EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Section 94 of the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 (“the Act”) defines a protected adult for the purposes of the Act. Section 94(1)(b) lists prescribed services, and section 97 of the Act provides that ‘prescribed’ means prescribed in Regulations. These Regulations prescribe certain services, receipt of which will confer protected adult status on an individual.

Regulation 3 provides that for the purposes of section 94(1)(b)(i) and (ii) of the Act, a service provided by a health body acting in exercise of functions conferred by the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978, concerning the treatment, care and support of, and provision of advice and assistance to individuals in relation to their health and well-being, is a prescribed service.

Regulation 4 provides that for the purposes of section 94(1)(b)(iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) of the Act, a service provided by an independent health care service as defined by sections 2(5) and 77 of the Regulation of Care (Scotland) Act 2001, concerning the treatment, care and support of, and provision of advice and assistance to individuals in relation to their health and well-being, is a prescribed service.

Regulation 5 prescribes welfare services for the purposes of section 94(1)(d) of the Act. Paragraphs (a) to (d) specify the mandatory elements required to qualify as a welfare service. Paragraph (e) specifies an additional element which qualifies a service as a welfare service and that is either where (i) there is an agreed contract in place between the organisation providing the service and the recipient, or where (ii) a particular service is being delivered in order to meet an individual’s needs. Therefore in order to qualify as a welfare service, the service must include the mandatory elements in paragraphs (a) to (d) and either the requirement in paragraph (e)(i) or the requirement in paragraph (e)(ii).
