

SCHEDULE 1

SUMMARY CAUSE RULES 2002

CHAPTER 19

Challenge of documents

Challenge of documents

19.1.—(1) If a party relies on a deed or other document to support his case, any other party may object to the deed or document without having to bring an action of reduction.

(2) If an objection is made, the sheriff may order the objector, if an action of reduction would otherwise have been competent, to find caution or to consign with the sheriff clerk a sum of money as security.
