(3) 1992 c.7

(4) 2002 c.14\(N.I.\)

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph 2(a) the “previous six months” means the period from (and including) Monday 13th June 2011 to Sunday 11th December 2011

(4) For the purposes of paragraph 2(b) the “previous six weeks” means the period from (and including) Monday 31st October 2011 to Sunday 11th December 2011.

Amount

3. A fuel payment shall consist of a single payment of £100 to a qualifying person.

Delayed Payment

4.—(1) A person who is eligible for a fuel payment and has not received it by 29th June 2012 may apply for a payment.

(2) An application under sub-paragraph (1) must—

- (a) be made in writing to the applicant’s general medical practitioner;
- (b) be received by the general medical practitioner before 27th July 2012; and
- (c) include—
 - (i) the applicant’s name, address, date of birth and Health and Social Care number;
 - (ii) the date on which the application is sent to the general medical practitioner; and
- (d) consent that information held may be used for the purpose of making a payment to them.

(3) A general medical practitioner shall send an application under sub-paragraph (1) to the Department together with confirmation of whether or not the applicant is a qualifying person within one month of receiving the application.

(4) If the Department is satisfied that a person making an application under sub-paragraph (1) is a qualifying person and has not already received a fuel payment under this Scheme, the Department shall make that payment.

Payment to be disregarded for social security

5. No account shall be taken of eligibility for a fuel payment under this Scheme in considering a person’s entitlement to a Social Fund payment or a payment under either of the following social security benefits—

- (a) income support; or
- (b) state pension credit.

Provision of fuel payments

6. The Department shall make fuel payments under the Scheme.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations provide for payments (“fuel payments”) to be made to qualifying persons under the Fuel Payments Scheme (Patients Receiving Treatment for Cancer) (Northern Ireland) 2012 (“the Scheme”).

The Scheme is set out in the Schedule to the Regulations.

Paragraph 2 of the Scheme provides that to be eligible for a fuel payment, a person must be a “qualifying person” i.e. a person who received inpatient surgery, radiotherapy, chemotherapy or palliative care for cancer, during the qualifying week (week commencing 12th December 2011) or the previous six months; or is a person for whom a decision is made during the qualifying week or the previous six weeks, to provide treatment for cancer in the form of surgery, radiotherapy, chemotherapy or palliative care.

Paragraph 3 of the Scheme provides that a fuel payment is a single payment of £100.

Paragraph 4 of the Scheme provides that persons who are eligible for a fuel payment but do not receive it before 29th June 2012 may apply to the general medical practitioner with whom they are registered by 27th July 2012 for the payment. A general medical practitioner must send such an application, together with confirmation that the applicant is a qualifying person, to the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety, within one month of receiving the application. If the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety is satisfied that the applicant is a qualifying person and has not already received a fuel payment, it shall make the fuel payment.

Paragraph 5 of the Scheme provides that no account shall be taken of eligibility for a fuel payment under this Scheme when considering a person’s entitlement to a Social Fund payment, income support and state pension credit.

Paragraph 6 provides that the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety shall make fuel payments.

A regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for the Regulations as they have no impact on the costs of business.
