“working tax credit” means working tax credit under section (1)(b) of the Tax Credits Act 2002.

Entitlement to full remission and payment

3.—(1) Any person of a description prescribed by regulation 4 is entitled, in accordance with the following provisions of these Regulations, to the remission of the whole amount of any charges specified in paragraph (2) which would otherwise be payable by that person (“relevant charges”), and to payment, in accordance with regulation 6, of the whole amount of the travelling expenses including, where applicable, the whole amount of the overnight accommodation expenses, referred to in paragraphs (3), (4) and (5) (“relevant travelling expenses”).

(2) The specified charges for the purpose of paragraph (1) are—

- (a) charges for drugs, medicines, appliances and pharmaceutical services payable in pursuance of section 69(1) of the Act⁽¹⁷⁾; and
- (b) charges for dental appliances and dental treatment payable in pursuance of section 70(1A)⁽¹⁸⁾ or section 71(1)⁽¹⁹⁾ of the Act⁽²⁰⁾ or of section 20(1) of the National Health Service (Primary Care) Act 1997⁽²¹⁾.

(3) Paragraph (1) applies in the case of travelling expenses necessarily incurred or to be incurred by a person in attending a hospital for the purpose of availing that person of services provided under the care of a hospital consultant in pursuance of the Act, and includes the travelling expenses of a companion in a case where it is necessary on medical grounds for that person to be accompanied.

(4) Paragraph (1) applies in the case of overnight accommodation expenses necessarily incurred in obtaining such accommodation for the purpose of paragraph (3) by a person or a companion whose travelling expenses are payable by virtue of that paragraph.

(5) The travelling expenses, including as applicable overnight accommodation expenses, to be taken into account for the purposes of paragraphs (3) and (4) are to be the costs of travelling by the cheapest means of transport and of overnight accommodation in the cheapest facilities reasonably available.

Description of persons entitled to full remission and payment

4.—(1) Regulation 3(1) applies—

(a) in the case of the charges in regulation 3(2)(b)—

- (i) to any person who, either, at the time the arrangements for the treatment are made or at the time the relevant charges are made, is a person described in paragraph (2); and
- (ii) as respects the course of treatment to which the relevant charges relate; and ⁽¹⁵⁾ Section 22(2) was amended by section 44(3) of the 1990 Act.

⁽¹⁶⁾ 1992 c. 52.

⁽¹⁷⁾ For the applicable charges see S.S.I. 2001/430; amended by S.S.I. 2002/100 and 2003/130 and 295.

⁽¹⁸⁾ Section 70(1A) was inserted by the Health and Medicines Act 1988 (c. 49) (“the 1988 Act”), section 11(4).

⁽¹⁹⁾ Section 71(1) was amended by the 1988 Act, Schedule 3.

⁽²⁰⁾ For the applicable charges see S.I. 1988/464

⁽²¹⁾ 1997 c. 46.

- (b) in any other case to any person described in paragraph (2) who, at the time when the relevant charges are made or when the relevant travelling expenses are incurred, is a person described in paragraph (2).
- (2) The persons described are—
- (a) a person who is in receipt of income support;
 - (b) a person whose entitlement to income support is less than 10 pence;
 - (c) a member of the same family as a person who is in receipt of income support;
 - (d) a member of the same family as a person whose entitlement to income support is less than 10 pence;
 - (e) a person whose requirements equal or exceed his income resources and whose capital resources do not exceed the capital limit;
 - (f) a member of the same family as a person described in paragraph (e) of this regulation;
 - (g) a person who is in receipt of an income-based jobseeker's allowance;
 - (h) a member of the same family as a person who is in receipt of an income-based jobseeker's allowance;
 - (i) a person whose entitlement to an income-based jobseeker's allowance is less than 10 pence;
 - (j) a member of the same family as a person whose entitlement to an income based jobseeker's allowance is less than 10 pence;
 - (k) a person who lives permanently in accommodation provided by a local authority under the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968(22) and who has satisfied the authority that the person is unable to pay for that accommodation at the standard rate or, as the case may be, the full rate, and for the purposes of this paragraph a person lives permanently in that accommodation if it is the person's principal place of abode;
 - (l) an asylum-seeker for whom support is provided under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999;
 - (m) a member of the same family as a person described in paragraph (l) of this regulation; or
 - (n) a person who is a member of a family—
 - (i) one member of which, on the date entitlement is determined, is receiving—
 - (aa) working tax credit and child tax credit;
 - (bb) working tax credit which includes a disability element; or
 - (cc) child tax credit, but is not eligible for working tax credit; and
 - (ii) where the relevant income of the member or members to whom the tax credit is made under section 14 of the Tax Credits Act 2002 is determined at the time of the award not to exceed £14,200.

