(3) The court may, if it thinks that no sufficient cause is shown for the application, dismiss it without a hearing but it shall not do so without giving the relevant person at least 7 days' notice, upon receipt of which the relevant person may request the court to list the application for a without notice hearing.

(4) If the application is not dismissed under paragraph (3) of this Rule the court shall fix a venue for it to be heard, and give notice to the relevant person accordingly.

(5) The relevant person shall, at least 14 days before the hearing date, send to the administrator a notice stating the venue and accompanied by a copy of the application and of any evidence which he (the relevant person) intends to adduce in support of it.

(7) If such a report is filed, under paragraph (6) of this Rule a copy of it shall be sent by the administrator to the relevant person, not later than 5 days before the hearing date.

(8) Sealed copies of any order made on the application shall be sent by the court to the relevant person and the administrator.

(9) On any application under this Rule the relevant person's costs shall be paid in any event by him and, unless the court otherwise orders, no allowance towards them shall be made out of the assets.

[E.R. 2.31]

[E.R. 2.33]

CHAPTER 6 MEETINGS AND REPORTS

SECTION A: CREDITORS' MEETINGS

Meetings to consider administrator's proposals

2.035.—(1) Notice of an initial creditors' meeting shall (unless the court otherwise directs) be given by notice in the newspaper in which the administrator's appointment was advertised and, if he considers it appropriate to do so, in such other newspaper as he thinks most appropriate for ensuring that the notice comes to the attention of the company's creditors.

(2) Notice in Form 2.19B to attend the meeting shall be sent out at the same time to any directors or officers of the company (including persons who have been directors or officers in the past) whose presence at the meeting is, in the administrator's opinion, required.

[Form 2.19B]

(3) Where the court orders an extension to the period set out in paragraph 52(2)(b) the administrator shall send a notice in Form 2.18B to each person to whom he is required to send notice by paragraph 50(4).

(4) If at the meeting there is not the requisite majority for approval of the administrator's proposals (with modifications, if any), the chairman may, and shall if a resolution is passed to that effect, adjourn the meeting for not more than 14 days and may only adjourn once (subject to any direction by the court).

[E.R. 2.34]

Creditors' meetings generally

2.036.—(1) This Rule applies to creditors' meetings summoned by the administrator under—

- (a) paragraph 52 (initial creditors' meeting);
- (b) paragraph 53(2) (at the request of the creditors);
- (c) paragraph 55(2) (to consider revision to the administrator's proposals);
- (d) paragraph 57(1) (further creditors' meetings); and
- (e) paragraph 63 (general power to summon meetings of creditors).

(2) Notice of any of the meetings set out in paragraph (1) of this Rule shall be in Form 2.20B.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

[Form 2.20B]

(3) In fixing the venue for the meeting, the administrator shall have regard to the convenience of creditors.

(4) The meeting shall be summoned for commencement between 10.00 and 16.00 hours on a business day, unless the court otherwise directs.

(5) Subject to paragraphs (7) and (8) of this Rule, at least 14 days' notice of the meeting shall be given to all creditors who are known to the administrator and had claims against the company at the date when the company entered administration unless that creditor has subsequently been paid in full; and the notice shall—

- (a) specify the purpose of the meeting;
- (b) contain a statement of the effect of Rule 2.039 (entitlement to vote); and
- (c) contain the forms of proxy.

[Form 8.2]

(6) If within 30 minutes from the time fixed for commencement of the meeting there is no person present to act as chairman, the meeting stands adjourned to the same time and place in the following week or, if that is not a business day, to the business day immediately following.

(7) The meeting may be adjourned once, if the chairman thinks fit, but not for more than 14 days from the date on which it was fixed to commence, subject to the direction of the court.

(8) If a meeting is adjourned the administrator shall as soon as reasonably practicable notify the creditors of the venue of the adjourned meeting.

[E.R. 2.35]

The chairman at meetings

2.037.—(1) At any meeting of creditors summoned by the administrator, either he shall be chairman, or a person nominated by him in writing to act in his place.

(2) A person so nominated must be either—

- (a) one who is qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the company; or
- (b) an employee of the administrator or his firm who is experienced in insolvency matters.

[E.R. 2.36]

Meeting requisitioned by creditors

2.038.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this Rule the request for a creditors' meeting under paragraph 53(2) or 57(1) shall be in Form 2.21B. A request for an initial creditors' meeting shall be made within 12 days of the date on which the administrator's statement of proposals is sent out. A request under paragraph 53(2) or 57(1) shall include—

[Form 2.21B]

- (a) a list of the creditors concurring with the request, showing the amounts of their respective debts in the administration;
- (b) from each creditor concurring, written confirmation of his concurrence; and
- (c) a statement of the purpose of the proposed meeting.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(2) Paragraph (1)(a) and (b) of this Rule do not apply if the requisitioning creditor's debt is alone sufficient without the concurrence of other creditors.

