

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE

CLASSES OF FIREPLACE WHICH ARE EXEMPT

2. No fuel shall be used other than wood pellets or wood chips, but excluding any such wood which contains halogenated organic compounds or heavy metals as a result of treatment with wood-preservatives or coatings and, in particular, wood waste originating from construction and demolition waste.
