The Sea Fishing (Enforcement of Community Quota and Third Country Fishing Measures) (Scotland) Order 2007

Citation, commencement and extent

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Sea Fishing (Enforcement of Community Quota and Third Country Fishing Measures) (Scotland) Order 2007 and shall come into force on 23rd March 2007.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), this Order extends to Scotland and the Scottish zone only.

(3) Insofar as it extends beyond Scotland and the Scottish zone, it does so only as a matter of Scots law.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In this Order—

“authorised officer” means a person authorised by the Scottish Ministers for the purpose of article 4(1);

“Community fishing boat” means a fishing boat flying the flag of and registered in a Member State of the European Community;

“Community quota measure” means a provision of the Council Regulation specified in column 1 of Schedule 1 as read with any qualifying words relating to the provision in that column, and in the case of Article 9 of the Council Regulation, with article 3 of this Order;

“Community third country fishing measure” means a provision of the Council Regulation specified in column 1 of Schedule 3;

“the Council Regulation” means Council Regulation (EC) No. 41/2007 of 21st December 2006⁽¹⁾ fixing for 2007 the fishing opportunities and associated conditions for certain fish stocks and groups of fish stocks, applicable in Community waters and, for Community vessels, in waters where catch limitations are required;

“Regulation 1434/98” means Council Regulation (EC) No. 1434/98 of 29th June 1998 specifying conditions under which herring may be landed for industrial purposes other than direct human consumption⁽²⁾;

“fishery product” includes fish;

“ICES” followed by a roman numeral with or without a letter shall be construed as a reference to whichever of the statistical sub-areas and divisions of the International Council for the Exploration of the Sea⁽³⁾ is identified therein by that roman numeral or that roman numeral and letter as the case may be;

“pelagic weighing system” means any system used to weigh herring, mackerel or horse mackerel for the purposes of paragraph 1 of Annex III to the Council Regulation;

⁽³⁾ Cmnd. 2586.

“Regulation 2847/93” means Council Regulation (EEC) No. 2847/93 of 12th October 1993 establishing a control system applicable to the common fisheries policy⁽⁴⁾;

“relevant offence” means an offence under—

- (a) article 3(3), or 4(5), (6) or (7), or 5(4), or 7(4), or 8(1), (2), (3) or (4), or 9(1), (2) or (3), or 10, or 11(1), (2) or (3); or
- (b) any provision extending to any other part of the United Kingdom made for the purposes of implementing a Community quota measure, a specified Community provision or a Community third country fishing measure, being a provision in respect of which, by virtue of section 30(2A) of the Fisheries Act 1981⁽⁵⁾, proceedings may be commenced in any place in the United Kingdom;

“Scotland” has the same meaning as in section 126(1) of the Scotland Act 1998⁽⁶⁾;

“Scottish fishing boat” means a fishing vessel which is registered in the register maintained under section 8 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1995⁽⁷⁾ and whose entry in the register specifies a port in Scotland as the port to which the vessel is to be treated as belonging;

“Scottish zone” has the same meaning as in section 126(1) of the Scotland Act 1998⁽⁸⁾;

“specified Community provision” means a provision of the Council Regulation or Regulation 1434/98 specified in column 1 of Schedule 2 as read with any qualifying words relating to the provision in that column; and “third country fishing boat” means a fishing boat flying the flag of and registered in a State other than a Member State.

(2) In this Order, any reference to a logbook, declaration or document includes, in addition to a logbook, declaration or document in writing any—

- (a) map, plan, graph or drawing;
- (b) photograph;
- (c) data, however reproduced, communicated via a satellite-based vessel monitoring system established under Article 3.1 of Regulation 2847/93;
- (d) disk, tape, sound track or other device on which sounds or other data (not being visual aids) are recorded so as to be capable (with or without the aid of some other equipment) of being reproduced therefrom; and
- (e) film (including microfilm), negative, tape, disk or other device on which one or more visual images are recorded so as to be capable (with or without the aid of some other equipment) of being reproduced therefrom.