(3) A meeting requested under paragraph 53(2) or 57(1) shall be held within 28 days of the administrator's receipt of the notice requesting the meeting.

(4) The expenses of summoning and holding a meeting at the request of a creditor shall be paid by that person, who shall deposit with the administrator security for their payment.

(5) The sum to be deposited shall be such as the administrator may determine, and he shall not act without the deposit having been made.

(6) The meeting may resolve that the expenses of summoning and holding it are to be payable out of the assets of the company as an expense of the administration.

(7) To the extent that any deposit made under this Rule is not required for the payment of expenses of summoning and holding the meeting, it shall be repaid to the person who made it.

[E.R. 2.37]

Entitlement to vote

2.039.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) to (11) of this Rule, at a meeting of creditors in administration proceedings a person is entitled to vote only if—

- (a) he has given to the administrator, not later than 12.00 hours on the business day before the day fixed for the meeting, details in writing of the debt which—
 - (i) he claims to be due to him from the company; or
 - (ii) in relation to a member State liquidator, is claimed to be due to creditors in proceedings in relation to which he holds office;
- (b) the claim has been duly admitted under the provisions of this Rule; and
- (c) there has been lodged with the administrator any proxy which he intends to be used on his behalf.

(2) Details of the debt must include any calculation for the purposes of Rules 2.041 to 2.043.

(3) The chairman of the meeting may allow a creditor to vote, notwithstanding that he has failed to comply with paragraph (1)(a) of this Rule, if satisfied that the failure was due to circumstances beyond the creditor's control.

(4) The chairman of the meeting may call for any document or other evidence to be produced to him, where he thinks it necessary for the purpose of substantiating the whole or any part of the claim.

(5) Votes are calculated according to the amount of a creditor's claim as at the date on which the company entered administration, less any payments that have been made to him after that date in respect of his claim and any adjustment by way of set-off in accordance with Rule 2.086 as if that Rule were applied on the date that the votes are counted.

(6) A creditor shall not vote in respect of a debt for an unliquidated amount, or any debt whose value is not ascertained, except where the chairman agrees to put upon the debt an estimated minimum value for the purpose of entitlement to vote and admits the claim for that purpose.

(7) No vote shall be cast by virtue of a claim more than once on any resolution put to the meeting.

(8) Where—

- (a) a creditor is entitled to vote under this Rule;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) has lodged his claim in one or more sets of other proceedings; and
 - (c) votes (either in person or by proxy) on a resolution put to the meeting; and
 - (d) the member State liquidator casts a vote in respect of the same claim,
- only the creditor's vote shall be counted.

(9) Where—

- (a) a creditor has lodged his claim in more than one set of other proceedings; and
 - (b) more than one member State liquidator seeks to vote by virtue of that claim,
- the entitlement to vote by virtue of that claim is exercisable by the member State liquidator in main proceedings, whether or not the creditor has lodged his claim in the main proceedings.

(10) For the purposes of paragraph (7) of this Rule, the claim of a creditor and of any member State liquidator in relation to the same debt are a single claim.

(11) For the purposes of paragraphs (8) and (9) of this Rule, “other proceedings” means main proceedings, secondary proceedings or territorial proceedings in another member State.

[E.R. 2.38]

Admission and rejection of claims

2.040.—(1) At any creditors' meeting the chairman has power to admit or reject a creditor's claim for the purpose of his entitlement to vote; and the power is exercisable with respect to the whole or any part of the claim.

(2) The chairman's decision under this Rule, or in respect of any matter arising under Rule 2.039, is subject to appeal to the court by any creditor.

(3) If the chairman is in doubt whether a claim should be admitted or rejected, he shall mark it as objected to and allow the creditor to vote, subject to his vote being subsequently declared invalid if the objection to the claim is sustained.

(4) If on an appeal the chairman's decision is reversed or varied, or a creditor's vote is declared invalid, the court may order that another meeting be summoned, or make such other order as it thinks fit.

(5) In the case of the meeting summoned under paragraph 52 to consider the administrator's proposals, an application to the court by way of appeal under this Rule against a decision of the chairman shall not be made later than 14 days after the delivery of the administrator's report in accordance with paragraph 54(2).

(6) Neither the administrator nor any person nominated by him to be chairman is personally liable for costs incurred by any person in respect of an appeal to the court under this Rule, unless the court makes an order to that effect.

[E.R. 2.39]

Secured creditors

2.041.—(1) At a meeting of creditors a secured creditor is entitled to vote only in respect of the balance (if any) of his debt after deducting the value of his security as estimated by him.

(2) However, in a case where the administrator has made a statement under paragraph 53(1)(b) and an initial creditors' meeting has been requisitioned under paragraph 53(2) then a secured creditor is entitled to vote in respect of the full value of his debt without any deduction of the value of his security.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

[E.R. 2.40]

Holders of negotiable instruments

2.042. A creditor shall not vote in respect of a debt on, or secured by, a current bill of exchange or promissory note, unless he is willing—

- (a) to treat the liability to him on the bill or note of every person who is liable on it antecedently to the company, and against whom a bankruptcy order has not been made (or, in the case of a company, which has not gone into liquidation), as a security in his hands; and
- (b) to estimate the value of the security and, for the purpose of his entitlement to vote, to deduct it from his claim.

