
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

2005 No. 326

Court Security Officers (Designation and Employment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2005

Proof of identity and other requirements

3. Before a person may be designated or employed as a court security officer, the Lord Chancellor shall:

- (a) obtain proof of the person's identity;
- (b) obtain a declaration from that person as to whether he has any unspent criminal convictions within the meaning of the Rehabilitation of Offenders (Northern Ireland) Order 1978⁽¹⁾; and
- (c) make a criminal records check.