposes of paragraph 1 above we have taken into account the same liabilities (including prospective and contingent liabilities) as would be relevant under Article 102 of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (winding up by the High Court) to the question whether a company is unable to pay its debts.

All members of the organ designated at (i) or (ii) above must sign overleaf

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations implement Council Directive 2001/86/EC supplementing the Statute for a European Company with regard to the involvement of employees ('the Directive') and also make provision for the parts of Council Regulation 2157/2001 on the Statute for a European Company ('the Regulation') which permit or oblige Member States to make certain provisions in their national law including provision for the effective application of the Regulation.

The Regulation provides for the creation of a new form of public limited liability company, the Societas Europaea, known as the 'SE'. This type of company can be formed in a number of ways set out in the Regulation. It will be governed by the Regulation and, in respect of matters where the Regulation so provides, by the law applying to public limited liability companies of the Member State in which it is, or is proposed to be, registered. The Regulation, although directly applicable in the territory of the Community, obliges Member States to make arrangements in relation to SEs which register in their territory. The Regulations therefore:

1. make provision as to the registration and transfer of SEs and the registration authority (Part II);
2. contain provisions required by the Regulation that Member States enact particular measures (Part V);
3. contain provisions needed to achieve the effective application of the Regulation (Part VI); and
4. provide for an SE to convert to a public company (Part VII).

The Regulation also gives Member States the discretion as to whether to implement options set out in the Regulation and which are exercised in Part IV of the Regulations.

Part III of the Regulations implements the Directive and sets out the provisions relating to employee involvement in the SE. The principal provisions are:

1. the establishment of a special negotiating body (Chapter 2);
2. election or appointment of UK members of the special negotiating body (Chapter 3);
3. negotiation of an employee involvement agreement (Chapter 4);
4. standard rules on employee involvement (Chapter 5);
5. compliance and enforcement (Chapter 6);
6. treatment of confidential information (Chapter 7); and
7. employee protection (Chapter 8).
