Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) in the ordinary case, to the father and mother (whether or not they are married to each other) of the child or aided pupil or, where one is dead, to the survivor and, should they remarry, the spouse of the survivor;
 - (b) where the father or mother of the child or aided pupil, with whom the child or aided pupil normally lives, has married a person who is not the parent of the child or assisted pupil, to that parent and their spouse;
 - (c) where the parents of the child or aided pupil, as defined in sub paragraph (a), are divorced or, in any of the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (4), separated, to that one of them with whom the child or assisted pupil normally lives or who, in pursuance of a court order, is entitled to have the child or aided pupil normally live with them and, should that person remarry, their spouse;
 - (d) where the child or aided pupil has no parents as defined in sub paragraphs (a) to (c), to their guardian or guardians (if any) or to any person or persons with whom the child or aided pupil normally lives in accordance with either—
 - (i) an order relating to parental responsibilities or parental rights made under section 11(1) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995⁽⁵⁾; or
 - (ii) any subsisting court order (other than an order made under section 11(1) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995) which specifies who is to have actual custody or care and control of the child or assisted pupil;
 - (e) where the child or aided pupil has no parents so defined and no guardian, or where there is no order as mentioned in sub paragraph (d), to the person or persons who have care of the child or aided pupil.
- (3) Where a child or aided pupil—
- (a) either has no parents as defined in paragraph (2)(a), (b), (c) or (d) or has such parents whose whereabouts are unknown; and
 - (b) is looked after by a local authority under the Children (Scotland) Act 1995, then, for the purposes of these Regulations, they shall be treated as a child or aided pupil whose parents have no income and, subject thereto, any reference in these Regulations to their parents shall be construed as a reference to the local authority who are looking after them.

(4) The circumstances referred to in paragraph (2)(c) are that the parents are separated under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or by a deed of separation, where they are not so separated (and whether or not they are married to each other), that—

- (a) it is not reasonably practicable to find one of the parents; or
- (b) in pursuance of a court order or in accordance with a maintenance assessment under the Child Support Act 1991⁽⁶⁾ one parent is liable to make periodic payments to or for the benefit of the other or one or more of their children; or
- (c) in pursuance of a court order—
 - (i) one parent has been given care of, or access to, one or more of their children; or
 - (ii) one parent is prohibited from entering the matrimonial home.
