14.—(1) This regulation has effect as respects tenancies ending after 31st March 2005.

(2) Where—

- (a) a tenant of any land in a holding has quota registered as available to that tenant;
- (b) the quota is so registered by virtue of a transfer referred to in regulation 13 the cost of which was not borne by the landlord of the tenant;
- (c) the tenancy of the land in question expires without any possibility of renewal on similar terms;
- (d) the tenant and the landlord of the tenant have not agreed that, after the expiry of the tenancy, the quota should no longer be available to the tenant; and
- (e) the tenant continues to be a producer after the expiry of the tenancy in relation to—
 - (i) another holding; or
 - (ii) another part of the holding of which the land formed part,
 the tenant may submit a notice to the Scottish Ministers that the quota is to be available to the tenant by virtue of the occupation by the tenant of that other holding or that other part of the holding of which the land formed part.

 - (ii) that the tenant continues to be a producer.

(4) Where a tenant submits a notice pursuant to this regulation, the tenant shall not be entitled to receive compensation under paragraph 2 of Schedule 2 to the Agriculture Act 1986⁽¹⁾ on the termination of the tenancy in question.

Temporary transfer of quota

15.—(1) Subject to regulation 16(2), for the purposes of Article 16 of the Council Regulation (which concerns the temporary transfer of quota), a producer may agree with another producer to make a temporary transfer to that other producer of any unused quota which is registered under regulation 4 as permanently held by the producer if other quota (whether or not unused) remains so registered.

(2) Quota may only be temporarily transferred pursuant to paragraph (1) for such period as shall end on the 31st March in the quota year in which the transfer takes place.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may require a reasonable charge to be paid for the registration of any temporary transfer of quota if before the quota year in which the transfer takes place they have announced that they intend to make such a charge in respect of such transfers in that year in such a manner as they consider likely to come to the attention of producers.

(1) 1986 c. 49 as amended by the Agricultural Holdings (Consequential Amendments) (Scotland) Order 2003/583, Schedule 1, paragraph 9.

(4) Where there is an agreement to make a temporary transfer pursuant to paragraph (1), the transferee shall submit to the Scottish Ministers notice of the agreement, together with any charge payable under paragraph (3), so that the notice and any charge reach the Scottish Ministers no later than 31st March in the quota year in which the transfer takes place.

(5) A notice referred to in paragraph (4) shall be in such form as the Scottish Ministers may reasonably require.

Restrictions on transfer of quota

16.—(1) No person may transfer quota on the grant or termination of—

- (a) a licence to occupy land; or
- (b) a tenancy of any land under which a holding, or part of a holding, is occupied for a period of less than eight months.

(3) No person may transfer quota that is necessary to cover—

- (a) deliveries, after an adjustment for fat content; and
- (b) direct sales,

made by that person before the date of the transfer.

Consequences of failure duly to submit a transfer notice

17.—(1) This regulation applies if a notice of transfer is not duly submitted in accordance with regulation 9 or 13.

(2) Any unused quota transferred shall not be treated as a part of the quota entitlement of the transferee for the relevant quota year, but shall be treated as if it remained unused quota and available where appropriate for reallocation by the Scottish Ministers in that quota year in accordance with regulation 27 or 30.

(3) The transfer of quota shall have effect only from the beginning of the quota year in which the notice of transfer is received by the Scottish Ministers.

(4) The amount of quota, if any, which has been reallocated to the transferee under regulation 27 or 30 for the relevant quota year (or any subsequent years) shall not be varied to take the transfer into account until the quota year in which the transfer notice is received.

(5) In this regulation “relevant quota year” means—

- (a) in the case of a notice that should have been submitted in accordance with regulation 9, the quota year in which the transfer of the holding or the part of the holding takes effect; and
