SCHEDULE

Regulation 2(a)

“SCHEDULE 2

Regulation 4

CONVERSIONS TO WHICH THE REGULATIONS APPLY

1. Changes in the occupation or use of a building to create a dwelling or dwellings or a part thereof.
2. Changes in the occupation or use of a building ancillary to a dwelling to increase the area of human occupation.
3. Changes in the occupation or use of a building which alters the number of dwellings in the building.
4. Changes in the occupation or use of a domestic building to any other type of building.
5. Changes in the occupation or use of a residential building to any other type of building.
6. Changes in the occupation or use of a residential building which involve a significant alteration of the characteristics of the persons who occupy, or who will occupy, the building, or which significantly increase the number of people occupying, or expected to occupy, the building.
7. Changes in the occupation or use of a building so that it becomes a residential building.
8. Changes in the occupation or use of an exempt building (in terms of Schedule 1) to a building which is not so exempt.
9. Changes in the occupation or use of a building to allow access by the public where previously there was none.
10. Changes in the occupation or use of a building to accommodate parts in different occupation where previously it was not so occupied.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Building (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2006 (the “2006 Regulations”). These Regulations will come into force on 28th March 2007 before the 2006 Regulations come into force on 1st May 2007 so that the amendments will already be in place.

The amendments are in relation to the Schedule to the 2006 Regulations.

Regulation 2(a) substitutes a new Schedule 2 (which relates to conversions) for the one contained in the Schedule to the 2006 Regulations.

Regulation 2(b) makes changes to paragraphs 6.9 and 6.10 of Schedule 5 which is contained in the Schedule to the 2006 Regulations. The amendment to paragraph 6.9 is in relation to one of the limitations to the standard regarding energy performance certificates and provides that the limitation will not apply to shell and fit-out buildings and stand-alone buildings which were previously included in the limitation. The amendment to paragraph 6.10 is with regard to the Limitation thereto so that domestic buildings do not need to comply with the standard.