(3) In this Order, any reference to a—

- (a) numbered article is a reference to the article so numbered in this Order;
- (b) numbered paragraph is a reference to the paragraph so numbered in the article in which it appears in this Order;
- (c) numbered Schedule is a reference to the Schedule to this Order so numbered; and

(4) O.J. No. L 261, 20.10.93, p.1 as amended by Council Regulation (EC) No. 2870/95, O.J. No. L 301, 14.12.95, p.1; Council Decision (EC) No. 95/524, O.J. No. L 289, 7.11.03, p.1; and Council Regulation (EC) No. 768/2005 O.J. No. L.128, 21.5.05, p.1.

(5) 1981 c. 29; section 30(2A) was inserted by S.I.1999/1820.

(7) 1995 c. 21.

(8) The sea within British fishery limits (that is, the limits set by or under section 1 of the Fishery Limits Act 1976 (c. 86)) which is adjacent to Scotland is determined by the Scottish Adjacent Waters Boundaries Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/1126).

(d) numbered Article or Annex is, except where otherwise indicated, a reference to the Article or Annex so numbered in the Council Regulation.

(4) Column 2 of Schedule 1 (which provides in relation to each Community quota measure an indication of the subject matter of the measure) shall not be read as limiting the scope of any Community quota measure and shall be disregarded in relation to any question arising as to the construction of this Order.

(5) Column 2 of Schedule 2 (which provides in relation to each specified Community provision an indication of the subject matter of the provision) shall not be read as limiting the scope of any specified Community provision and shall be disregarded in relation to any question arising as to the construction of this Order.

(6) Column 2 of Schedule 3 (which provides in relation to each Community third country fishing measure an indication of the subject matter of the measure) shall not be read as limiting the scope of any Community third country fishing measure and shall be disregarded in relation to any question arising as to the construction of this Order.

Landing of unsorted catches

3.—(1) This article applies for the purposes of Article 9.

(2) No catch that includes any unsorted fish may be landed at a harbour unless—

(a) the master of the fishing boat from which the catch is to be landed applies before landing to a British sea fishery officer at the harbour for a decision as to the suitability of the harbour for landing the catch; and

(b) having regard to the overall size and characteristics of the catch, the British sea fishery officer—

(i) decides that the sampling systems at the harbour are adequate for the purposes of monitoring effectively the landing of the catch having regard to the overall size and characteristics of the catch; and

(ii) notifies the master of that decision.

(3) The master, the owner and charterer (if any) of a fishing boat are each guilty of an offence if a catch that includes unsorted fish is landed from the fishing boat at a harbour before the master is notified of the decision of a British sea fishery officer at the harbour in question under paragraph (2)(b)(ii).

Approval of pelagic weighing systems

4.—(1) The Scottish Ministers may from time to time require authorised officers to—

(a) conduct any tests necessary to calibrate any pelagic weighing system;

(b) provide them with advice on the sealing of any pelagic weighing system which shall include advice on whether the system can be fixed or adjusted in a way which would cause the pelagic weighing system to provide an inaccurate weight reading and, if so, how the system may be fixed or adjusted; and

(c) provide them with a report relating to the suitability of any pelagic weighing system.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may approve for fisheries control purposes a pelagic weighing system in respect of which a report referred to in paragraph (1)(c) has been provided.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may decline to approve a pelagic weighing system where they have reasonable grounds for suspecting that the system may be fixed or adjusted in a way which would cause the pelagic weighing system to provide an inaccurate weight reading.

(4) The Scottish Ministers may—

- (a) determine conditions to which an approval given under paragraph (2) may be subject; and
- (b) at any time amend such conditions.

(5) Where there is a contravention of, or a failure to comply with, a condition of an approval determined under paragraph (4) the owner of the pelagic weighing system, the operator of the pelagic weighing system and the owner of the premises in which the pelagic weighing system is located shall each be guilty of an offence.

(6) Where any person interferes with a pelagic weighing system approved under paragraph (2) causing the pelagic weighing system to provide an inaccurate weight reading that person shall be guilty of an offence.

(7) Any person who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with the request of an authorised officer exercising functions under paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Weighing procedures for herring, mackerel and horse mackerel

5.—(1) Subject to article 6, where a fishing boat lands in excess of 10 tonnes of herring, mackerel or horse mackerel or a combination thereof within Scotland, the buyer, the agent of the buyer or the holder of the fish shall weigh the fish landed in accordance with paragraph (2) or (3) prior to the fish being sorted, processed, held in cold storage, transported from the port of landing or resold.

