Regulation 3 prescribes the visitors to whom services forming part of health services shall be available.

Regulation 4 prescribes the services exempt from charges

Regulations 5, 6 and 7 provides for emergency treatment and exemption from charges for certain classes of persons, e.g. certain service personnel.

Regulation 8 introduces transitional arrangements in respect of visitors who are in Northern Ireland on the date on which the revocation takes place, and who have an entitlement to services under the terms of the revoked regulations, to enable them to retain entitlement for the duration of that visit.

Regulation 9 provides for the revocation of the Health Services (Persons Not Ordinarily Resident in Northern Ireland) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1970.
