Circumstances in which a pupil may be excused from Article 5(1A) education or a specified element of that education

- 3.—(1) The circumstances in which a pupil may be excused from Article 5(1A) education at the request of a parent are—
- (a) the pupil is in year 8, 9, 10 or 11 at a grant-aided school and a parent’s request confirms that Article 5(1A) education is contrary to their wishes; or
 - (b) the pupil is in year 12 at a grant-aided school, a parent’s request confirms that Article 5(1A) education is contrary to their wishes and the pupil does not object to being excused.
- (2) The circumstances in which a pupil may be excused from a specified element of Article 5(1A) education at the request of a parent are—
- (a) the pupil is in year 8, 9, 10 or 11 at a grant-aided school and a parent’s request confirms that a specified element of Article 5(1A) education is contrary to their wishes; or
 - (b) the pupil is in year 12 at a grant-aided school, a parent’s request confirms that a specified element of Article 5(1A) education is contrary to their wishes and the pupil does not object to being excused.
- (3) A parent’s request made under paragraph (1) or (2) shall—
- (a) be in writing;
 - (b) be addressed to the principal of the grant-aided school at which the pupil is registered⁽⁶⁾;
 - (c) identify the pupil to whom it relates;
 - (d) specify whether it relates to paragraph (1) (Article 5(1A) education) or paragraph (2) (a specified element of Article 5(1A) education);
 - (e) confirm that the Article 5(1A) education or a specified element of Article 5(1A) education (as the case may be) is contrary to their wishes.

⁽⁴⁾ Article 5(1A) was inserted into the 2006 Order by regulation 2(2) of the Relationships and Sexuality Education (Northern Ireland) (Amendment) Regulations 2023 (S.I. 2023/602).

⁽⁶⁾ See Article 48 of the Education and Libraries (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 (S.I. 1986/594 \(N.I. 3\))

(4) Where a pupil has been excused in accordance with this regulation, the excusal remains in force—

- (a) in the case of Article 5(1A) education until the end of the school year in which the request was made;
- (b) in the case of a specified element of Article 5(1A) education, until that education has been completed.
