The Abolition of the Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce (Consequential Provisions) (Scotland) Regulations 2001

Made - - - - 23rd October 2001

Laid before the Scottish

Parliament - - - - 23rd October 2001

Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1(1)

The Scottish Ministers, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972<sup>(1)</sup>, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Regulations:

Citation, commencement and extent

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Abolition of the Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce (Consequential Provisions) (Scotland) Regulations 2001 and shall come into force on the day on which the Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce (Abolition) Regulations 2001<sup>(2)</sup> come into force.

(2) These Regulations extend to Scotland only.

Agency arrangements

2.—(1) The Scottish Ministers may, with the agreement of the Secretary of State, enter into an arrangement for the exercise by the Secretary of State on behalf of the Scottish Ministers of—

- (a) any function in connection with the carrying out of the obligations of the United Kingdom under the common agricultural policy; or
- (b) any other relevant function, other than a power to legislate by means of orders, rules, regulations or other subordinate instrument.

---

(1) 1972 c. 68. Section 2(2) was amended by the Scotland Act 1998 (c. 46), Schedule 8, paragraph 15(3). The functions conferred on the Minister of the Crown by section 2(2) were transferred, so far as within devolved competence, to the Scottish Ministers by virtue of section 53 of the Scotland Act 1998.

(2) S.I. 2001/3686.

(2) Any such arrangement shall be in writing and be signed by or on behalf of the Scottish Ministers and the Secretary of State and may be subject to such conditions (including conditions as to the costs) as may be agreed.

(3) In paragraph (1) above, “relevant function” means any function which has been exercisable by the Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce, established by section 6(1) of the European Communities Act 1972, but which has ceased to be so exercisable at any time before the coming into force of these Regulations.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce, established by section 6(1) of the European Communities Act 1972, is to be abolished by virtue of the Intervention Board for Agricultural Produce (Abolition) Regulations 2001 (S.I.2001/3686). Following abolition, its functions in relation to Scotland (so far as within devolved competence) are intended to be carried out on behalf of the Scottish Ministers by an executive agency of the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (DEFRA), to be known as the Rural Payments Agency.

These Regulations—

- (a) empower the Scottish Ministers to enter into agency arrangements with DEFRA for the exercise of those functions formerly carried out by the Board to be carried out by Rural Payments Agency on their behalf;
- (b) make amendments to secondary legislation, in relation to Scotland, which are consequential to the abolition of the Board; and
- (c) make transitional provisions to ensure continuity in the arrangements in place at present in connection with the functions transferred, insofar as they relate to those consequential provisions.