Persons entitled to remission in part or payment in part

5.—(1) A person who is not of a description prescribed by regulation 4 and whose capital resources do not exceed the capital limit is entitled, in accordance with the following provisions of these Regulations, to the remission of part of any relevant charges or, as the case may be, payment, in accordance with regulation 6, of part of any relevant travelling expenses if at the time when the relevant charges are made or when the travelling expenses are incurred the person is—

- (a) a person whose income resources exceed the person's requirements by less than a third of the relevant charges or, as the case may be, by less than the relevant travelling expenses; or
- (b) a member of the same family as a person described in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph.

(2) This regulation applies only in respect of charges for wigs, fabric supports and surgical brassieres payable in pursuance of section 69(1) of the Act (supplied otherwise than under Part II of the Act), charges for dental appliances and dental treatment payable in pursuance of section 70(1A) or section 71(1) of the Act or of section 20(1) of the National Health Service (Primary Care) Act 1997, and any relevant travelling expenses.

(3) The amount of any relevant charges which a person is entitled by paragraph (1) to have remitted is the difference between the relevant charges and 3 times the amount by which the person's income resources exceed the person's requirements.

(4) The amount of the relevant charges for the purposes of paragraph (3) are in the case of—

- (a) a charge under section 69(1) of the Act for the supply of an appliance, the charge made for that appliance;
- (b) a charge—
 - (i) for dental treatment or for the supply of a dental appliance under Part II of the Act; or
 - (ii) for dental treatment under Part I of the National Health Service (Primary Care) Act 1997, the charge made for one course of treatment, including any charge made for a dental appliance supplied in that course of treatment; or

- (c) in the case of a charge for the supply of a dental appliance supplied otherwise than under Part II of the Act or under Part I of the National Health Service (Primary Care) Act 1997, the charge made for that appliance.

(5) Subject to regulation 7, the amount of the relevant travelling expenses which a person is entitled by paragraph (1) to be paid is the difference between the relevant travelling expenses incurred in any week and the amount by which the person's income resources exceed the person's requirements.

Payment of travelling expenses

6. Where a payment falls to be made under regulations 3(1) or 5(1) in respect of relevant travelling expenses, that payment shall be made—

- (a) in a case where the travelling expenses are incurred or to be incurred by a person in attending a hospital which is vested in an NHS trust, by that NHS trust; or
- (b) in any other case, by the Health Board.

Payment to persons resident in the Highlands and Islands

7.—(1) A person of the description prescribed in paragraph (3) who is not a person of a description prescribed by regulation 4 is entitled to payment of travelling expenses incurred or to be incurred in making a journey between the person's normal place of residence in the Highlands and Islands and a hospital in the United Kingdom for the purpose of availing the person of services provided under the care of a hospital consultant in pursuance of the Act, provided that—

- (a) the distance travelled from the person's home (or place of residence while working) to the hospital must be 30 miles or more, or involve a journey by sea of more than 5 miles; and
- (b) the travelling expenses are more than £8, and the person makes a contribution of £8 towards the travelling expenses.

(2) The travelling expenses referred to in paragraph (1) include—

- (a) those of the return journey; and
 - (b) those of a companion in a case where it is necessary on medical grounds that the person referred to in paragraph (1) should be accompanied.
- (3) Paragraph (1) applies to a person who, at the time when the travelling expenses referred to in paragraph (1) are incurred, is normally resident or working on a long-term basis in the area comprising—
- (a) the local government areas of Highland, Western Isles, Orkney Islands and Shetland Islands;
 - (b) that part of the local government area of Argyll and Bute which is the area of the former Argyll and Bute District Council and the islands of Arran, Great Cumbrae and Little Cumbrae; and
 - (c) in the local government area of Moray, the areas of the former parishes of Aberlour, Cabrach, Dallas, Dyke, Edinkillie, Forres, Inveravon, Kinloss, Kirkmichael, Knockando, Mortlach, Rafford and Rothes.
- (4) Where a payment falls to be made under paragraph (1) in respect of travelling expenses, that payment shall be made—
- (a) in a case where the travelling expenses are incurred or to be incurred by a person in attending a hospital which is vested in an NHS trust, by that NHS trust; or
 - (b) in any other case, by the Health Board.

