2000 No. 102

The Census (Scotland) Regulations 2000

Issue of Individual forms of return in communal establishments

11.—(1) The person to whom a Communal Establishment Form is delivered in accordance with regulation 8(1)(b) shall issue an Individual Form and where requested, an individual return envelope, to every prescribed person on the premises who appears to him to be capable of completing the form.

(2) Where the Registrar-General has made arrangements for the delivery of the forms and envelopes referred to in regulation 8(3)(a), he shall also make arrangements for the issuing of Individual forms and individual return envelopes to every prescribed person on the premises or vessel who appears capable of completing the form.

(3) Where the manager or other person in charge of any premises mentioned in Group II in Schedule 1 to the Census Order has arranged for a return, with respect to a person who is incapable of making a return, to be made by a relative or other person accompanying the person incapable of making the return, he shall issue an Individual Form and where requested an individual return envelope to the relative or other person for that purpose.