Hire-purchase, conditional sale and chattel leasing agreements

2.043.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this Rule an owner of goods under a hire-purchase or chattel leasing agreement, or a seller of goods under a conditional sale agreement, is entitled to vote in respect of the amount of the debt due and payable to him by the company on the date that the company entered administration.

(2) In calculating the amount of any debt for this purpose, no account shall be taken of any amount attributable to the exercise of any right under the relevant agreement, so far as the right has become exercisable solely by virtue of the making of an administration application, a notice of intention to appoint an administrator or any matter arising as a consequence, or of the company entering administration.

[E.R. 2.42]

Resolutions

2.044.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), at a creditors' meeting in administration proceedings, a resolution is passed when a majority (in value) of those present and voting, in person or by proxy, have voted in favour of it.

(2) Any resolution is invalid if those voting against it include more than half in value of the creditors to whom notice of the meeting was sent and who are not, to the best of the chairman's belief, persons connected with the company.

[E.R. 2.43]

Minutes

2.045.—(1) The chairman of the meeting shall cause minutes of its proceedings to be entered in the company's minute book.

(2) The minutes shall include a list of the names and addresses of creditors who attended (personally or by proxy) and, if a creditors' committee has been established, the names and addresses of those elected to be members of the committee.

[E.R. 2.44]

 - (g) where a proposed revision relates to the ending of the administration by a creditors' voluntary liquidation and the nomination of a person to be the proposed liquidator of the company, a statement that, in accordance with paragraph 84(6) and Rule 2.118 (3), creditors may nominate a different person as the proposed liquidator, provided that the nomination is made after the receipt of the revised proposals and before those revised proposals are approved; and
 - (h) any other information that the administrator thinks necessary to enable creditors to decide whether or not to vote for the proposed revisions.

(3) Subject to paragraph 55(3), within 5 days of sending out the statement in paragraph (1) of this Rule, the administrator shall send a copy of the statement to every member of the company.

(4) When the administrator is acting under paragraph 55(3), the notice shall be published once in such newspaper as he thinks most appropriate for ensuring that the notice comes to the attention of the company's members. The notice shall—

(2) Any creditor of the company is eligible to be a member of the committee, so long as his claim has not been rejected for the purpose of his entitlement to vote.

2.071.—(1) In the calculation and distribution of a dividend the administrator shall make provision for—

- (b) any dividends payable under sub-paragraph (a) shall be paid before the money is applied to the payment of any such further dividend.

(3) No action lies against the administrator for a dividend; but if he refuses to pay a dividend the court may, if it thinks fit, order him to pay it and also to pay, out of his own money—

- (a) interest on the dividend, at the rate applicable to a money judgement of the High Court, from the time when it was withheld; and
- (b) the costs of the proceedings in which the order to pay is made.

[E.R. 2.70]

A creditor may prove for a debt of which payment was not yet due on the date when the company entered administration or, if the administration was immediately preceded by a winding up, up to the date that the company went into liquidation, subject to Rule 2.106 (adjustment of dividend where payment made before time).

[E.R. 2.89]

Value of security

2.091.—(1) A secured creditor may, with the agreement of the administrator or the leave of the court, at any time alter the value which he has, in his proof of debt, put upon his security.

(2) However, if a secured creditor—

(a) being the applicant for an administration order or the appointor of the administrator, has in the application or the notice of appointment put a value on his security; or

(b) has voted in respect of the unsecured balance of his debt, he may re-value his security only with permission of the court.

[E.R. 2.90]

Surrender for non-disclosure

2.092.—(1) If a secured creditor omits to disclose his security in his proof of debt, he shall surrender his security for the general benefit of creditors, unless the court, on application by him, relieves him from the effect of this Rule on the ground that the omission was inadvertent or the result of honest mistake.

(2) If the court grants that relief, it may require or allow the creditor's proof of debt to be amended, on such terms as may be just.

(3) Nothing in this Rule or Rules 2.093 and 2.094 may affect the rights in rem of creditors or third parties protected under Article 5 of the EC Regulation (third parties' rights in rem).

(2) The creditor then has 21 days (or such longer period as the administrator may allow) in which, if he so wishes, to exercise his right to revalue his security (with the permission of the court, where Rule 2.091(2) applies). If the creditor re-values his security, the administrator may only redeem at the new value.

(3) If the administrator redeems the security, the cost of transferring it is payable out of the assets.

(4) A secured creditor may at any time, by a notice in writing, call on the administrator to elect whether he will or will not exercise his power to redeem the security at the value then placed on it; and the administrator then has 3 months in which to exercise the power or determine not to exercise it.