Calculation of resources and requirements

8.—(1) Where it is necessary that the resources or requirements of a person, or the relationship between them, should be calculated for the purposes of these Regulations, they shall be calculated by the Scottish Ministers according to the provisions of this regulation and Schedule 1.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the resources and requirements of a person shall be calculated in the case of a claim made under—

- (a) regulation 9(1), by reference to the person's resources or requirements at the date of claim; or
- (b) regulation 11(2), by reference to the person's resources or requirements at the date when the relevant charges or relevant travelling expenses are paid in full, and in each case in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations in force at that date.

(3) Unless any provision referred to in Schedule 1 specifies to the contrary, where a claimant is a member of a family—

- (a) the resources of the other members of the claimant's family shall be calculated or estimated in the same manner as those of the claimant and shall be taken into account as if they were the claimant's resources; and
- (b) in calculating the claimant's requirements, the requirements of the other members of the claimant's family shall be taken into account according to the provisions of Schedule 1.

(4) In a case to which paragraph (3) applies, unless the context otherwise requires, any reference to a "claimant" in Schedule 1 or in the provisions referred to in that Schedule shall be construed as including the other members of the claimant's family.

(5) In a case where the earnings of any person are to be calculated for the purpose of this regulation and those earnings have been affected by a trade dispute, the earnings to be taken into account shall be the earnings which that person would have received if there had been no trade dispute.

Claims for remission or payment

9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a person who falls within sub-paragraph (a) or (b) below and who wishes to claim their entitlement under regulations 3(1) or 5(1) shall, if the person comes—

- (a) within a description prescribed by regulation 4(2)(b), (d), (i) or (n), make a claim to the Scottish Ministers in writing; or
- (b) within a description prescribed by regulation 4(2)(e), (f) or (k), or 5(1), make a claim to the Scottish Ministers on a form provided by or on behalf of the Scottish Ministers for that purpose, and shall send or deliver that claim in writing or, as the case may be, that form, to the Scottish Ministers or to an office receiving and processing such claims on their behalf.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), where a person is unable for the time being to act, a claim may be made on that person's behalf by another person.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may refuse to accept a claim made by one person on behalf of another where, in the Scottish Minister's opinion—

- (a) the person on whose behalf the claim is made is able to act; or
- (b) the person making the claim is not a suitable person to act on behalf of that other person.

(4) A claimant shall produce in support of a claim such evidence as the Scottish Ministers may reasonably require.

(5) The Scottish Ministers may treat any claim under paragraph (1) as a claim to entitlement in respect of all the relevant charges and relevant travelling expenses and shall calculate the resources and requirements of the claimant according to the provisions of regulation 8 and Schedule 1.

(6) If the Scottish Ministers determine that the claimant and any member of the claimant's family are entitled to any remission of the relevant charges or any payment of the relevant travelling expenses, the Scottish Ministers shall issue a notice of entitlement to the claimant which shall be effective in respect of the claimant and any member of the claimant's family for the purposes of any remission of those charges, and any payment of those travelling expenses, to which they are entitled.

(7) A notice of entitlement issued under paragraph (6) shall indicate whether the claimant and any member of the claimant's family are entitled to full or partial remission or payment and, in the case of partial remission or payment, shall specify the amount of any relevant charges or relevant travelling expenses for which there is no entitlement to remission or payment.

(8) Subject to paragraphs (9) and (11), a notice of entitlement issued under paragraph (6) shall be effective for a period of 6 months from the date of claim and shall specify the dates of commencement and expiry of that period.

(9) Subject to paragraph (11), where a claimant or the claimant's partner is a person of a description specified in column (1) of Schedule 2 and the date of claim falls within any period specified in column (1), the notice of entitlement issued under paragraph (6) to that claimant shall be effective for the period specified in column (2) of that Schedule opposite the description in column (1) of that claimant or the claimant's partner.

(10) Subject to paragraph (11), any change in the financial or other circumstances of a claimant, or of any member of the claimant's family, during the period for which a notice of entitlement has been issued shall not affect the validity of the notice of entitlement in respect of that period or, in the case of partial remission or payment, the amounts referred to in paragraph (7).

(11) A claimant who is issued with a notice of entitlement in a case of partial remission may make a further claim in accordance with paragraph (1) at any time during the period for which the notice of entitlement has been issued, if the claimant considers that by reason of a change in the claimant's financial circumstances or those of any member of the claimant's family the amount referred to in paragraph (7) should be reduced.

