

SCHEDULE 2

Reg 44

ENFORCEMENT POWERS IN RESPECT OF TRANSFERS, AND THE PLACING ON THE MARKET, OF CIVIL EXPLOSIVES, MARKET SURVEILLANCE, COMPLIANCE, WITHDRAWAL AND RECALL NOTICES, DEFENCE OF DUE DILIGENCE, APPEALS AGAINST NOTICES AND FURTHER PROVISIONS IN RELATION TO ENFORCEMENT

PART 1

ENFORCEMENT POWERS IN RESPECT OF TRANSFERS, AND THE PLACING ON THE MARKET, OF CIVIL EXPLOSIVES AND MARKET SURVEILLANCE

Enforcement powers, market surveillance and designation of market surveillance authority

1. This Part applies in relation to—
 - (a) the enforcement of Part 2 of these Regulations by the Chief Constable; and
 - (b) the enforcement of Sub-Parts A and B of Part 3 of these Regulations, and market surveillance in relation to that Part, by the Department and
 - (c) the enforcement of Sub-Part C of Part 3 of these Regulations by the Secretary of State.
2. In Northern Ireland, the Department is designated as the market surveillance authority for the purposes of the Directive and RAMS in respect of civil explosives.
3. In its enforcement of Sub-Parts A and B of Part 3, the Department must enforce RAMS in respect of its application to civil explosives.
4. When enforcing Part 3, the enforcing authority must exercise its powers in a manner which is consistent with—
 - (a) paragraph 8 (Evaluation of civil explosives presenting a risk);
 - (b) paragraph 9 (Enforcement action in respect of civil explosives which are not in conformity and which present a risk);
 - (c) paragraph 10 (EU safeguard procedure);
 - (d) paragraph 11 (Enforcement action in respect of civil explosives which are in conformity, but present a risk);
 - (e) paragraph 12 (Enforcement action in respect of formal non-compliance); and
 - (f) paragraph 13 (Restrictive measures).
5. Subject to paragraph 7, and to the extent that they would not otherwise do so in the case of Part 2, the provisions of the 1978 Order referred to in paragraph 6 apply to Part 2 and Part 3 of these Regulations for the purposes of their enforcement as if Part 2 and Part 3 of these Regulations were health and safety regulations for the purposes of that Order.
6. In relation to the enforcement of the provisions referred to in paragraph 1—
 - (a) Articles 21 to 33, 35, 36, 38 and 39 of, and Schedule 3A to, the 1978 Order apply as provided in paragraph 7; and
 - (b) Articles 34(1) and (2) and 34A of the 1978 Order apply in relation to offences under Article 31 of the 1978 Order as applied by sub-paragraph (a) and the modifications specified in paragraph 7.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

7.—(1) For the purposes of the enforcement of the provisions referred to in paragraph 1, and in respect of any related proceedings for a contravention of any of those provisions, the provisions of the 1978 Order mentioned in paragraph 6 apply as if—

- (a) any reference to the relevant statutory provisions in those provisions were a reference to—
 - (i) those provisions as modified by this paragraph; and
 - (ii) Part 2 and Part 3 of these Regulations;
- (b) references to “risk” were references to “risk” within the meaning of regulation 2(4) of these Regulations;
- (c) in Article 21—
 - (i) in paragraph (1)—

- (q) in Article 39, the reference in paragraph (3A) to “an explosive article or substance” were a reference to a civil explosive article or a civil explosive substance within the meaning of regulation 2(1).

(2) The provisions of the 1978 Order referred to in paragraph 6, except Articles 21 and 22, do not apply in relation to the performance of the functions of the Secretary of State under Sub-Part C of Part 3 or the functions under that Part of a notified body which is a public body performing its functions on behalf of the Crown.

Evaluation of civil explosives presenting a risk

8. Where the Department has sufficient reason to believe that a civil explosive presents a risk, the Department must carry out an evaluation in relation to the civil explosive covering the relevant requirements of Part 3 of these Regulations applying in respect of that civil explosive.

