Regulation 10(3)

Actuary’s certificate

Given for the purposes of regulation 10(3) of the Pension Sharing (Pension Credit Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2000

This certificate is subject to the Notes below

The name of the transferring scheme is:

The reference number of Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs for that scheme is:

The name of the receiving scheme is:

The reference number of Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs for that scheme is:

1. I certify that in my opinion, the transfer credits to be acquired for each person with pension credit rights under the receiving scheme in the categories of person covered by this certificate are, broadly, no less favourable than the rights to be transferred.

2. Where it is the established custom for discretionary benefits or increases in benefits to be awarded under the transferring scheme, I certify that in my opinion, there is good cause to believe that the award of discretionary benefits or increases in benefits under the receiving scheme will (making allowance for any amount by which transfer credits under the receiving scheme are more favourable than the rights to be transferred) be, broadly, no less favourable.

In making this certification:

- I used these benefits:
- I used this data:
- I used these key actuarial assumptions to value the rights, transfer credits, any discretionary benefits and any discretionary increases in benefits:
- I used these documents:

The categories of person covered by this certificate are:

Signature:

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

Notes:

Phrases used in this certificate have the same meaning as in the Pension Sharing (Pension Credit Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2000 (“the 2000 Regulations”).

The certification in paragraph 2 was made in accordance with regulation 10(4) of the 2000 Regulations.

This certificate is valid only for the purposes of the 2000 Regulations.

This certificate must not be taken by the trustees or managers of the scheme as authority to make a transfer without the consent of each person with pension credit rights. It must also not be taken as a recommendation to make a transfer without each such person’s consent. The trustees or managers of the scheme need to satisfy themselves that making the transfer is consistent with their duties to the transferring persons and the remaining persons. The trustees of the scheme need to satisfy themselves that making the transfer is consistent with their responsibilities and powers under trust law.

The actuary is not expressing in this certificate an opinion on whether or not the amount of the transfer value is reasonable.

The actuary has taken account of the benefits accrued by the date of this certificate. The actuary has not taken account of any differences between the terms and conditions of any benefits that may accrue in the future under the transferring scheme and the receiving scheme.”
