- (3) S.R. 2002 No. 378, to which there are amendments not relevant to these Regulations.

“Meaning of “week”

35A.—(1) This regulation applies where a person (“P”) has been in employed earner’s employment with the same employer in each of 26 consecutive weeks (but no more than 26 weeks), ending with—

- (a) in relation to P’s entitlement to statutory paternity pay (birth), the week immediately preceding the 14th week before the expected week of the child’s birth, or
- (b) in relation to P’s entitlement to statutory paternity pay (adoption), the week in which P is notified that P has been matched with the child for the purposes of adoption.

(2) For the purpose of determining whether P’s employment amounts to a continuous period of at least 26 weeks (see sections 167ZA(2)(b) and 167ZL(2)(b) of the Act), the first of those 26 weeks is a period commencing on the first day of P’s employment with the employer (“the start date”) and ending at midnight on—

- (a) the first Saturday after the start date, or
- (b) where the start date is a Saturday, that day.”.

Amendments to the Statutory Shared Parental Pay (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2015

3.—(1) The Statutory Shared Parental Pay (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2015(4) are amended in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) In regulation 30 (conditions as to continuity of employment and normal weekly earnings relating to a claimant for statutory shared parental pay (birth)), after paragraph (1) insert—

“(1A) Paragraph (1B) applies where a person has been in employed earner’s employment with the same employer in each of 26 consecutive weeks (but no more than 26 weeks), ending with the relevant week.

(1B) For the purpose of determining whether a person meets the condition in paragraph (1)(a), the first of those 26 weeks is a period commencing on the first day of the person’s employment with the employer (“the start date”) and ending at midnight on—

- (a) the first Saturday after the start date, or
- (b) where the start date is a Saturday, that day.”.

(3) In regulation 31 (conditions as to continuity of employment and normal weekly earnings in relation to a claimant for statutory shared parental pay (adoption)), after paragraph (1) insert—

“(1A) Paragraph (1B) applies where a person has been in employed earner’s employment with the same employer in each of 26 consecutive weeks (but no more than 26 weeks), ending with the relevant week.

(1B) For the purpose of determining whether a person meets the condition in paragraph (1)(a), the first of those 26 weeks is a period commencing on the first day of the person’s employment with the employer (“the start date”) and ending at midnight on—

- (a) the first Saturday after the start date, or
- (b) where the start date is a Saturday, that day.”.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Department for Employment and Learning on 2nd March 2016.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Statutory Paternity Pay and Statutory Adoption Pay (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2002 and the Statutory Shared Parental Pay (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2015. They make provision as to the meaning of a “week” for the purposes of determining whether a person has been in employed earner’s employment with an employer for a continuous period of at least 26 weeks.

A separate impact assessment has not been prepared for these Regulations which make only minor changes. These Regulations relate to a package of legislative measures and the relevant impacts were assessed within the document ‘Sharing parental rights, extending flexibility at work – public consultation’, published in May 2013 (www.delni.gov.uk/index/consultation-zone/archived-consultations/archived-consultations-2013/working-parents-rights.htm), and supplemented by a further publication in April 2014 (www.delni.gov.uk/index/publications/equality-good-relations/shared-parental-leave-and-pay.htm)