Enforcement action in respect of civil explosives which are not in conformity and which present a risk

9.—(1) Where, in the course of the evaluation referred to in paragraph 8, the Department finds that the civil explosive is not in conformity with Part 3 of these Regulations, it must, without delay, require a relevant economic operator to—

- (a) take appropriate corrective actions to bring the civil explosive into conformity with those requirements within a prescribed period;

- (b) withdraw the civil explosive within a prescribed period; or
 - (c) recall the civil explosive within a prescribed period.
- (2) The Department must inform the notified body which carried out the conformity assessment procedure in respect of the civil explosive of—
- (a) the respect in which the civil explosive is not in conformity with Part 3; and
 - (b) the actions which the Department is requiring the relevant economic operator to take.
- (3) Where the Department considers that the lack of conformity referred to in sub-paragraph (1) is not restricted to the United Kingdom, it must notify the Secretary of State of—
- (a) the results of the evaluation; and
 - (b) the actions which it has required the economic operator to take.
- (4) Where the Secretary of State receives a notice under sub-paragraph (3), the Secretary of State must inform the European Commission and the other EEA States of—
- (a) the results of the evaluation; and
 - (b) the actions which the Department has required the economic operator to take.
- (5) Where the relevant economic operator does not take adequate corrective action within the prescribed period, the Department must take appropriate measures to—
- (a) prohibit or restrict the civil explosive being made available on the market in the United Kingdom;
 - (b) withdraw the civil explosive from the United Kingdom market; or
 - (c) recall the civil explosive.
- (6) Where the Department takes measures under sub-paragraph (5), it must notify the Secretary of State of those measures without delay.
- (7) Where the Secretary of State receives a notice under sub-paragraph (6), the Secretary of State must notify the European Commission and the other EEA States of those measures without delay.
- (8) The notices in sub-paragraphs (6) and (7) must include details about the civil explosive and, in particular—
- (a) the data necessary for the identification of the civil explosive which is not in conformity with Part 3;
 - (b) the origin of the civil explosive;
 - (c) the nature of the lack of conformity alleged and the risk involved;
 - (d) the nature and duration of the measures taken;
 - (e) the arguments put forward by the relevant economic operator; and
 - (f) whether the lack of conformity is due to either of the following—
 - (i) failure of the civil explosive to meet requirements relating to a risk;
 - (ii) shortcomings in the harmonised standards referred to in regulation 31 (Presumption of conformity) conferring a presumption of conformity.
- (9) In this paragraph, “prescribed period” means a period which is—
- (a) prescribed by the Department; and
 - (b) reasonable and commensurate with the nature of the risk presented by the civil explosive.
- (10) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (5), “take appropriate measures” includes the Department making arrangements with the competent national authority for Great Britain as to measures referred to in that sub-paragraph being taken there by that authority.

EU safeguarding procedures

10.—(1) Where another EEA State has initiated the procedure under Article 42 of the Directive (as amended from time to time) the Department must, without delay, inform the Secretary of State of—

- (a) any measures taken by the Department in respect of the civil explosive; and
- (b) any additional information which the Department has at its disposal relating to the lack of conformity of the civil explosive.

(2) Where another EEA State has initiated the procedure under Article 42 of the Directive (as amended from time to time) the Secretary of State must, without delay, inform the European Commission and the other EEA States of—

- (a) any measures taken by the Department in respect of the civil explosive;
- (b) any additional information which the Department has at its disposal relating to the lack of conformity of the civil explosive; and
- (c) any objections that the Secretary of State may have to the measure taken by the EEA State initiating the procedure.

(3) Where a measure taken by another EEA State in respect of a civil explosive is considered justified under Article 42(7) of the Directive, as amended from time to time, the Department must ensure that appropriate measures, such as withdrawal, are taken in respect of the civil explosive without delay.

(4) Where a measure taken by another EEA State in respect of a civil explosive is considered justified by the European Commission under Article 43(1) of the Directive (as amended from time to time) the Department must take the necessary measures to ensure that the civil explosive is withdrawn from the United Kingdom market.

(5) Where the Department has taken action under sub-paragraph (3) or (4), it must inform the Secretary of State.

(6) Where the Secretary of State receives a notice under sub-paragraph (5), the Secretary of State must inform the European Commission of the action taken.

(7) If a measure taken by the Department pursuant to paragraph 9 is considered unjustified by the European Commission under Article 43(1) of the Directive (as amended from time to time) the Department must withdraw that measure.

(8) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4), “take the necessary measures” includes the Department making arrangements with the competent national authority for Great Britain as to measures referred to that in that sub-paragraph being taken there by that authority.

Enforcement action in respect of civil explosives which are in conformity, but present a risk

11.—(1) Where, having carried out an evaluation under paragraph 8, the Department finds that although a civil explosive is in conformity with Part 3 of these Regulations it presents a risk, the Department must require a relevant economic operator to take appropriate measures to—

- (a) ensure that the civil explosive concerned, when placed on the market, no longer presents a risk;
- (b) withdraw the civil explosive within a prescribed period; or
- (c) recall the civil explosive within a prescribed period.