(2) Fish referred to in paragraph (1) which are fresh shall be weighed using a pelagic weighing system which has been—

- (a) approved for fisheries control purposes by the Scottish Ministers under article 4(2); or
- (b) passed as fit for trade use in accordance with regulation 15 of the Weighing Equipment (Beltweighers) Regulations 2001⁽⁹⁾.

(3) Fish referred to in paragraph (1) which are frozen shall be weighed in accordance with paragraph 1.8.1 or 1.8.2, Part A of Annex III.

(4) Where a buyer, agent of a buyer or a holder of the fish fails to comply with paragraph (1) or (2) or (3) that person is guilty of an offence.

Transport of fresh fish before weighing

6.—(1) Fish referred to in article 5(1) which are fresh may be weighed in accordance with article 5 after being transported from the port of landing to a place of weighing which is within Scotland and not more than 100 km from the port of landing provided one of the conditions in paragraph (2) is met.

(2) The conditions are—

- (a) the vehicle in which the fish are transported is accompanied by a British sea fishery officer from the port of landing to the place where the fish are weighed; or
- (b) the fish are being transported in accordance with an approval issued under article 7.

Approval to transport fresh fish before weighing

7.—(1) The buyer, the agent of the buyer or the holder of fish referred to in article 5(1) which are fresh may apply to a British sea fishery officer at the port of landing for approval to transport the fish before weighing in accordance with article 5.

(2) Any approval issued by a British sea fishery officer under paragraph (1) shall be subject to the conditions in paragraph (3).

(3) The conditions are—

(9) S.I. 2001/1208.

- (a) immediately prior to the vehicle in which the fish are being transported leaving the port of landing, the buyer or agent of the buyer or the holder of the fish shall provide to a British sea fishery officer at the port of landing a declaration which shall be in writing and dated and signed by the buyer or agent stating the—
 - (i) species of the fish;
 - (ii) name of the vessel from which the fish were landed;
 - (iii) identity number of the vehicle in which the fish are to be transported;
 - (iv) place where the fish are to be weighed; and
 - (v) estimated time of arrival of the vehicle at the place where the fish are to be weighed; and
 - (b) a copy of the declaration under sub-paragraph (a) shall be retained by the driver of the vehicle during transport of the fish and given to the receiver of the fish at the place where the fish are to be weighed.
- (4) Where a person to whom an approval has been granted under paragraph (1) fails to comply with any of the conditions in paragraph (3), that person is guilty of an offence.

Vessels engaged in illegal, unreported and unregulated fisheries in the North-East Atlantic

8.—(1) The master, owner and charterer (if any) of an IUU vessel or a vessel on the provisional list are each guilty of an offence if, in relation to the vessel in question, there is a contravention of, or failure to comply with that part of paragraph 1.1(a) of Annex XVII which prohibits landing or transshipping.

(2) The master, owner and charterer (if any) of a vessel (other than an IUU vessel or a vessel on the provisional list) referred to in paragraph 1.1(b) of Annex XVII are each guilty of an offence if, in relation to that vessel, there is a contravention of that paragraph.

(3) A person who contravenes paragraph 1.1(c) of Annex XVII is guilty of an offence.

(4) The master, owner and charterer (if any) of an IUU vessel are each guilty of an offence if, in relation to the vessel in question there is a contravention or failure to comply with paragraph 1.2(b) of Annex XVII.

(5) In this article—

- (a) “IUU vessel” means a vessel listed in Appendix 1 to Annex XVII;
- (b) a reference to Annex XVII is to Annex XVII as read with Article 81; and
- (c) “vessel on the provisional list” means a vessel on the provisional list referred to in paragraph 1.1 of Annex XVII.

Vessels engaged in illegal, unreported and unregulated fisheries in the Northwest Atlantic

9.—(1) The master, owner and charterer (if any) of an IUU vessel are each guilty of an offence if, in relation to the vessel in question, there is a contravention of, or failure to comply with paragraph 2.1(c), (d), (e) and (g) of Annex XVII.

