PART F DECISION

Please delete those sections (a) – (d) which are not applicable.

The decision of the Mental Welfare Commission is as follows:-

(a) to recall the personal welfare powers of the guardian(s) named at Part B in relation to the adult named at Part A.

The decision was made because either (i) or (ii) or both are applicable (delete as necessary)
(i) the grounds for appointment of the guardian with personal welfare powers named at Part B are no longer fulfilled
(ii) the interests of the adult named at Part A in his/her personal welfare can be satisfactorily safeguarded or promoted otherwise than by guardianship

(b) to refuse to recall the personal welfare powers at Part B of the guardian(s) of the adult at Part A.

The decision was made because either (i) or (ii) or both are applicable (delete as necessary)
(i) the grounds for appointment of a guardian with the personal welfare powers at Part B are still fulfilled
(ii) the interests of the adult at Part A in his/her personal welfare cannot be satisfactorily safeguarded or promoted otherwise than by guardianship

(c) to remit to the sheriff the decision on recall of the personal welfare powers of the guardian(s) named at Part B in relation to the adult named at Part A

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations prescribe the forms to be completed in relation to applications to, and decisions of, the Mental Welfare Commission and local authorities in relation to recall of the powers of guardians under section 73 of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000 (regulations 3 to 5, 7, 8, 10 and 11 and Schedules 1 to 9).

The regulations provide that the period within which a person may object to the recall of a guardian's powers, or to the decision of the Mental Welfare Commission or the local authority as to the recall of those powers, shall be 21 days (regulations 6 and 9).

Regulation 12 provides that the Mental Welfare Commission or a local authority shall notify each other, the applicant and the Public Guardian of any decision to recall the powers of a guardian.
