2001 No. 301

The National Health Service Trusts (Membership and Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 2001

PART II

MEMBERSHIP: CHAIRPERSON AND TRUSTEES

Appointment and term of office

- 2.—(1) The chairperson and trustees of a NHS trust shall be appointed by the Scottish Ministers.
- (2) The term of office of the chairperson and trustees of a NHS trust shall, subject to regulation 3, be for such period as the Scottish Ministers shall specify on making the appointment.
- (3) After the expiration of their term of office, the chairperson or a trustee of a NHS trust shall, subject to regulation 4, be eligible for re-appointment.

Resignation and removal

- 3.—(1) The chairperson or a trustee of a NHS trust may resign office at any time during the period of the appointment by giving notice in writing to the Scottish Ministers to this effect.
- (2) If the Scottish Ministers consider that it is not in the interests of the health service that a person who is appointed as chairperson or trustee of a NHS trust should continue to hold that office they may forthwith terminate that person's appointment.
- (3) If a chairperson or trustee of a NHS trust has not attended any meeting of the management team, or of any committee of the trust of which they are a member, for a period of six consecutive months, the Scottish Ministers shall forthwith terminate that person's appointment unless the Scottish Ministers are satisfied that—
- (a) the absence was due to illness or other reasonable cause; and
 - (b) the chairperson or trustee will be able to attend meetings within such period as the Scottish Ministers consider reasonable.
- (4) Where, during the period of their appointment, a trustee of a NHS trust is appointed chairperson of the trust, their period of office as trustee shall terminate on the date when their appointment as chairperson takes effect.
- (5) Where a chairperson or trustee becomes disqualified in terms of regulation 4 that person shall forthwith cease to hold such appointment.

Disqualification

- 4.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3) a person shall be disqualified for appointment as the chairperson or a trustee of a NHS trust if—
- (a) they have within the period of five years immediately preceding the proposed date of appointment been convicted in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man