(2) The master, owner and charterer (if any) of a vessel (other than an IUU vessel) referred to in paragraph 2.1(a) of Annex XVII are each guilty of an offence if, in relation to that vessel there is a contravention of that paragraph.

(3) A person who contravenes paragraph 2.1(b) of Annex XVII is guilty of an offence.

(4) in this article—

- (a) “IUU vessel” means a vessel listed in Appendix 2 to Annex XVII; and
- (b) a reference to Annex XVII is to Annex XVII as read with Article 81.

By catch quota – dog fish

10. The master, owner and charterer (if any) of a fishing boat are each guilty of an offence if spurdog/dogfish (squalus acanthias) comprise more than 5% by live weight of the catch retained on board in contravention of Annex IA.

Offences

11.—(1) Where there is, in respect of any—

- (a) Scottish fishing boat wherever it may be; or
- (b) Community fishing boat or third country fishing boat within the Scottish zone, a contravention of, or failure to comply with, any Community quota measure, the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) shall each be guilty of an offence.

(2) Where there is in respect of—

- (a) a Scottish fishing boat wherever it may be; or
- (b) any Community fishing boat or third country fishing boat within the Scottish zone, a contravention of, or failure to comply with any specified Community provision, the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) shall each be guilty of an offence.

(3) Where there is, in respect of any third country fishing boat within the Scottish zone, a contravention of, or failure to comply with, any Community third country fishing measure, the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) shall each be guilty of an offence.

(4) Nothing in this Order shall be taken to constitute an offence to land, from a Scottish fishing boat, an unsorted catch at a harbour outwith Scotland where sampling programmes mentioned in paragraph 1 of Article 9 are in place.

Penalties

12.—(1) A person guilty of an offence under article 3(3), or 4(5), (6) or (7), or 5(4), or 7(4), or 8(1), (2), (3) or (4), or 9(1), (2) or (3), or 10 or under any equivalent provision extending to any other part of the United Kingdom, proceedings in respect of which were brought in Scotland by virtue of section 30(2A) of the Fisheries Act 1981, shall be liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding £50,000; and
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under article 11(1), (2) or (3), or under any equivalent provision extending to any other part of the United Kingdom, proceedings in respect of which were brought in Scotland by virtue of section 30(2A) of the Fisheries Act 1981, shall be liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the amount specified in column 3 of the Schedules to this Order in relation to the Community quota measure, specified Community provision or Community third country fishing measure, the contravention of, or failure to comply with, which founded the offence; and
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under article 5(4) or 11(1), (2) or (3) shall also be liable to the forfeiture of any fish in respect of which the offence was committed, or, on summary conviction only, to a fine not exceeding the value of any fish in respect of which the offence was committed.

(4) A person guilty of an offence under article 11(1), (2) or (3) shall also be liable to the forfeiture of any net or other fishing gear in respect of which the offence was committed, or which was used in committing the offence, or which was used for catching any fish in respect of which the offence was committed.

Recovery of fines

13.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 221 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995⁽¹⁰⁾, where a court has imposed a fine on any person in respect of a relevant offence or an offence under article 18, that court may for the purposes of recovering the fine—

- (a) order any boat involved in the commission of the offence and its gear and catch to be detained for a period not exceeding 3 months from the date—
 - (i) of the conviction or until the fine is paid;
 - (ii) the order is renewed for a further period (not exceeding 3 months); or
 - (iii) on which a warrant is issued under sub paragraph (b),whichever first occurs; or
- (b) subject to paragraph (2), at any time after the imposition of the fine, issue a warrant for the arrestment and sale of any such boat, its gear and catch.

(2) The court shall not issue a warrant under paragraph (1)(b) without first affording the owner of the boat, gear or catch liable to be included in the warrant an opportunity to be heard on the issue of such warrant.

(3) A warrant issued under paragraph (1)(b), whatever the amount of the fine imposed, may be executed in the same manner as if the proceedings were on an extract decree of the sheriff in a summary cause.

(4) Where in relation to a fine in respect of a relevant offence a transfer of fine order under section 222 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995, section 90 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980⁽¹¹⁾ or article 95 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981⁽¹²⁾ specifies a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland, this article shall apply as if the fine were a fine imposed by that court.

