GENERAL INFORMATION

1. OVERRIDING INTEREST

A registered interest in land is in terms of sections 3(1) of the Land Registration (Scotland) Act 1979 subject to overriding interests defined in section 28 of that Act (hereinafter referred to as "the 1979 Act") as amended by the Matrimonial Homes (Family Protection) (Scotland) Act 1981, the Telecommunications Act 1984, the Electricity Act 1989, the Coal Industry Act 1994, the Title Conditions (Scotland) Act 2003 and the Civil Partnership (Consequential Amendments) (Scotland) Order 2005 as:

In relation to any interest in land, the right or interest over it of

(a) the lessee under a lease which is not a long lease;

(b) the lessee under a long lease who, prior to the commencement of the 1979 Act, has acquired a real right to the subjects of the lease by virtue of possession of them;

(c) a crofter or cottar within the meaning of sections 3 or 28(4) respectively of the Crofters (Scotland) Act 1955, or a landholder or statutory small tenant within the meaning of section 2(2) or 32(1) respectively of the Small Landholders (Scotland) Act 1911;

(d) the proprietor of the dominant tenement in any servitude which was not created by registration in accordance with section 75(1) of the Title Conditions (Scotland) Act 2003.

(e) the Crown or any Government or other public department, or any public or local authority, under any enactment or rule of law, other than an enactment or rule of law authorising or requiring the recording of a deed in the Register of Sasines or registration in order to complete the right of interest;

(ee) the operator having a right conferred in accordance with paragraph 2, 3 or 5 of schedule 2 to the Telecommunications Act 1984 (agreements for execution of works, obstruction of access, etc.);

(ef) a licence holder within the meaning of Part 1 of the Electricity Act 1989 having such a wayleave as is mentioned in paragraph 6 of Schedule 4 to that Act (wayleaves for electric lines), whether granted under that paragraph or by agreement between the parties;

(eg) a licence holder within the meaning of Part 1 of the Electricity Act 1989 who is authorised by virtue of paragraph 1 of Schedule 5 to that Act to abstract, divert and use water for a generating station wholly or mainly driven by water;

(eh) insofar as it is an interest vesting by virtue of section 7(3) of the Coal Industry Act 1994, the Coal Authority;

(f) the holder of a floating charge whether or not the charge has attached to the interest;

(g) a member of the public in respect of any public right of way or in respect of any right held inalienably by the Crown in trust for the public;

(gg) the non-entitled spouse within the meaning of section 6 of the Matrimonial Homes (Family Protection)(Scotland) Act 1981;

(gh) The non-entitled civil partner within the meaning of section 106 of the Civil Partnership Act 2004;

(h) any person, being a right which has been made real, otherwise than by the recording of a deed in the Register of Sasines or by registration; or

(i) any other person under any rule of law relating to common interest or joint or common property, not being a right or interest constituting a real right, burden or condition entered in the title sheet of the interest in land under section 6(1)(e) of the 1979 Act or having effect by virtue of a deed recorded in the Register of Sasines, but does not include any subsisting burden or condition enforceable against the interest in land and entered in its title sheet under section 6 (1) of the 1979 Act.

2. THE USE OF ARROWS ON TITLE PLANS

(a) Where a deed states the line of a boundary in relation to a physical object, e.g. the centre line, that line is indicated on the Title Plan, either by means of a black arrow or verbally.

(b) An arrow across the object indicates that the boundary is stated to be the centre line.

(c) An arrow pointing to the object indicates that the boundary is stated to be the face of the object to which the arrow points.

(d) The physical object presently shown on the Plan may not be the one referred to in the deed. Indemnity is therefore excluded in respect of information as to the line of the boundary.

3. Lineal measurements shown in figures on title plans are subject to the qualification "or thereby". Indemnity is excluded in respect of such measurements.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules consolidate the Land Registration (Scotland) Rules 1980 (“the 1980 Rules”) subject to amendment in order to enable the modernisation of practice and procedure particularly with regard to the use of electronic communications.

Part II of the Rules provides for the content of the title sheet and each section within that, namely the Property Section, Proprietorship Section, Charges Section and Burdens Section. Rule 5(j)(ii) is a new provision requiring the Keeper to enter a statement regarding occupancy rights that may exist by virtue of the Civil Partnership Act 2004.

Part III of the Rules provides for registration of interests in land and noting of overriding interests and the entry of additional information. Rule 10 and Schedule 2 are new provisions for registration using the electronic automated registration of title to land (ARTL) system being introduced by the Keeper.

Part IV of the Rules provides for the form of land certificates or charge certificates issued by the Keeper.

Part V of the Rules contains miscellaneous provisions including rule 24 revoking the 1980 Rules and amendments.

Rule 16 of the 1980 Rules provided for an application for a Land or Charge Certificate to correspond with the title sheet. Such applications are no longer considered necessary as the title sheet itself is the true measure of the rights and interests of a proprietor and authenticated copies of the title sheet can readily be obtained. Form 8 has therefore not been retained. The remaining forms have not been renumbered due to the familiarity of practitioners with the existing forms and their numbers. Similarly rules 17 (amendment or cancellation of Certificate of Title by Keeper), 18 (circumstances where Certificate of Title need not be produced to Keeper) and 19 (issue by Keeper of Substitute Certificate of Title) of the 1980 Rules have not been reproduced.
