Under section 74, the Crown Court can, at the instance of a specified prosecutor, review the sentence of a person who has given, agrees to give, or has failed to give assistance to prosecuting authorities. By virtue of sub-section (8) either a defendant or specified prosecutor may, with the leave of the Court, appeal against the decision of the Crown Court on an application for review of a sentence.
 - 4.2 Parts 4 and 5 of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (Appeals under Section 74) Order 2006 make provision in relation to appeals under section 74(8) of the 2005 Act including provision as to bail, evidence, the rights of the offender to be present at the hearing of an appeal and court powers.
 - 4.3 By virtue of sections 55 and 55A of the Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978, the Supreme Court Rules Committee is empowered to make rules prescribing practice and procedure before the Court of Appeal. This instrument, which represents the most recent exercise of those powers, makes provision in relation to the procedure to be followed in applications under section 74(8) of the 2008 Act and Part 4 and 5 of the 2006 Order.