(2) Where the Department takes measures under sub-paragraph (1), it must notify the Secretary of State immediately.

(3) Where the Secretary of State receives a notice under sub-paragraph (2), the Secretary of State must notify the European Commission and the other EEA States immediately.

(4) The notices referred to in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) must include details about the civil explosive and, in particular—

- (a) the data necessary for the identification of the civil explosive concerned;
- (b) the origin and the supply chain of the civil explosive;
- (c) the nature of the risk involved; and
- (d) the nature and duration of the measures taken by the Department.

(5) In this paragraph, “prescribed period” means a period which is—

- (a) prescribed by the Department; and
- (b) reasonable and commensurate with the nature of the risk presented by the civil explosive.

Enforcement action in respect of formal non-compliance

12.—(1) Where the Department makes one of the following findings relating to a civil explosive, it must require a relevant economic operator to put an end to the non-compliance concerned within a specified period—

- (a) the CE marking—
 - (i) has not been affixed; or
 - (ii) has been affixed otherwise than in accordance with regulations 30 (Prohibition on improper use of CE marking) and 34 (CE marking);
- (b) where a notified body is involved in the production control phase for the civil explosive, the identification number of the notified body—
 - (i) has not been affixed; or
 - (ii) has been affixed otherwise than in accordance with regulation 34 (CE marking);
- (c) the EU declaration of conformity—
 - (i) has not been drawn up; or
 - (ii) has been drawn up otherwise than in accordance with regulations 7 (EU declaration of conformity and CE marking) and 33 (EU declaration of conformity);
- (d) the technical documentation is either not available or not complete;
- (e) the following information that is required in respect of the civil explosive is absent, false or incomplete—
 - (i) the information specified in regulation 10 (Traceability of certain civil explosives excluded from the scope of regulations 4, 5 and 6 of ITOER (NI) 2013);
 - (ii) the information specified in regulation 16 (Information identifying importer); or
- (f) any other administrative requirement imposed on the manufacturer or importer under Part 3 has not been fulfilled.

(2) Until the specified period has elapsed, the Department must not commence proceedings in relation to Part 3 of these Regulations, or take any other enforcement action in relation to that Part, against the relevant economic operator in respect of the non-compliance concerned.

(3) Where the non-compliance referred to in sub-paragraph (1) persists, the Department must take the appropriate measures to—

- (a) restrict or prohibit the civil explosive being made available on the market;
- (b) ensure that the civil explosive is withdrawn; or
- (c) ensure that the civil explosive is recalled.

(4) This paragraph does not apply where a civil explosive presents a risk.

Restrictive measures

13.—(1) When enforcing Part 3, the Department must comply with the requirements of Article 21 of RAMS (as amended from time to time) in relation to any measure to—

- (a) prohibit or restrict a civil explosive being made available on the market;
- (b) withdraw a civil explosive; or
- (c) recall a civil explosive.

PART 2

COMPLIANCE, WITHDRAWAL AND RECALL NOTICES

Compliance, withdrawal and recall notices

14. In addition to the powers available to the Department under Part 1 of this Schedule for enforcing Part 3 of these Regulations, the Department may use the powers set out in this Part.

Compliance notice

15.—(1) The Department may serve a compliance notice on a relevant economic operator in respect of a civil explosive if the Department has reasonable grounds for believing that there is non-compliance.

(2) A compliance notice must—

- (a) require the relevant economic operator on which it is served to—
 - (i) end the non-compliance within such period as may be specified in the notice; or
 - (ii) provide evidence, within such period as may be specified in the notice, demonstrating to the satisfaction of the Department that the non-compliance has not in fact occurred; and
- (b) warn the economic operator that, if the non-compliance persists or if satisfactory evidence has not been produced under paragraph (a) within the period specified in the notice, further action may be taken in respect of the civil explosive or any civil explosive of the same type made available on the market by that relevant economic operator.

(3) A compliance notice may include directions as to the measures to be taken by the economic operator to secure compliance, including different ways of securing compliance.

(4) Subject to sub-paragraph (5), the Department may revoke or vary a compliance notice by serving a notification on the economic operator.

(5) The Department may not vary a compliance notice so as to make it more restrictive for the economic operator or more onerous for the economic operator to comply.

Withdrawal notice

16.—(1) The Department may serve a withdrawal notice on a relevant economic operator in respect of a civil explosive if the Department has reasonable grounds for believing that—

- (a) the civil explosive has been made available on the market; and
- (b) there is non-compliance.

