“SCHEDULE 3

Regulation 12(3)

Actuary’s certificate

Given for the purposes of regulation 12(3) of the Occupational Pension Schemes (Preservation of Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1991

This certificate is subject to the Notes below

The name of the transferring scheme is:

The reference number of Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs for that scheme is:

The name of the receiving scheme is:

The reference number of Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs for that scheme is:

1. I certify that in my opinion, the transfer credits to be acquired for each member under the receiving scheme in the categories of member covered by this certificate are, broadly, no less favourable than the rights to be transferred.

2. Where it is the established custom for discretionary benefits or increases in benefits to be awarded under the transferring scheme, I certify that in my opinion, there is good cause to believe that the award of discretionary benefits or increases in benefits under the receiving scheme will (making allowance for any amount by which transfer credits under the receiving scheme are more favourable than the rights to be transferred) be, broadly, no less favourable.

In making this certification:

- I used these benefits:
- I used this data:
- I used these key actuarial assumptions to value the rights, transfer credits, any discretionary benefits and any discretionary increases in benefits:
- I used these documents:

The categories of member covered by this certificate are:

Signature:

Date of signature:

Name:

Qualification:

Address:

Name of employer (if applicable):

Notes:

Phrases used in this certificate have the same meaning as in the Occupational Pension Schemes (Preservation of Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1991 ("the 1991 Regulations").

The certification in paragraph 1 was made in accordance with regulation 12(4) of the 1991 Regulations. The certification in paragraph 2 was made in accordance with regulation 12(4A) of the 1991 Regulations.

This certificate is valid only for the purposes of the 1991 Regulations.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2011. (See end of Document for details)

This certificate must not be taken by the trustees or managers of the scheme as authority to make a transfer without each member’s consent. It must also not be taken as a recommendation to make a transfer without each such member’s consent. The trustees or managers of the scheme need to satisfy themselves that making the transfer is consistent with their duties to the transferring members and the remaining members. The trustees of the scheme need to satisfy themselves that making the transfer is consistent with their responsibilities and powers under trust law.

The actuary is not expressing in this certificate an opinion on whether or not the amount of the transfer value is reasonable.

The actuary has taken account of the benefits accrued by the date of this certificate. The actuary has not taken account of any differences between the terms and conditions of any benefits that may accrue in the future under the transferring scheme and the receiving scheme.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend various Regulations concerning occupational and personal pension schemes.

Regulation 2 amends the Personal Pension Schemes (Disclosure of Information) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987 to update a reference to the Pensions Advisory Service.

The Board for Actuarial Standards is withdrawing Guidance Note 16 (“GN16”). When certain persons' rights to a pension are transferred from one pension scheme to another, an actuary is required to certify that the value of certain benefits remains broadly the same after the transfer. GN16 includes a certificate for actuaries to complete when making that certification. As a result of the withdrawal of GN16, the following provisions of these Regulations make several amendments which insert that certificate into legislation—regulation 3 and Schedule 1 amend the Occupational Pension Schemes (Preservation of Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1991; regulation 4 and Schedule 2 amend the Protected Rights (Transfer Payment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996; regulation 5 and Schedule 3 amend the Pension Sharing (Pension Credit Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2000.

Regulation 6 amends the Occupational Pension Schemes (Consultation by Employers) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2006 to alter the circumstances in which an employer has to consult scheme members about a change to the scheme. An employer is required to consult where all the members affected by the change are employees of that employer. Such an employer does not have to inform any other employers in the scheme about making the change.

Regulation 7 amends the Occupational Pension Schemes (Fraud Compensation Levy) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2006 to increase the maximum fraud compensation levy which may be raised in any one financial year from 23 pence per member to 75 pence per member. The fraud compensation levy is paid by occupational pension schemes and is used to fund the Fraud Compensation Fund, which makes payments to certain schemes which have lost money due to fraud.

Regulation 8 makes a consequential revocation.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2011. (See end of Document for details)

As these Regulations, in so far as they are made under the Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 2005, make in relation to Northern Ireland only provision corresponding to provision contained in regulations made by the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions in relation to Great Britain, the requirement to consult under Article 289(1) of that Order does not apply by virtue of paragraph (2) (e) of that Article.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2011.
