EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note does not form part of the Order)

This Order prohibits, subject to certain exceptions, all methods of fishing within certain areas of the Firth of Clyde. The Order is made pursuant to Article 46 of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 850/98 of 30th March 1998 for the conservation of fishery resources through technical measures for the protection of juveniles of marine organisms (O.J. No. L 125, 27.4.98, p.1). A map showing the areas closed to fishing under this Order is appended to this note for illustrative purposes only. The Order remains in force until 0000 hours on 30th April 2005 (article 1(2)).

Area 1 on the illustrative map is defined in article 3(1)(a).

Area 2 on the illustrative map is defined in article 3(1)(b).

The prohibition does not apply to vessels fishing within the closed areas exclusively with scallop dredges, creels and trawls used for fishing for Norway lobsters (articles 3(2) and (3)).

The Order gives British sea-fishery officers powers to enforce the Order, including power to detain a vessel in port (article 4).

It is an offence under section 5(1) of the Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967 to use a fishing boat in contravention of a prohibition imposed by this Order. The penalties are fixed by section 11 of that Act. On summary conviction the penalty is a fine not exceeding £50,000. On conviction on indictment the penalty is an unlimited fine. In either case the court may also order forfeiture of any fish in respect of which the offence was committed and of any net or gear used in committing the offence. On summary conviction, if the court does not order the forfeiture of fish, it may impose an additional fine not exceeding the value of the fish.

The Order revokes the Sea Fish (Prohibited Methods of Fishing) (Firth of Clyde) Order 2004.