(2) A withdrawal notice must prohibit the relevant economic operator from making the civil explosive available on the market without the consent of the Department.

(3) A withdrawal notice may require the relevant economic operator to take action to alert end-users to any risk presented by the civil explosive.

(4) A withdrawal notice may require the relevant economic operator to keep the Department informed of the whereabouts of any civil explosive referred to in the notice.

(5) A consent given by the Department pursuant to a withdrawal notice may impose such conditions on the making available on the market as the Department considers appropriate.

(6) Subject to sub-paragraph (7), the Department may revoke or vary a withdrawal notice by serving a notification on the economic operator.

(7) The Department may not vary a withdrawal notice so as to make it more restrictive for the economic operator or more onerous for the economic operator to comply.

Recall notice

17.—(1) The Department may serve a recall notice on a relevant economic operator in respect of a civil explosive if the Department has reasonable grounds for believing that—

- (a) the civil explosive has been made available to end-users; and
- (b) there is non-compliance.

(2) A recall notice must require the relevant economic operator to use reasonable endeavours to organise the return of the civil explosive from end-users to the relevant economic operator or another person specified in the notice.

(3) A recall notice may—

- (a) require the recall to be effected in accordance with a code of practice;
- (b) require the relevant economic operator to—
 - (i) contact end-users in order to inform them of the recall, to the extent that it is practicable to do so;
 - (ii) publish a notice in such form and such manner as is likely to bring to the attention of end-users any risk the civil explosive poses and the fact of the recall; or
 - (iii) make arrangements for the collection or return of the civil explosive from end-users or its disposal; or
- (c) impose such additional requirements on the relevant economic operator as are reasonable and practicable with a view to achieving the return of the civil explosive.

(4) In determining what requirements to include in a recall notice, the Department must take into consideration the need to encourage distributors and end-users to contribute to its implementation.

(5) A recall notice may only be issued by the Department where—

- (a) other action which it may require under or by virtue of this Schedule would not suffice to address the non-compliance;
- (b) the action being undertaken by the relevant economic operator is unsatisfactory or insufficient to address the non-compliance;
- (c) the Department has given not less than 10 days' notice to the relevant economic operator of its intention to serve such a notice; and
- (d) the Department has taken account of any advice obtained under sub-paragraph (6).

(6) A relevant economic operator which has received notice from the Department of an intention to serve a recall notice may, at any time prior to the service of the recall notice, require the Department to seek the advice of such person as the Institute determines on the questions of—

- (a) whether there is non-compliance; and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

(b) whether the issue of a recall notice would be proportionate.

(7) Sub-paragraphs (5)(b), (c) and (d) do not apply in the case of a civil explosive presenting a serious risk requiring, in the view of the Department, urgent action.

(8) Where a relevant economic operator requires the Department to seek advice under sub-paragraph (6), that relevant economic operator is to be responsible for the fees, costs and expenses of the Institute and of the person appointed by the Institute to advise the Department.

(9) In this paragraph “Institute” means the charitable organisation with the registered number 803725 and known as the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

(10) A recall notice served by the Department may require the relevant economic operator to keep the Department informed of the whereabouts of a civil explosive to which the recall notice relates, so far as the relevant economic operator is able to do so.

(11) Subject to sub-paragraph (12), the Department may revoke or vary a recall notice by serving a notification on the economic operator.

(12) The Department may not vary a recall notice so as to make it more restrictive for the economic operator or more onerous for the economic operator to comply.

Compliance with a withdrawal or recall notice

18.—(1) A person must not contravene any requirement or prohibition imposed by a withdrawal or recall notice served pursuant to this Part (including any such notice as varied by the Department or on appeal).

(2) The provisions of Article 31(1)(c) of the 1978 Order apply to sub-paragraph (1) for the purposes of its enforcement as if it were health and safety regulations for the purposes of that Order.

(3) The maximum penalty for an offence under Article 31(1)(c) of the 1978 Order, as applied by sub-paragraph (2), is determined in accordance with sub-paragraph (4).

(4) The penalty referred to in sub-paragraph (3) is—

- (a) on summary conviction, imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or a fine not exceeding the statutory minimum, or both; and
- (b) on conviction on indictment, imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or a fine, or both.

Interpretation

19. In this Part, “non-compliance” means that a civil explosive—

- (a) presents a risk; or
- (b) is not in conformity with Part 3 of these Regulations or RAMS in its application to civil explosives.

