EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Jobseeker's Allowance Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996 ("the 1996 Regulations"), the Social Security and Child Support (Decisions and Appeals) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1999 and the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2008 to enable claimants who have been awarded a jobseeker's allowance (JSA) to continue to be entitled to that benefit during an extended period of sickness.

To be entitled to JSA a claimant must normally be actively available and actively seeking work, capable of work or not have limited capability for work (see Article 3 of the Jobseekers (Northern Ireland) Order 1995).

Regulation 2(5) inserts new regulation 55ZA into the 1996 Regulations. It enables a claimant who is unable to work on account of a specific disease or disablement which is expected to last for more than 2 weeks but less than 13 weeks or who may no longer be treated as capable of work under regulation 55 (short periods of sickness), to be treated for a continuous period of no more than 13 weeks in a rolling 12 month period as capable of work or not having limited capability for work if they have notified the Department in writing that they do not intend to claim employment and support allowance (ESA). This is to be known as an extended period of sickness.

Regulation 2(2) amends regulation 14 (circumstances in which a person is to be treated as available) of the 1996 Regulations to enable a claimant who is treated as capable of work or not having limited capability for work under regulation 55ZA to be treated as available for work.

Regulation 2(3) amends regulation 19 (circumstances in which a person is to be treated as actively seeking employment) of the 1996 Regulations to enable such a claimant to be treated as actively seeking employment unless there are steps to seek employment in that week which it would be reasonable for them to take and they have not taken such steps.

Regulation 2(4)(a) to (d) amends regulation 55 (short periods of sickness) of the 1996 Regulations to correct a minor drafting errors. Regulation 2(4)(e) inserts a new paragraph (6), which has the effect of preventing both regulation 55 and 55A applying to a claimant at any one time. It also ensures that a claimant cannot be treated as capable of work or as not having limited capability for work for a continuous period under regulation 55 and then regulation 55A.

Regulation 3 amends the Social Security and Child Support (Decisions and Appeals) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1999 to ensure that decisions awarding components of ESA from week 14 of the ESA claim to be revised at any time where the claimant previously had an extended period of sickness lasting 13 weeks. It is also to ensure that the effective date of supersession of ESA decisions made on the basis that a claimant has limited capability for work or work-related activity or both, is the day after the last day of the relevant period as defined by the amendments made by regulation 4.

Regulation 4 amends the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2008 to ensure that the 13 week assessment phase when a person is first entitled to ESA is reduced by the number of days previously spent on JSA in an extended period of sickness immediately prior to being entitled to ESA. The amendments also, for the purpose of determining the end of the assessment phase for previous ESA claimants, treat periods on the extended period of sickness as a period of entitlement to ESA.

Regulation 5 makes consequential revocations.

These Regulations make in relation to Northern Ireland only provision corresponding to provision contained in Regulations made by the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions in relation to Great Britain and accordingly, by virtue of section 149(3) of, and paragraph 10 of Schedule 5 to, the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 (c. 8), are not subject to the requirement of section 149(2) of that Act for prior reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.
