
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

2004 No. 492

Disease Control (Standstill) Order (Northern Ireland) 2004

PART V

MISCELLANEOUS

Action in case of default

15. Where a person fails to comply with any requirements imposed on him under this Order or by virtue of any licence issued under it, an inspector may, without prejudice to any proceedings arising out of such default, carry out or cause to be carried out those requirements.

Cleansing and disinfection

16. Where an animal is moved under the authority of a licence, the occupier of the premises to which it is moved shall provide adequate facilities, equipment and materials for any cleansing and disinfection required by the licence.

Change of occupation of premises

17.—(1) Where, on the termination of his right of occupation of any premises, the keeper of any animal on those premises is unable to remove it from those premises by reason of any restriction imposed by or under this Order, the person entitled to the occupation of those premises shall –

- (a) afford the keeper of that animal and any person authorised by him for the purpose, all such facilities as may be necessary for feeding, tending or otherwise using that animal (including selling it) as the keeper may reasonably require; or
- (b) where the keeper of that animal is unable or unwilling to avail himself of such facilities, take all such steps as may be necessary to ensure that the animal is properly fed, tended and kept.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) shall continue to apply until the expiry of a period of 7 days from the date on which any restriction on the movement of the animal off the premises ceases to apply under this Order and the keeper of the animal shall be liable to pay to the person who affords any facilities or feeds, tends or otherwise keeps that animal, in accordance with those provisions, such sums by way of remuneration and reimbursement of expenses as may be just and reasonable in all the circumstances.