Powers of British sea-fishery officers in relation to fishing boats

14.—(1) For the purposes of enforcement of article 11(1) or (2), or any provision extending to any other part of the United Kingdom made for the purposes of implementing a Community quota measure or a specified Community provision, a British sea-fishery officer may exercise, in relation to any—

- (a) Scottish fishing boat wherever it may be; or
- (b) Community fishing boat within the Scottish zone, the powers conferred by paragraphs (3), (4) and (5).

(2) For the purposes of enforcement of article 11(2) or (3), or any provision extending to any other part of the United Kingdom made for the purposes of implementing a specified Community provision or a Community third country fishing measure, a British sea-fishery officer may exercise the powers conferred by paragraphs (3), (4) and (5) in relation to any third country fishing boat within the Scottish zone.

(3) A British sea fishery officer may go on board the boat, with or without persons assigned to assist in the duties of that officer, and may require the boat to stop and do anything else which will facilitate either the boarding of, or the disembarkation from, the boat.

(4) A British sea fishery officer may require the attendance of the master and other persons on board the boat and may make any examination and inquiry which appears to that officer to be necessary for the purposes of enforcement referred to in paragraph (1) or (2) and, in particular, may—

⁽¹²⁾ S.I. 1981/1675.

- (a) search for fishery products or fishing gear on the boat and may examine any such products on the boat and the equipment of the boat, including the fishing gear and require persons on board the boat to do anything which appears to that officer to be necessary for facilitating the examination;
- (b) require any person on board the boat to produce any document relating to the boat, to any fishing operations ancillary thereto or to the persons on board which is in the custody or possession of that person;
- (c) for the purpose of ascertaining whether a relevant offence has been committed, search the boat for any such document and may require any person on board the boat to do anything which appears to that officer to be necessary for facilitating the search;
- (d) inspect, take copies of and retain in the possession of that officer while any search, examination or inspection provided for under this article is being carried out, any such document produced to that officer or found on board;
- (e) require the master or any person for the time being in charge of the boat to render all such documents on a computer system into visible and legible form and to produce them in a form in which they may be taken away; and
- (f) where the boat is one in relation to which that officer has reason to suspect that a relevant offence has been committed, seize and detain any such document produced to that officer or found on board, for the purpose of enabling the document to be used as evidence in proceedings for the offence, but nothing in sub-paragraph (f) shall permit any document required by law to be carried on board the boat to be seized and detained except while the boat is detained in a port.

(5) Where it appears to a British sea-fishery officer that a relevant offence has at any time been committed the officer may—

- (a) require the master of the boat in relation to which the offence took place to take, or the officer may take, the boat and its crew to the port which appears to the officer to be the nearest convenient port; and
- (b) detain or require the master to detain the boat in the port, and where such an officer detains or requires the detention of a boat the officer shall serve notice in writing on the master stating that the boat will be or is required to be detained until the notice is withdrawn by the service on the master of a further notice in writing signed by a British sea fishery officer.

Powers of British sea-fishery officers on land

15.—(1) For the purpose of enforcing a relevant offence any British sea fishery officer may—

- (a) enter and inspect at any reasonable time any premises used for carrying on any business in connection with the operation of fishing boats or activities connected therewith or ancillary thereto or with the treatment, storage or sale of fishery products;
- (b) take with the officer such other persons as appear to the officer to be necessary and any equipment or materials;
- (c) examine any fishery product on the premises and require persons on the premises to do anything which appears to that officer to be necessary for facilitating the examination;
- (d) carry out at such premises such other inspections or tests as may reasonably be necessary;
- (e) require any person not to remove or cause to be removed any fishery product from such premises for such a period as may be reasonably necessary for the purposes of establishing whether a relevant offence has at any time been committed;

