
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2003 No. 344

The National Health Service (Compensation for Premature Retirement) (Scotland) Regulations 2003

Partial surrender of annual allowance

7. Where, under regulation J1 of the Superannuation Scheme Regulations (allocation of part of pension), an entitled officer may surrender part of his or her pension in favour of the officer's spouse or any other dependant, that officer may surrender part of the annual allowance which is payable to him or to her under these Regulations, after any reduction under regulation 10, on the like terms and conditions, and in consideration of the like payments by the Scottish Ministers, as if the said annual allowance were a pension to which the entitled officer had become entitled under the Superannuation Regulations.