(a) The factors set out in section 59(1) are:

- (a) the accessibility of the guardian to the adult and to his or her primary carer;
- (b) the ability of the guardian to carry out the functions of guardian;
- (c) any likely conflict of interest between the adult and the guardian;
- (d) undue concentration of power which is likely to arise in the guardian over the adult;
- (e) any adverse effects which the continuation of the appointment of the guardian would have on the interests of the adult;
- (f) such other matters as appear appropriate.