Notices of entitlement

10.—(1) Where a person is entitled to full remission and payment because the person is a member of a family described in regulation 4(2)(n), the Scottish Ministers shall issue a notice of entitlement to that family.

(2) Such a notice of entitlement shall apply to—

- (a) any family member who is named on the notice of entitlement; and
- (b) all other members of such a person's family.

(3) A notice of entitlement issued under paragraph (1) shall be effective—

- (a) from such date; and
- (b) for such period,

as the Scottish Ministers may determine.

(4) Any change in the financial or other circumstances of a person who is a member of a family in respect of which a notice of entitlement has been issued under paragraph (1), during the period for which the notice of entitlement has been issued, shall not affect the validity of the notice of entitlement in respect of that period.

Repayment

11.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of these Regulations, a person of a description prescribed by regulations 4 or 5(1) who pays any relevant charges or relevant travelling expenses without exercising the person's right under regulations 3(1) or 5(1) to remission or payment is entitled to be repaid whatever amount would otherwise have been remitted or paid.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), it is a condition of the entitlement to repayment under paragraph (1) of a person of any description that the person makes a claim to the Scottish Ministers for repayment within three months after payment of the relevant charges or relevant travelling expenses (or within such further period as the Scottish Ministers may for good cause allow) and that the person makes that claim on a form provided by or on behalf of the Scottish Ministers for that purpose for persons of that description.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), where a person is unable for the time being to act, a claim may be made on behalf of that person by another person.

(4) The Scottish Ministers may refuse to accept a claim made by one person on behalf of another where, in the Scottish Ministers' opinion—

- (a) the person on whose behalf the claim is made is able to act; or
- (b) the person making the claim is not a suitable person to act on behalf of that other person.

(5) It is a further condition of entitlement to repayment under paragraph (1) that the claimant produces in support of the claim such evidence as the Scottish Ministers may reasonably require.

(6) Where the Scottish Ministers are satisfied that a claimant is entitled to any repayment under paragraph (1) they shall—

- (a) in the case of a repayment to be made in respect of—
 - (i) a relevant charges made by an NHS trust or a Health Board, other than a charge for drugs or for appliances mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a), (c) or (d) of regulation 5(1) of the National Health Service (Charges for Drugs and Appliances) (Scotland) Regulations 2001(23); and
 - (ii) relevant travelling expenses incurred by a person in attending a hospital managed by an NHS trust or a Health Board, authorise in writing the repayment of the amount in question to the claimant by the NHS trust or the Health Board; or

- (b) in any other case, cause a repayment to be made to the claimant in such manner as appears to the Scottish Ministers to be appropriate in the circumstances of the particular case.

(7) On receipt of an authorisation given under paragraph (6)(a) the NHS trust or the Health Board shall pay the amount in question to the claimant.

Reimbursement of payments made in respect of relevant travelling expenses

12.—(1) Where a Health Board or an NHS trust (“the provider”) makes a payment under regulation 3(1) or 5(1), or a repayment under regulation 8(6)(b) or (7), in respect of relevant travelling expenses incurred or to be incurred by a person who is receiving services from the provider under the terms of an NHS contract the amount of the payment or repayment in question shall be reimbursed to the provider by the Health Board which has responsibility for the health care of that person.

(2) In this regulation the expression “Health Board which has responsibility for the health care of that person” has the meaning indicated by article 2 of the Functions of Health Boards (Scotland) Order 1991(24).

Transitional provisions

13. Where, before the date of coming into force of these Regulations—

- (a) a person had claimed for the remission, in whole or in part, of any relevant charges or the payment, in whole or in part, of any relevant travelling expenses under the National Health Service (Travelling Expenses and Remission of Charges) (Scotland) Regulations 1988(25) (“the 1988 Regulations”) and the claim has not been determined, the claim shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the 1988 Regulations as though they and the other instruments revoked by these Regulations, remained in force;
- (b) a person was entitled to but had not made such a claim under the 1988 Regulations, that person may make a claim, and the claim shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations provided that does not cause that person any financial detriment compared to the position he would have been in had his claim been determined in accordance with the provisions of the 1988 Regulations, and if it does cause such financial detriment his claim will be determined in accordance with the provisions of the 1988 Regulations as though they and the other instruments revoked by these Regulations, remained in force; and
- (c) a person has been issued with any document which gives an entitlement to such a remission under the 1988 Regulations in respect of a period or course of treatment which period or course of treatment continues after that date, the document shall continue to be effective in respect such a remission or payment for the said period or course of treatment in accordance with the provisions of the 1988 Regulations as though they and the other instruments revoked by these Regulations, remained in force.

