The Local Authorities' Traffic Orders (Exemptions for Disabled Persons) (Scotland) Regulations 2000

Exemption in favour of vehicles displaying disabled person's badges

5.—(1) The following provisions of these Regulations have effect for requiring local authorities to include, in orders to which these Regulations apply, exemptions in favour of a vehicle displaying a disabled person's badge.

(2) Any exemption from a provision which these Regulations require to be included in an order may be limited to vehicles of the same class as those to which the provision applies.
