Consideration for officers' services

17.—(1) The aggregate amount of any consideration payable to or receivable by third parties during the period of account, where the consideration is £60,000 or more, for making available the services of any person to perform in the role of officer of the registered social landlord, or (while an officer of the registered social landlord) in connection with the management of the affairs of the registered social landlord or the affairs of any subsidiary undertaking of the registered social landlord.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, “third parties” means persons other than an officer of the registered social landlord or any of its subsidiary undertakings.