- (f) require any person on the premises to produce any documents which are in the custody or possession of that person relating to the catching, landing, transportation, transhipment, sale or disposal of any fishery product;
- (g) for the purpose of ascertaining whether a relevant offence has been committed, search the premises for any such document and may require any person on the premises to do anything which appears to that officer to be necessary for facilitating the search;
- (h) inspect and take copies of any such document produced or found on the premises;
- (i) require any appropriate or responsible person to render any such documents on a computer system into a visible and legible form and to produce them in a form in which they may be taken away; and
- (j) if the officer has reason to suspect that a relevant offence has been committed, seize and detain any such document produced or found on the premises, for the purposes of enabling the document to be used as evidence in proceedings for the offence.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) shall apply in relation to any land used in connection with any of the activities described in paragraph (1), or in respect of any vehicle which a British sea fishery officer has reasonable cause to believe is being used to transport fishery products, as they apply in relation to premises and, in the case of a vehicle, shall include power to require the vehicle to stop at any time and, if necessary, direct the vehicle to some other place to facilitate inspection.

(3) If the sheriff by information on oath is—

- (a) satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that any documents or other items which a British sea fishery officer has power under this article to inspect are on any premises and that their inspection is likely to disclose evidence of the commission of a relevant offence; and
- (b) also satisfied either—
 - (i) that admission to the premises has been or is likely to be refused and that notice of intention to apply for a warrant has been given to the occupier; or
 - (ii) that an application for admission or the giving of such notice would defeat the object of the entry; or
 - (iii) that the premises are unoccupied or the occupier is temporarily absent and it might defeat the object of the entry to await return of the occupier, the sheriff may by signed warrant, valid for a period of no more than 1 month, authorise a British sea fishery officer to enter the premises, if need be by using reasonable force, accompanied by such persons as appear to the officer to be necessary.

Powers of British sea-fishery officers to seize fish and fishing gear

16.—(1) Any British sea-fishery officer may seize—

- (a) in Scotland or in the Scottish zone; or
- (b) on a Scottish fishing boat wherever it may be,

any fishery product (including any receptacle which contains such product) and any net or other fishing gear to which this article applies.

(2) This article applies to—

- (a) any fishery product (including any receptacle which contains such product), in respect of which the officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that a relevant offence has been committed; and
- (b) any net or other fishing gear which the officer has reasonable grounds to suspect has been used in the commission of such offence.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph 9.8 of Annex III the Scottish Ministers are the competent authorities.

Protection of officers

17. A British sea fishery officer or a person assisting such an officer by virtue of article 14(3) or 15(1)(b) or (3) shall not be liable in any civil or criminal proceedings for anything done in the purported exercise of the powers conferred by articles 14, 15, or 16 if the court is satisfied that—

- (a) the act was done in good faith;
- (b) there were reasonable grounds for doing it; and
- (c) it was done with reasonable skill and care.

Obstruction of officers

18.—(1) Any person who—

- (a) fails without reasonable excuse to comply with any requirement imposed by a British sea fishery officer under the powers conferred on such officers by article 14 or 15;
- (b) without reasonable excuse prevents, or attempts to prevent, any other person from complying with such requirement; or
- (c) obstructs any such officer in the exercise of any of those powers or the powers conferred by article 16, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person guilty of an offence under paragraph (1) shall be liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum; or
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.

Offences by bodies corporate

19.—(1) Where an offence under this Order committed by a body corporate or a partnership is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to have been attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or similar officer of the body corporate, or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity (or in the case of a partnership, a partner or a person who was purporting to act as such), that person as well as the body corporate or the partnership, as the case may be, shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, the provisions of paragraph (1) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were a director of the body corporate.

Admissibility in evidence of logbooks and other documents

20.—(1) Any—

- (a) logbook kept under Article 6, 17.2 or 28c;
- (b) declaration submitted under Article 8.1, 11, 12, 17.2 or 28f;
- (c) effort report completed under Articles 19b and 19c;
- (d) sales note submitted under Article 9;
- (e) document drawn up under Article 13; or

(f) document containing required information received by a fisheries monitoring centre established under Article 3.7, of Regulation 2847/93⁽¹³⁾ shall, in any proceedings for an offence under article 11(1) or 11(2), or any equivalent provision extending to any other part of the United Kingdom made for the purposes of implementing a Community quota measure or a specified Community provision, be received in evidence without being produced or sworn to by any witness and shall, unless the contrary is shown, be conclusive evidence as to the matters stated therein.

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), “required information” shall mean data relating to–