Revocations

14. The Regulations specified in Schedule 3 are revoked.

SCHEDULE 1

Regulation 8

PART I

CALCULATION OF RESOURCES

1. A claimant's resources shall be calculated in terms of income and capital and shall be calculated as follows:—
 - (a) income shall be calculated on a weekly basis according to the method of calculating or estimating income as prescribed by the provisions of Part V of, and Schedules 8 and 9 to, the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987⁽²⁶⁾ subject to the modifications referred to in paragraph 2; and
 - (b) capital shall be calculated according to the method of calculating or estimating capital as prescribed by the provisions of Chapter VI in Part V of, and Schedule 10 to, the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 subject to the modifications referred to in paragraph 2.
2. The provisions of the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 shall be applied as follows:—
 - (a) as respects the provisions specified in column 1 of Table A in this Schedule, in accordance with the modifications specified in the corresponding entries in column 2;
 - (b) as if—
 - (i) references to income support were to the remission of any relevant charges and the payment of any relevant travelling expenses,
 - (ii) references to an adjudication officer were to the Scottish Ministers, and
 - (iii) references in any of those provisions to any other of those provisions were to that other provision as modified in accordance with this paragraph;
 - (c) according to the provisions of regulation 2 of those Regulations (interpretation) but as if there were inserted after the definition of “relative”—

““relevant date” means—

 - (a) in the case of a claim made under regulation 9(1) of the National Health Service (Travelling Expenses and Remission of Charges) (Scotland) Regulations 2003, the date of claim; and
 - (b) in the case of a claim made under regulation 11(2) of those Regulations, the date when the claimant paid the relevant charge or travelling expenses”;
 - (d) as if the Social Security (Income Support and Claims and Payments) Amendment Regulations 1995⁽²⁷⁾ and the Income Support (General) Amendment and Transitional Regulations 1995⁽²⁸⁾ had not been made.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations provide in respect of persons specified in the regulations, for the remission or repayment of the whole or part of certain charges which would otherwise be payable by those persons under the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 (“the Act”) and the National Health Service (Primary Care) Act 1997 (“the 1997 Act”). They also provide in respect of persons specified in the regulations, for the payment, as set out, of certain travelling expenses, including those of the person’s companion, and certain costs of overnight accommodation for the person and their companion.

Regulation 3 provides for full remission of charges for drugs, medicines, appliances and pharmaceutical services in pursuance of section 69(1) of the Act, charges for dental appliances and dental treatment in pursuance of section 70(1A) or section 71(1) of the Act or of section 20(1) of the 1997 Act and the payment of the travelling expenses, to persons qualifying under regulation 4.

Regulation 4 describes the various qualifications which entitle persons to remission of charges and/or payment of travelling expenses.

Regulation 5 provides for the partial remission of charges for wigs, fabric supports and surgical brassieres in pursuance of section 69(1) of the Act, charges for dental appliances and dental treatment in pursuance of section 70(1A) or section 71(1) of the Act or of section 20(1) of the 1997 Act and relevant travelling expenses, to persons who meet the relevant criteria.

Regulation 6 provides for when payment is to be made by either an NHS trust or a Health Board.

Regulation 7 provides for the payment of expenses to persons living or working in specific parts of Scotland who attend hospitals in the United Kingdom and who do not otherwise qualify under regulation 4.

Regulation 8 provides the method of calculation of the resources or requirements of a person who makes a claim for full or partial remission of charges or payment of travelling expenses.

Regulation 9 provides the procedure for processing claims for remission or payment by the Scottish Ministers and for the issue of a notice of entitlement to a person.

Regulation 10 provides for the issue by the Scottish Ministers of a notice of entitlement to a person, and to the family members of that person where they are entitled to full remission and payment in terms of regulation 4(2)(n).

Regulation 11 provides for the repayment of relevant charges or travelling expenses to persons entitled to remission or payment who had paid the relevant charges or incurred the travelling expenses.

Regulation 12 provides for the reimbursement of payments or repayments made under a Health Board or NHS Trust which is providing treatment under an NHS Contract by the Health Board responsible for the healthcare of the person receiving treatment.

Regulation 13 makes transitional provisions relating to applications and remissions under previous Regulations.

Regulation 14 gives effect to the revocation of the Regulations as listed in Schedule 3.

Schedule 1 sets out in detail the method of calculation of the income and capital of claimants.

Schedule 2 sets out the period of validity of notices of entitlement under regulation 9(11).
