

Music.

32. A University degree in Music, in respect of the subjects taken at the final examination for the degree.

33. The Associateship of the Royal College of Music, in respect of the subjects covered by the diploma.

34. The Fellowship or Associateship of the Royal College of Organists (London). In respect of vocal music, the diploma must, however, be supplemented by the special diploma in choir training.

35. The Licentiatehip of the Royal Academy of Music (London) in respect of the subjects covered by the diploma.

36. The Licentiatehip or Fellowship of the Tonic Sol-fa College (London) in respect of aural training and class singing.

Physical Training.

37. The Diploma of any institution approved for the purpose by the Ministry.

Specially qualified persons will always be exceptionally recognised; but such recognition will be granted only when the applicant for recognition has satisfied the Ministry that he is specially qualified. Application for such recognition should be accompanied by a complete detailed statement of the applicant's course of study and work; and should be supported, as far as possible, by certificates from professors or employers. In order to determine finally whether a teacher has sufficient technical knowledge of the subject which he seeks to teach, the Ministry may require him to undergo a special examination. Such examination will, as a rule, be held in Belfast; and the applicant will have to bear his own travelling and personal expenses in connection therewith.

Certification of a teacher's qualifications may be suspended (or further provisional certification refused) upon evidence of insufficient knowledge of a subject for teaching purposes, or of inefficiency as a teacher from whatever cause.

The provisional certification accorded a teacher by the Ministry in any subject will be confirmed when he has taught a class in that subject to the satisfaction of the Ministry, for at least two sessions.

Certification, Recognition, Payment of Salaries and Conditions of Employment of Teachers of Technical Schools and Classes.
