

---

DRAFT SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

2002 No.

The Marriage (Approval of Places) (Scotland) Regulations 2002

Applicants

2.—(1) An application for a period approval may, following the procedures set out in regulation 3, be made to the authority by any person.

(2) An application for a temporary approval may, following the procedures set out in regulation 4, be made to the authority by either of the parties to an intended civil marriage in respect of any place which at the time of the application does not have a period approval, other than one that will expire before the date of the intended civil marriage.