The Cross-Border Mediation (Scotland) Regulations 2011

Extensions to prescription and limitation periods under the Prescription and Limitation (Scotland) Act 1973

6. After section 19D(1), insert—

“19F Extension of limitation periods: cross-border mediation

(1) The limitation period calculated in relation to a relevant cross-border dispute for the purposes of sections 17, 18, 18A or 18B of this Act is extended where the last day of the period would, apart from this subsection, fall—

- (a) in the 8 weeks after the date that a mediation in relation to the dispute ends;
- (b) on the date that a mediation in relation to the dispute ends; or
- (c) after the date when all of the parties to the dispute agree to participate in a mediation in relation to the dispute but before the date that such mediation ends.

(2) Where subsection (1) applies, the limitation period is extended so that it expires on the date falling 8 weeks after the date on which the mediation ends.

(3) For the purpose of this section, mediation in relation to a relevant cross-border dispute ends when any of the following occurs—

- (a) all of the parties reach an agreement in resolution of the dispute;
- (b) all of the parties agree to end the mediation;
- (c) a party withdraws from the mediation, which is the date on which—
 - (i) a party informs all of the other parties of that party’s withdrawal,
 - (ii) in the case of a mediation involving 2 parties, 14 days expire after a request made by one party to the other party for confirmation of whether the other party has withdrawn, if the other party does not respond in that period, or
 - (iii) in the case of a mediation involving more than 2 parties, a party informs all of the remaining parties that the party received no response in the 14 days after a request to another party for confirmation of whether the other party had withdrawn; or
- (d) a period of 14 days expires after the date on which the mediator’s tenure ends (by reason of death, resignation or otherwise), if a replacement mediator has not been appointed.

(4) In this section—

“the Directive” means Directive 2008/52/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21st May 2008 on certain aspects of mediation in civil and commercial matters;

(1) A section 19D was inserted by section 171(3) of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 \(c. 25\) and another by section 23(4) of the Arbitration (Scotland) Act 2010 \(asp 1\).

“mediation” and “mediator” have the meanings given by Article 3 of the Directive;
and

“relevant cross-border dispute” means a cross-border dispute within the meaning given by Article 2 of the Directive—

- (a) which is about a matter to which a limitation period applies by virtue of sections 17 to 18B; and
- (b) to which the Directive applies.”.
