

period of unemployment the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland by virtue of the powers conferred upon it by the said paragraph, and Section 35 of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf hereby makes the following regulations :

1. If in any case an insured contributor claiming benefit in respect of a period of unemployment proves that such period of unemployment in fact commenced on a date earlier than that upon which he made application for benefit in the prescribed manner and that during the portion of such period prior to the date of making application for benefit he was in all respects qualified to make the claim and for receipt of benefit, and that there was good cause for his failure to make the claim on such earlier date, that date shall for the purpose of determining the commencement of that period of unemployment be substituted for the date on which the insured contributor made application for benefit in the prescribed manner.

2. These Regulations may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance (Commencement of Periods) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1924, and shall have effect from the first day of August nineteen hundred and twenty-four.

Given under the Official Seal of the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland this twenty-fourth day of November nineteen hundred and twenty-four.

Temporary Provisions Act (Northern Ireland), 1924.

MADE BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTHERN IRELAND UNDER THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE (TEMPORARY PROVISIONS) ACT
(NORTHERN IRELAND), 1924.

1924. No. 58.

Whereas it is provided by section one of the Unemployment Insurance (Temporary Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland), 1924, (in this Order and in the Schedule thereto referred to as "the Act"), that in the event of any Acts being after the passing of the Act passed in the present session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom to amend the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1924, there shall apply to Northern Ireland so much as the Governor of Northern Ireland by Order in Council declares applicable of the enactments contained in any such Act, being enactments making provision for or with respect to the matters in sub-section (1) of section one of the Act mentioned; and that an Order in Council under the Act may make such adaptations of any such enactments as aforesaid as appear necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the application of those enactments to Northern Ireland, and that as from any date specified in the Order the Unemployment Insurance Acts (Northern Ireland), 1920 to 1924, shall have effect as amended by the enactments applied to Northern Ireland by the Order:

And Whereas the Unemployment Insurance (No. 2) Act, 1924, has been passed in the present session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom to amend the said Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1924, and contains certain
