EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules provide for the discontinuance and declaration of legalised police cells in the possession of Strathclyde Joint Police Board.

Rule 2 provides that two police cells in the police office at Millknowe Road, Campbeltown, can be used as places in which prisoners can be detained before, during or after trial for any period not exceeding thirty days.

Rule 3 revokes the Rule dated 18th February 1882, which designated police premises at Castlehill Street, Campbeltown, as a place in which prisoners could be detained before, during or after trial for any period not exceeding fourteen days. The effect of Rule 3 is that those premises can no longer be used for the detention of prisoners.
