

---

SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

2002 No. 260

The Marriage (Approval of Places) (Scotland) Regulations 2002

Temporary approvals

4.—(1) An applicant for a temporary approval shall deliver to the authority an application in writing to include—

- (a) the name and address of the applicant;
- (b) the date and time of the intended civil marriage; and
- (c) a description of the place where it is intended that the civil marriage be solemnised sufficient to identify that place and to allow the authority to inspect it and, in the case of a vessel or vehicle, a description of that vessel or vehicle and the location at which it may be inspected.

(2) If the authority so requires, a fee, or an amount on account of that fee, determined in accordance with regulation 13, must accompany the application.

(3) The applicant shall provide the authority with such additional information as the authority may reasonably require in order to determine the application.

(4) The authority may, if it considers it to be appropriate after receiving the application, arrange for the place to be inspected.