2. The court is entitled to presume that documents submitted in support of the application for recognition are authentic, whether or not they have been legalised.

4. The provisions of articles 15 and 16, this article and article 18 do not prevent modification or termination of recognition if it is shown that the grounds for granting it were fully or partially lacking or have fully or partially ceased to exist and in such as case, the court may, on the application of the foreign representative or a person affected by recognition, or of its own motion, modify or terminate recognition, either altogether or for a limited time, on such terms and conditions as the court thinks fit.

2. Unless extended under paragraph 1(f) of article 21, the relief granted under this article terminates when the application for recognition is decided upon.

- (c) the right to transfer, encumber or otherwise dispose of any assets of the debtor is suspended.

2. The stay and suspension referred to in paragraph 1 shall be—

- (a) the same in scope and effect as if the debtor, in the case of an individual, had been adjudged bankrupt under the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, or, in the case of a debtor other than an individual, had been made the subject of a winding-up order under that Order; and
- (b) subject to the same powers of the court and the same prohibitions, limitations, exceptions and conditions as would apply under the law of Northern Ireland in such a case, and the provisions of paragraph 1 shall be interpreted accordingly.

3. Without prejudice to paragraph 2, the stay and suspension referred to in paragraph 1, in particular, does not affect any right—

- (a) to take any steps to enforce security over the debtor's property;

- (c) exercisable under or by virtue of or in connection with the provisions referred to in article 1(4); or being a right which would have been exercisable if the debtor, in the case of an individual, had been adjudged bankrupt under the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, or, in the case of a debtor other than an individual, had been made the subject of a winding-up order under that Order.

4. Paragraph 1(a) does not affect the right to—

- (a) commence individual actions or proceedings to the extent necessary to preserve a claim against the debtor; or
- (b) commence or continue any criminal proceedings or any action or proceedings by a person or body having regulatory, supervisory or investigative functions of a public nature, being an action or proceedings brought in the exercise of those functions.

5. Paragraph 1 does not affect the right to request or otherwise initiate the commencement of a proceeding under Northern Ireland insolvency law or the right to file claims in such a proceeding.

6. Article 21. Relief that may be granted upon recognition of a foreign proceeding

3. In granting relief under this article to a representative of a foreign non-main proceeding, the court must be satisfied that the relief relates to assets that, under the law of Northern Ireland, should be administered in the foreign non-main proceeding or concerns information required in that proceeding.

4. No stay under paragraph 1(a) shall affect the right to commence or continue any criminal proceedings or any action or proceedings by a person or body having regulatory, supervisory or investigative functions of a public nature, being an action or proceedings brought in the exercise of those functions.

Article 22. Protection of creditors and other interested persons

1. (5) The rights of that person under this paragraph shall be in abeyance so long as those costs are not paid.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

On 30th May 1997 the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (“UNCITRAL”) adopted the text of a model law on cross-border insolvency, which was approved by a resolution of the United Nations General Assembly on 15th December 1997. These Regulations give effect to the model law in Northern Ireland.

Regulation 3 of the Regulations provides that the UNCITRAL model law shall have the force of law in Northern Ireland in the form set out in Schedule 1 to the Regulations (the Model Law) and provides that in interpreting the Model Law the courts can have regard to other documents including the Guide to Enactment of the Model Law published by UNCITRAL (ISBN 92-1-133608-2). The model law and Guide may be accessed at http://www.uncitral.org/uncitral/en/uncitral_texts/insolvency/1997Model.html.

Chapter 1 of the Model Law contains General Provisions (articles 1 to 8). Article 1 sets out the scope of application of the Model Law, which may apply in a number of cross-border situations, and also lists certain bodies to which the Model Law does not apply. Article 3 of the Model Law clarifies that Council Regulation (EC) No. 1346/2000 of 29th May 2000 on Insolvency Proceedings prevails over the Model Law.

Chapter II (articles 9 to 14) relates to the access of foreign representatives and creditors to courts in Northern Ireland and their rights to participate in an insolvency proceeding in Northern Ireland.

Chapter III of the Model Law deals with recognition of foreign proceedings and relief. Articles 15 to 17 set out criteria for determining whether a foreign proceeding is to be recognised and, if so whether as a foreign main proceeding or as a foreign non-main proceeding (see articles 16, 17 and definitions in article 2).

Articles 19 to 21 set out the effects of recognition and the relief available to a foreign representative. The relief accorded upon recognition of a foreign main proceeding is listed in article 20(1). Article 21 of the Model Law provides for the court to grant discretionary relief for the benefit of any recognised foreign proceeding, whether main or non-main. Urgently needed relief may be granted by the court on an interim basis pending a decision on recognition (article 19).

Chapter IV of the Model Law provides for the Northern Ireland courts and Northern Ireland insolvency officeholders to cooperate with foreign courts or foreign representatives in the areas covered by the Model Law (articles 25 to 27).

Chapter V of the Model Law (articles 28 to 32) provides for the coordination of a Northern Ireland insolvency proceeding and a foreign proceeding concerning the same debtor and facilitates coordination between two or more foreign proceedings concerning the same debtor.

Schedule 2 to the Regulations sets out procedural matters in relation to proceedings under the Model Law in Northern Ireland. Parts 2 to 5 of the Schedule contain details of the form and content of specified applications under the Model Law and Part 6 sets out more detailed procedural requirements in respect of those applications. Part 7 of Schedule 2 provides for the registration of court orders under the Regulations with the Registry of Deeds, and for applications to be made in appropriate cases to the Registrar of Titles at the Land Registry. Part 8 provides for a summary remedy against foreign representatives guilty of misfeasance. Parts 9 to 12 contain general provision as to court procedure and practice and appeals in connection with proceedings under the Regulations, costs and other general matters.

Schedule 3 makes provision in relation to notices delivered to the registrar of companies under the Regulations.

Schedule 4 contains forms prescribed for use in connection with proceedings under the Regulations.

A full regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it has a negligible impact on the costs of business.
