

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

---

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order varies the length of the period which must elapse for a second opinion to be required for the continued administration of medicine to detained patients from three months to six months.