PART 3

DEFENCE OF DUE DILIGENCE, APPEALS AGAINST NOTICES AND FURTHER PROVISIONS IN RELATION TO ENFORCEMENT

Defence of due diligence

20.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (4), in proceedings for an offence under Article 31(1)(c) of the 1978 Order involving a contravention of Part 3 or paragraph 18, it is a defence for a person

(“P”) to show that P took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence.

(2) P may not rely on a defence under sub-paragraph (1) which involves a third party allegation unless P has—

- (a) served a notice in accordance with sub-paragraph (3); or
- (b) obtained the leave of the court.

(3) The notice must—

- (a) give any information on P’s possession which identifies or assists in identifying the person who—
 - (i) committed the act or default; or
 - (ii) supplied the information on which P relied; and
- (b) be served on the person bringing the proceedings not less than seven clear days before the hearing of the proceedings.

(4) P may not rely on a defence under sub-paragraph (1) which involves an allegation that the commission of the offence was due to reliance on information supplied by another person unless it was reasonable for P to have relied upon the information, having regard in particular—

- (a) to the steps that P took, and those which might reasonably have been taken, for the purpose of verifying the information; and
- (b) to whether P had any reason to believe the information.

(5) In this paragraph, “third party allegation” means an allegation that the commission of the offence was due—

- (a) to the act or default of another person; or
- (b) to reliance on information supplied by another person.

Service of documents

21. Any document required or authorised by these Regulations to be served on a person may be served by—

- (a) delivering it to that person in person;
- (b) leaving it at that person’s proper address; or
- (c) sending it by post or electronic means to that person’s proper address.

(2) In the case of a body corporate, a document may be served on a director of that body.

(3) In the case of a partnership, a document may be served on a partner or a person having control or management of the partnership business.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph, “proper address” means—

- (a) in the case of a body corporate or its director—
 - (i) the registered or principal office of that body; or
 - (ii) the email address of the secretary or clerk of that body;
- (b) in the case of a partnership, a partner or person having control or management of the partnership business—
 - (i) the principal office of the partnership; or
 - (ii) the email address of the partner or person having that control or management;
- (c) in any other case, a person’s last known address, which includes an email address.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

(5) If a person to be served with a document has specified an address in the United Kingdom (other than that person's proper address) at which that person or someone on that person's behalf will accept service, that address shall also be treated as that person's proper address.

Action by enforcing authority

22.—(1) The Department may itself take action which an economic operator could have been required to take by a notice served under or by virtue of Parts 1 or 2 of this Schedule where the conditions for serving such a notice are met and either—

- (a) the Department has been unable to identify any economic operator on whom to serve such a notice; or
- (b) the economic operator on whom such a notice has been served has failed to comply with it.

(2) If the Department has taken action as a result of the condition in sub-paragraph (1)(b) being met, the Department may recover from the economic operator, as a civil debt, any costs or expenses reasonably incurred by the Department in taking the action.

(3) A civil debt recoverable under sub-paragraph (2) may be recovered summarily by way of a complaint pursuant to Article 62 of the Magistrates' Court (Northern Ireland) Order 1981(1).

Appeals against notices

23.—(1) An application for an order to vary or set aside the terms of a notice served under Part 2 of this Schedule may be made to the appropriate court—

- (a) by the economic operator on whom the notice has been served; and
- (b) in the case of a notice other than a recall notice, by a person having an interest in the civil explosive in respect of which the notice has been served.

(2) An application must be made before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the notice was served.

(3) The appropriate court may only make an order setting aside a notice served under Part 2 of this Schedule if satisfied—

- (a) that the civil explosive to which that notice relates is in conformity with Part 3 and does not present a risk; or
- (b) that the enforcing authority failed to comply with paragraph 4 when serving the notice.

(4) On an application to vary the terms of a notice referred to in Part 2 of this Schedule, the appropriate court may vary the terms of the notice as it considers appropriate.

(5) In this paragraph, the "appropriate court" is to be determined in accordance with paragraph 24 (appropriate court for appeals against notices).

Appropriate court for appeals against notices

24.—(1) The appropriate court for the purposes of paragraph 23 is—

- (a) the court in which proceedings have been brought for an offence in relation to the civil explosive under Article 31 (Offences) of the 1978 Order;
- (b) an industrial tribunal seized of appeal proceedings against a notice which relates to the civil explosive and which had been served under or by virtue of Part 1 of this Schedule; or
- (c) in any other case, a magistrates' court.

(1) S.I. 1981 No. 1675 (N.I. 26).
