1999 No. 194

The Shetland Islands Regulated Fishery (Scotland) Order 1999

Power to impose restrictions and make regulations

4.—(1) The Organisation may, with the consent of the Scottish Ministers from time to time impose restrictions on, and make regulations respecting, the dredging, fishing for and taking of the prescribed species within the whole or any specified part of the fishery.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1) above, regulations may be made under that paragraph for the purpose of—

- (a) determining the size below which or above which it shall be unlawful to take any of the prescribed species from the fishery or to remove them from one part of the fishery to another; and
- (b) determining the size or description of vessels, dredges and fishing instruments to be used in dredging, fishing for or taking any of the prescribed species.

(3) The production of a copy of any regulation purporting to be certified by Scottish Ministers shall be conclusive evidence of the existence of the regulation and of the due making of it.
