Development

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Jobseeker's Allowance Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996 in the case of claimants who are subject to a benefit sanction because it has been determined that they have failed to participate in a programme known as Steps to Work and who have previously been subject to benefit sanctions. Where a claimant agrees in writing to undertake the activities as required by the Steps to Work programme, the Regulations provide for the benefit sanction to last for either 4 weeks or for the period beginning with the determination and ending with the claimant's agreement to comply with the relevant requirements for the programme (whichever is the longer). Otherwise the sanction will last for 26 weeks.

These Regulations make in relation to Northern Ireland only provision corresponding to provision contained in Regulations made by the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions in relation to Great Britain and accordingly, by virtue of section 149(3) of, and paragraph 10 of Schedule 5 to, the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992, are not subject to the requirement of section 149(2) of that Act for prior reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.
