ANIMALS

The Animal By-Products and Animal Health
(Miscellaneous Fees) (Scotland) Regulations 2023

Made - - - - 2023

Coming into force - - 1st July 2023

The Scottish Ministers make the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by section 10(1) and (3)(c) of the Animal Health and Welfare Act 1984(1) and paragraph 7(2) of schedule 4 and paragraph 21 of schedule 7 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018(2) and all other powers enabling them to do so.

In accordance with paragraph 1(6) of schedule 7 of the European Union Withdrawal Act 2018 (as applied by paragraph 12(3) of that schedule of that Act), a draft of this instrument has been laid before and approved by resolution of the Scottish Parliament.

Citation, commencement and extent

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Animal By-Products and Animal Health (Miscellaneous Fees) (Scotland) Regulations 2023 and come into force on 1 July 2023.

(2) These Regulations extend to Scotland only.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

- (1) 1984 c. 40. Section 10(8) defines the “appropriate Minister” in relation to Scotland as the Secretary of State. The functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable within devolved competence, were transferred to the Scottish Ministers by virtue of section 53 of the Scotland Act 1998 (c. 46). The requirement in section 10(3)(c) for the approval of the Treasury ceased to have effect by virtue of section 55 of the Scotland Act 1998.
- (2) 2018 c. 16. The Scottish Ministers are an appropriate authority within the meaning of paragraph 8 of schedule 4 of the Act. Paragraph 21 of schedule 7 of the Act was amended by paragraph 53(2) of schedule 5 of the European Union (Withdrawal Agreement) Act 2020 (c. 1). The powers to make these Regulations are exercised together by virtue of section 33(2) of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010 (asp 10) and these Regulations are subject to the affirmative procedure by virtue of section 33(3) of that Act.

“veterinary officer” means a veterinary surgeon employed as such by the Scottish Ministers or the Secretary of State⁽³⁾,

“veterinary surgeon” means a person registered in the register of veterinary surgeons, or the supplementary veterinary register, kept under the Veterinary Surgeons Act 1966⁽⁴⁾.

Refund of fees

3. Where an application, for which a fee is payable under these Regulations, is withdrawn before its determination, the Scottish Ministers must refund to the applicant such proportion of any fee paid in respect of that application as the Scottish Ministers think fit, having regard to any reasonable costs incurred by them in connection with the application.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations revoke and replace, with modified fees and minor amendments, the Animal By-Products and Pet Passport Fees (Scotland) Regulations 2018 and the Animal Health (Miscellaneous Fees) (Scotland) Regulations 2018. They make provision for the fees payable to the Scottish Ministers in relation to activities conducted to verify compliance with rules on the prevention and minimisation of risks to human and animal health arising from animal by-products and derived products, and to verify compliance with rules on animal health requirements.

Regulation 3 sets out the circumstances in which the Scottish Ministers must refund to an applicant fees paid in respect of an application.

Regulation 4 and schedule 1 set out fees payable by operators of establishments and plants that are required to be approved for the purposes Regulation (EC) 1069/2009 laying down health rules as regards animal by-products and derived products not intended for human consumption.

Regulation 5 and schedule 2 set out fees payable in relation to control programmes under Regulation (EC) 2160/2003 on the control of salmonella and other specified food-borne zoonotic agents.

Regulation 6 and schedule 3 set out fees payable in relation to registrations and approvals for the purpose of the poultry health scheme and the export of poultry or hatching eggs to Northern Ireland, the EU and certain other third countries.

Regulation 7 and schedule 4 set out fees payable in relation to considering applications and carrying out routine examinations for the purposes of the Bovine Semen (Scotland) Regulations 2007.

Regulation 8 and schedule 5 set out fees payable in relation to licence applications, approvals and testing for the purposes of the Artificial Insemination of Pigs (Scotland) Regulations 1964 and the Artificial Insemination of Pigs (EEC) Regulations 1992.

Regulation 9 and schedule 6 set out fees payable in relation to approvals and inspections for the purposes of the Bovine Embryo (Collection, Production and Transfer) Regulations 1995.

Regulation 10 and schedule 7 set out fees payable in relation to the performance of official controls on imported consignments of live animals at border control posts.

Regulation 11 revokes the Animal By-Products and Pet Passport Fees (Scotland) Regulations 2018 and the Animal Health (Miscellaneous Fees) (Scotland) Regulations 2018 (and provisions of instruments which amended those Regulations). Provision for fees for the delivery of pet passport identification documents is not re-enacted in these Regulations.

A Business and Regulatory Impact Assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
