Offences

Offences

27.—(1) It is an offence for a person to provide the GTCS or any other person with information if the person—

- (a) knows that the information is false or misleading in a material respect; and
- (b) knows, or could reasonably be expected to know that the GTCS may use the information in connection with the performance of its functions.

(2) It is an offence for a person to pretend, with fraudulent intent, to be registered in the register or in any other register of individuals working in educational settings kept by the GTCS under article 26 when the person is not so registered.

(3) A person who commits an offence under this article is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.
