EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations are made in consequence of the National Insurance (No. 2) Act (Northern Ireland) 1966.

They enable forward awards and disallowances of sickness benefit under the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland) 1966 and of injury benefit under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland) 1966 to be made in certain circumstances and also deal with the set-off of benefit against the earlier payment of dependency benefit.

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Claims and Payments) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1948. Other Regulations consequential upon the provision in the National Insurance (No. 2) Act (Northern Ireland) 1966 of a power to make forward allowances and disallowances of injury benefit, remove the need for part of regulation 12A of the 1948 Regulations, which has therefore been revoked and replaced by regulation 2 of these Regulations. Regulation 3 brings the time limits for claiming injury benefit into line with the time limits for claiming sickness benefit, consequential upon the provisions of the 1966 (No. 2) Act bringing the rules governing the determination of days for which injury benefit is payable into line with those for sickness benefit. It also adds the increase for exceptionally severe disablement to the other increases of disablement pension in the provision prescribing times for claiming benefit.
