Deputy convener

7.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where requested to do so by the Council, the Scottish Ministers may appoint a member to be deputy convener for such period, not exceeding the remainder of that person's term of office as a member, as they may specify on making the appointment.

(2) The Scottish Ministers shall not appoint as deputy convener—

- (a) a member appointed under regulation 2(3); or

(3) Any member appointed as deputy convener may resign from that office at any time by giving not less than 30 days notice in writing to the Scottish Ministers.

(4) Where the convener is, for whatever reason, unable to perform the convener's functions, the deputy convener may perform those functions.

(5) The Scottish Ministers may, when requested to do so by the Council, terminate the appointment of a person as deputy convener on any of the grounds set out in regulation 6(1)(b).

(6) Where the Scottish Ministers decide to terminate an appointment under paragraph (5), they shall forthwith give the person concerned notice in writing of the termination of the appointment and of the reasons for their decision.

Appointment of committees and sub-committees

 - (i) if the convener or a member, is appointed by the committee; or
 - (ii) if not such a person, is appointed by the Council; and
- (b) other persons who,
 - (i) if the convener or members, are appointed by the committee; or
 - (ii) if not such persons, are appointed by the Council.

(5) Sub-committees shall be responsible to the committee which appoints them and shall report only to that committee.

Meetings and proceedings

9.—(1) The meetings and proceedings of the Council shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions set out in the Schedule to these Regulations and with Standing Orders made under paragraph (2).

(2) Subject to the provisions set out in the Schedule to these Regulations, to regulation 10 (disability on account of conflict of interest) and to such directions as may be given by the Scottish Ministers, the Council shall make, and may vary or revoke, Standing Orders for the regulation of the proceedings and business of the Council and any committee or sub-committee appointed under regulation 8, including provision for the suspension of the Standing Orders or any of them.

(3) The proceedings of the Council or of any committee or sub-committee shall not be invalidated by any vacancy in its membership or by any defect in the appointment of a member.

Disability of convener and members in proceedings on account of conflict of interest

10.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this regulation, if the convener or any member of the Council or a nominee or associate of such person has a pecuniary or other interest, direct or indirect, in any contract, proposed contract or other matter and such person is present at any meeting of the Council at which the contract, proposed contract or other matter is the subject of consideration, that person shall at the meeting and as soon as practicable after its commencement disclose the interest and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of the contract or other matter or vote on any question with respect to it.

(2) Where a person has disclosed an interest as provided for in paragraph (1)–

(a) the convener; or

(b) where the person disclosing the interest is the convener, a majority of the members, may if the convener thinks or (as the case may be) they think fit, exclude the person from the meeting while any contract, proposed contract or other matter in which the person has a pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, is under consideration.

(3) Any remuneration, compensation or allowances payable to the convener or a member by virtue of these Regulations shall not be treated as a pecuniary interest for the purpose of this regulation.

(4) A person shall not be treated as having an interest in any contract, proposed contract or other matter by reason only that the person, or an associate of the person, has an interest in any company, body or person which is so remote or insignificant that it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to effect any influence in the consideration or discussion of or in voting on any question with respect to that contract or matter.

(5) This regulation applies to any committee or sub-committee of the Council as it applies to the Council and applies to any member of any such committee or sub-committee (whether or not the person is also a member of the Council) as it applies to a member of the Council.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation, “associate” has the meaning ascribed to it by section 74 of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985(6).

Remuneration, allowances etc.

11.—(1) Subject to the remaining provisions of this regulation, the Council shall pay– in respect of each category of persons by the Scottish Ministers in writing.

(2) The Council may, in exceptional circumstances and with the consent of the Scottish Ministers, pay–

Delegation of functions

12.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Council may delegate any of its functions to any of its committees, sub-committees, members or employees.

Access to the register

13.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this regulation, the Council shall without charge make the register available for inspection by any person—

- (a) at its head office during its normal hours of business; and
- (b) at a website maintained by them on the internet.

(2) Access to the register under paragraph (1) shall be permitted only to the extent that it discloses—

- (a) where the person seeking access is a relevant employer—
 - (i) the names and registration numbers of persons who are registered;
 - (ii) the part of the register in which those persons are registered;
 - (iii) the place of employment of such persons, except where that address is the person's home address or the Council is satisfied that disclosure of the address could reasonably be expected to expose the person to danger;
 - (iv) any conditions which the Council has imposed on the registration of such persons;
 - (v) any qualifications held by such persons which are shown in the register; and
 - (vi) where registration has been suspended or the person's name has been removed from the register, that fact; or
- (b) where the person seeking access is not a relevant employer, only the matters set out in sub-paragraphs (a)(i) and (ii) and the postal town in which the place of employment referred to in sub-paragraph (a)(iii) is located.

(3) In this regulation “relevant employer” means a person who has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Council that the person employs or proposes to employ a social service worker and will use the information obtained only in connection with such employment or proposed employment.

(4) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (5), the Council shall provide to any person who makes a request in writing or in person at the Council's offices a copy of any part of the register which is specified in the request.

(5) The Council may charge such fee not exceeding £30 as it may determine in respect of any request which in the opinion of the Council is—

- (a) substantially the same as a previous request from the same person;
- (b) vexatious; or
- (c) for the purposes of a business (other than the business of a relevant employer).
