The Department of Finance and Personnel, being a department designated for the purposes of section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 in relation to mediation acting in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by that section hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation, commencement and application

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Cross-Border Mediation Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2011 and shall come into operation on 18th April 2011.

(2) These Regulations only apply where mediation of the relevant cross-border dispute is started on or after 18th April 2011.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), mediation starts on the date when all the parties to the relevant cross-border dispute and the mediator agree to participate in the mediation.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these Regulations—

“relevant cross-border dispute” means a cross-border dispute to which the Directive applies.

(2) Expressions used in the Directive have the same meaning for the purposes of these Regulations as in the Directive, unless the context otherwise requires.
Confidentiality of Mediation

3.—(1) A mediator of, or a person involved in the administration of mediation in relation to, a relevant cross-border dispute is not to be compelled in any civil proceedings or arbitration to give evidence, or produce anything, regarding any information arising out of or in connection with that mediation.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply—

(a) where all the parties to the mediation agree otherwise; or

(b) in the circumstances set out in paragraph (a) or (b) of Article 7.1 of the Directive.

Amendment of the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970

4.—(1) Schedule 9 to the Land Registration Act (Northern Ireland) 1970 is amended in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) In paragraph 4(1), for “sub-paragraph (2)” substitute “ sub-paragraph (2) and paragraph 4A”.

(3) After paragraph 4 insert—

“4A.—(1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies where—

(a) there is mediation in relation to a relevant cross border dispute giving rise to a claim for compensation; and

(b) the period of 6 years referred to in paragraph 4(1) (“the limitation period”) would, apart from this paragraph, expire—

(i) in the period of 8 weeks after the date on which the mediation ends;

(ii) on the date on which the mediation ends; or

(iii) after the date on which all of the parties to the dispute agree to participate in the mediation but before the date on which the mediation ends.

(2) Where this sub-paragraph applies, the limitation period is extended so that it expires on the date falling 8 weeks after the date on which the mediation ends.

(3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) and (2), a mediation in relation to a relevant cross-border dispute ends on the date of the first of these to occur—

(a) all of the parties reach an agreement in resolution of the dispute;

(b) all of the parties agree to end the mediation;

(c) a party notifies all of the other parties of that party’s withdrawal;

(d) a period of 14 days expires after a request made by one party to another party for confirmation of whether the other party has withdrawn and the other party does not respond in that period; or

(e) a period of 14 days expires after the date on which the mediator’s tenure ends (by reason of death, resignation or otherwise) and a replacement mediator has not been appointed in that period.

(4) In this paragraph—

“mediation” and “mediator” have the meanings given by Article 3 of the Directive; and
“relevant cross-border dispute” means a cross-border dispute within the meaning given by Article 2 of the Directive.”.

Amendment of the Equal Pay Act (Northern Ireland) 1970

5.—(1) The Equal Pay Act (Northern Ireland) 1970(5) is amended in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) In subsections (3) to (6) of section 2ZA, for “the qualifying date is” substitute “the qualifying date is, subject to section 2ZAA,”.

(3) After section 2ZA insert—

“Extension of time limit: mediation

2ZAA.—(1) Subsection (2) applies where—

(a) there is mediation in relation to a relevant cross border dispute giving rise to proceedings under this Act; and

(b) the six months period referred to in section 2ZA(3) to (6) (“the limitation period”) would, apart from this section, expire—

(i) in the period of 8 weeks after the date on which the mediation ends;

(ii) on the date on which the mediation ends; or

(iii) after the date on which all of the parties to the dispute agree to participate in the mediation but before the date on which the mediation ends.

(2) Where this subsection applies, the limitation period is extended so that it expires on the date falling 8 weeks after the date on which the mediation ends.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1) and (2), a mediation in relation to a relevant cross-border dispute ends on the date of the first of these to occur—

(a) all of the parties reach an agreement in resolution of the dispute;

(b) all of the parties agree to end the mediation;

(c) a party notifies all of the other parties of that party’s withdrawal,

(d) a period of 14 days expires after a request made by one party to another party for confirmation of whether the other party has withdrawn and the other party does not respond in that period, or

(e) a period of 14 days expires after the date on which the mediator’s tenure ends (by reason of death, resignation or otherwise) and a replacement mediator has not been appointed in that period.

(4) In this section—

“mediation” and “mediator” have the meanings given by Article 3 of the Directive; and

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Regulation 3 sets out when mediators and those involved in the administration of mediation may be compelled to give evidence in civil and commercial judicial proceedings or arbitration.

Regulations 4 to 12 provide for the extension of limitation periods so that these do not expire during the mediation process. Where a period would otherwise have expired while mediation is ongoing or within 8 weeks of it ending, the regulations extend the period so that it will expire 8 weeks after the end of mediation.
